GOD'S WORD

"I am the living bread which came down from heaven; if any man eat of this bread, he shall live forever; and the bread which I will give is My flesh which I will give for life of the world."—John 6:51.

NO DIFFERENT

The lynching which occurred in Florida this week is no different from those of past years, and is evidence that the time has come when the fight for a federal anti-lynching bill can be halted. The argument that lynching is a thing of the past, and that officers of the law are becoming more diligent in the performance of their duty, has been laid low by the actions of the sheriff into whose hands the Negro had been placed.

It's the same old story of the officer being overpowered, and not being able to identify any of those who did it. It's the same old story of the sheriff cooperating with the lynchers so they can perpetrate their crime without molestation of the law.

We Americans register holy horror when we read of the murder of women and children in the war now going on in Europe. War is hell and whatever occurs in a war is expected to have a hellish flavor. On the other hand we wink at fiendish acts here in America that are more dastardly than the most heartless soldier could commit off the battlefield.

Southern Congressmen who fight anti-lynching legislation have but one purpose in view and that is to protect the right of their constituents to lynch without fear of federal law enforcement agents.

Florida will do nothing about this latest disgrace which has come to the nation because Florida officers of the law are lynchers at heart themselves and are in accord with lynching so long as the victim is a Negro.

AID FOR THE NAACP

Recently Negroes in Durham raised more than $500.00 for aid to Great Britain, which was a commendable act on their part. Certainly no one would object to giving aid to those in war torn Europe, regardless of race, creed or color. We think that it shows a measure of strength for Negroes, who know the black and bloody history of Great Britain towards her Negro and Indian subjects, to be able to forget about it long enough to share their mealy income with the Englishman.

However, the Carolina Times wonders if Durham Negroes even thought of raising as much as $500 to contribute to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. The NAACP sends out an appeal each year for funds to continue its fight against injustices which are heaped on the Negro.

but we find nowhere in the record where Durham Negroes have answered that appeal in as tangible a manner as they did in the aid to Great Britain Campaign.

What is behind the raising of the $500 for British relief and the failure of Durham Negroes to properly support the NAACP? Is it because the Durham Negro is more interested in Great Britain than in his own race here in America? We think not, gentle reader. We are of the opinion that the fundamental reason behind the failure of one and the success of the other are far more inclusive.

Negro Durham needs to awaken itself to what is going on around it. It needs to ask some questions about the actions of its leaders. It needs to become more interested in things here at home than in things in Europe. Negro Durham needs many things.

American Quislings Lindbergh Flayed

BY GORDON B. HANCOCK

When the herds of Hitler arrived in Norway, they found Quisling, a Nazi figurehead waiting to welcome them. It is useless to try to describe the ignominy of a man who would turn his country over to a Hitler. No commentary is needed; for posterity will write the full record of such treasons and traitors. Judas sold his Master for 30 pieces of silver but these Quislings would sell their native land for a mess of Hitler's pottage.

The most pressing problem of this country today is not its Negro problem but it is Quisling problem. For many decades this country has been welcoming immigrants from Europe and most of these have deserved the opportunity that they found in this New World. But it is becoming more and more evident that these foreigners breed our Quislings which afflict us like the plagues of Egypt. There is no use smoothing matters over, this Quisling problem is getting serious. These strikes and blasts and Lindbergh meetings are getting serious.

There is something rotten about a situation where a crowd must be admonished not to 'boo' the President; while it yells itself hoarse for Lindbergh who seems bent on doing his utmost to hamper our defense program. Some of us are becoming most impatient at the way things are going. If our Lindberghs and Quislings are going to run this nation it is high time notice to that effect is hereby given. If Roosevelt is to run the nation, then it is high time that our Quislings be put in their place and that is behind the bars where they cannot hamper us in our death struggle with Hitlerism.

Yesterday there was a motto that hung on the wall of many a home which read like this: "If you don't know who is boss of this house, start something!" Our Quislings headed by Lindbergh have "started something" in this country; and we are beginning to want to know who is boss about here and when is the boss going to "stop something!" The nation elected Roosevelt last fall to tide our country over one of its roughest places. Roosevelt has told us on more than one occasion that the threat to our national existence is the most serious in our history. The signs of the times point to an unparalleled crisis for mankind. Our country is called upon or will be within a short time to throw overboard a national heritage of freedom and democracy and liberty that only recently were purchased with sweat and tears and blood. For on our fine heritage we are asked to substitute a heartless Hitlerism.

Our Quislings with their defeatism are preaching nonresistance and ready acquiescence. Our Hitler stooges are "ready for the question" of exchanging democracy for Hitlerism with its racial persecutions and mass murders and bloody purges and a hellishness that cannot be described. Lindbergh our hero and idol seems bent on making the long and perilous leap from fame to shame. He who was standing upon the world about to crash into the depths of the topmost pedestal of fame is a shame. He is surrounded with a group of what used to be hero-worshippers but who are today merely "she-ro worshippers."

One of the debacles of democracy is when designing men can abuse its larger privileges. There is entirely too much anti-Americanism parading today under the guise of democracy. If democracy means giving comfort to the enemy then I am for curtailing democracy. If democracy means letting men hold anti American meetings designed to thwart our defense program, then I am ready to end that part of democracy. Men like Wheeler and Lindbergh and John Lewis have their rights under democracy; but when those rights are calculated to destroy the morale of our nation, then it is time to call a halt. A Quisling by any other name is just as dangerous.

It is true that we do not need to get witch hunting in our zeal for true Americanism, it is equally true that we do not need to stick up our hand just because Hitler and his Quislings have the gun on us. Some of us are about decided to make him shoot. Let Negroes wield their razors if they will, let Negroes go on with their higher incidence of crime and illegitimacy, let them plead guilty of having more syphilis if they must. Bad as these things are but they are better a thousand times than producing one Quisling. There is hope for a group that does not bear Quisling!

Man is remembered more by his failures than by his successes. He is blessed more for what he does not do, than he is praised for what he does. The reason for this is because failure or omission is more conspicuous.

Life is similar to a book. In fact, life's ledger has two apes. We may call one side the credit side, and the other the debit side. One must be judged more by his lost opportunities than by his accomplishments. Why should a person be praised for the things that he is expected to do, and should do much better than he does? Why shouldn't he be blamed for the opportunities he ignores?

Students grasp every opportunity! Let every Soldier and Civilian do likewise! Why? Because the best things of life are opportunities for service. One is helped most not when he is given something, but rather when he masters the way to make a fortune, not when he is bequeathed wisdom, but when he has the ability to acquire wisdom, not when he makes other recipients. This is the thing that goes to make up life.

The material things in life may be highly desirable, but often they are gross and sordid. They become an end in itself. They can nurture and sustain a hungry soul about as well as ice cream can satisfy a hungry stomach. If there is any satisfaction at all, it will last only a short while. The material would not amount to anything in this life, were it not for the spiritual. A golden cup can not quench one's thirst. Costly jewels can not lengthen life. Money can not create love and mercy, kindness and gentleness, patience and perseverance. The best opportunities are near us. They are not remote. They are in our homes, our vocations, our neighborhoods and in the depths of our individualities. All they ask is that we reach out and pluck them and develop them.

Each student, each person plans to do better and be better some day. Most people have some fine resolutions deep down in their hearts. Some day we shall fight that destructive habit, some day read those excellent books, some day help my college or hospital, some day speak the encouraging word to that struggling young man or woman, some day put into effect that decision.

He can who will, but some great opportunity comes but once. The less you do your job today the less you will do it tomorrow. Every period of life has its lessons and its duties. It is mighty hard to re-trace one's and do to day what should have been done yesterday.

The good things of life never cease, but they come in small numbers, the more we ignore them. Today you have health, time, friends and everything that could be desired. Tomorrow some of these will be gone. Do

THE HITCH-HIKERS

IS THERE A RACE PROBLEM?

BY RUTH TAYLOR

Read the papers carefully today and somewhere, in some connection, you will find the words "Negro Problem."

Little incidents are played up. Whenever a Negro commits a crime—his being a Negro is stressed—and so the ball grows. Discrimination, injustice, and a gradual fanning of the flames have kept it growing.

What is back of this raising of the cry—Negro problem? Who is fanning the fires of hatred and blind and senseless race prejudice? Who is it that benefits by the application of the slogan "Divide—and conquer?"

Negroes in America are citizens of the United States—subject to the same Constitution as other citizens, entitled to the same rights, and responsible for the same obligations. That is the law of the land, regardless of how selfish and self interested individuals may interpret it.

The existing status of Negroes is one for both races to change. The totalitarian states have solved it by relegating the Negro to a state of lowest inferiority. They believe in driving him all the way down. Fanily though the application of democratic principles may be, unjust and unfair though many of the restrictions and discriminations are, the trend of our democracy is to raise the Negro to the full stature of citizenship. Consider the gains that have been made over the years. Negroes have gained their rights far more rapidly than the women of the nation did theirs.

The larger responsibility for the solution of the problem lies with the majority—but what is needed is a common denominator by which both groups can live in the same country and respect the rights of both—honoring the individual as a man.

There are ways in which Negroes may greatly aid in bringing a better day in race relations. Let them strive to stand out and be counted as individuals. Let them show by every act and word that they are citizens in full cooperation with their govern-your best while you can. Contribute to the good things of life.

ment. Let them plibize the good their leaders have done and do—even more than the injustices done them. George Washington "arrest has done much for Negro advancement by being the man that he is.

Let every Negro count himself as an American—and live up to that high standard in every way. By the force of his own initiative and integrity he can compel the respect and acceptance he desires and the equality as a citizen that is his under the Constitution.

Sermonette

TEXT: — "He shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel."—Genesis 3:15.

The hope of the coming Redeemer was wrapped up in the pronouncement of the judgment that would fall on the head of man's seducer. The woman's seed would bruise him to his eventual discomfiture; but He would suffer the piercing of His heel in doing so. It would be a costly victory.

We have here 1, the Redeemer's first advent in lowly form; 2, the Redeemer's sufferings as the fruit of the enmity of Satan against the virgin-born, 3, the Redeemer's second advent in power and glory when His enemies are made His footstool.

Did fallen Adam understand in some measure the mystery of the incarnation, the atonement, and the kingdom of glory based on it? He certainly gave a new name to his wife, calling her Eve which means in the Hebrew, life. And DEATH came through Adam's sin, LIFE would come from the woman's Seed.

And it was then the Lord God clothed Adam with skins to hide his nakedness and to comfort him as he was about to be turned out into the cheerless night outside the garden. The fig leaves were of man's contrivance and could not supply an adequate covering. The skins were the fruit of death—the lamb or the kid had to yield its life in order to supply a garment for naked man.

In the Hebrew QAPHAR, that is to cover, is also the word for atone. And thus was set forth in the language of symbolism that our moral nakedness can only be covered by that which is the result of the dying of another. It was God, and not man, who planned it all, and executed the plan. The first sinners were thus divine creatures, and grace has and will continue to do till the end of the world.

This then is the first prophecy concerning the Messiah, the gospel at the gate of the Garden of Eden, which has become the germ out of which all messianic prophecy has sprung. It is any wonder that Abel should next bring an offering which also spoke of a vicarious death as the ground of his acceptance before God? God smiled upon Abel's altar because there He saw the type of Him whose obedience unto death would one day send up its sweet savor to God on behalf of disobedient man. That blood stained altar was a shadow of the cross of Calvary.

Alas, many prefer the way of Gain, rejecting the atoning sacrifice and the righteousness wrought out by Another, going about to establish their own righteousness, and refusing to submit to the righteousness of God. When at length we come to the end of our own self made righteousness, we glory in that righteous Branch of David's lineage, "the Lord our Righteous even in Christ whom God has made righteousness to all who believe in His name.
