

Come to Church for EASTER Services

He Has Risen

And when the sabbath was past Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him. And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun. And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre? And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great. And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted. And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: he is risen: he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.—St. Mark XVI.

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.—Colossians III.

THERE'S a wonderful spring tonic you can give yourself! Come to Church for Easter Services—with your family, and with your friends. Listen to young boys' voices sweetly raised in song. Hear simple words: inspired words aimed at bringing solace to restless souls and peace to idea-riddled minds.

At Easter as at few times in the year, we are reminded of the simplicity He preached . . . the brotherhood of man on which He based all His teachings . . . the love He wished to spread to all men's hearts. At Easter, His message lives again, just as He lives on in all that is good.

Come to Church for Easter Services. Sing and pray more sincerely than ever before. You'll be glad you did — when you come out of Church happy in spirit, and at peace with yourself!

This Page Sponsored in the Interest of the Churches And The Elimination Of Crime . . .

Durham Ministerial Alliance

CITY OF DURHAM

N. C. Mutual Life Insurance Co.

A FRIEND

