Bears and Bearettes Are Victorious

RALEIGH — The Shaw University Bearettes closed their at home basketball schedule Friday night, March 4 with a clear out 34 to 19 victory over the Livingstone College sextet who seemed unable to solve the local team's fast breaking and sharp cutting attack.
Led by Captain Inez Massey the Shaw Bearettes held a 27 point advantage at half time which they never relinquished in spite of a steady flow of substitutes sent in by Coach Lenoir Cook.
Massey playing her last game on the Shaw court scored twenty one for high point honors while Hopkins with eleven points was Livingstone's chief threat.
Inez Massey and M. A. Massey played their last home game for the Bearettes since both are expected to receive degrees in June.

RALEIGH — Shaw University men's and women's basketball teams scored a clean sweep of a doubleheader with the Winston Salem Teachers College Cagers Saturday night, March 1 in the Shaw gymnasium. In the feature contest the Shaw men, closing their 1941 season, earned a 54 to 42 victory over the teachers while the Shaw women without the service of their ace forward Minnie Hunter, outscored the Twin City sextet 44 to 27.
Captain Fred Williams, playing his last basketball game for Shaw closed his career in a blaze of glory with deceptive passing and accurate shooting. His 12 points on six field goals earned second place scoring honors on his team. Shaw's Sam Brown with fourteen points earned first place among his teammates.
While Harold Taylor of Winston Salem with fifteen markers earned high point man of the event.
