

WOMAN'S PAGE

Durham Socials

By Janet Williams

Walltown

MISS SYBIL BREWER

The Fifth District Sunday School Convention was held for the first time at the North Side Baptist Church Thursday, June 12, and Sunday June 15.

The Male Chorus of St. John Baptist Church went to Fuquay Springs last Sunday to render service for one of the churches there.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Weaver left Saturday night, June 14, for New York where she will spend a short vacation with Miss Christine Headen.

The Community Club met at the home of Mrs. Mary Johnson on Third Street Monday night. The guests enjoyed a delicious course of Jello Salad, Ice cream and cake.

Hayestown

R. E. FLAKE

The "Plantation Chorus" under the direction of Johnny Patterson rendered a musical program Sunday afternoon, June 15 at 3 o'clock at the Orange Grove Baptist Church which was highly enjoyed by the large audience which was present.

Miss Bernice Richardson and her mother, Mrs. Lora Richardson are at home again after being ill in Lincoln Hospital. Friends hope they will continue to recuperate.

East Durham

MRS. A. J. STANLEY

Rev. J. W. Tarbron and grandson spent last week visiting his sister, Mrs. Lola Elam, 1322 Glenn Street. Rev. Tarbron is now pastoring in Winston Salem.

The Girls Sunday School Chorus of Ebenezer Baptist church sang at the Morning Star Church in Oxford, Sunday, June 15. The Chorus is scheduled to appear on program Sunday June 22nd at Terrell's Creek Baptist Church of which Rev. T. A. Grady is also pastor.

J. B. Brawley of Campbell Ohio is spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stanley 1408

Glenn St. Mr. Brawley is a cousin of A. J. Stanley.

Miss Octavia Barbee was highly entertained at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lucille Barbee at East Pettigrew Street with a graduation party on the lawn, Friday night, June 13. The lawn was beautifully lighted with splendid music for the occasion.

Those enjoying the hospitality of Miss Barbee were Misses Norma Thomas, Dora Chavis, Ruth Joyce, Trivylene Arnold, Louise Dawson, Dorothy Luster, Virginia Peele, Mildred Mayo and Magdalene Barbee.

Messes Paul Stroud, Kemp Long, Lafayette Barnes, Ernest McIver, Ferman Bates, Joe Watson, Ruby Hayes, Fonte Wooten, John Henry Lunsford, Thomas Athens, Linwood Perry, Mardell McNeil, Oscar Elam, James Raymond Pettiford, Claiborn Thorpe and Lester Luster.

A delicious course of refreshments was served before the close of the party.

Albright

BY MISS JAVIE ROGERS

Miss Elizabeth Womble of Romeo, Michigan is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Thompson, at 1312 Albright Street.

Miss Evelyn Carrington of Raleigh is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Jennie Carrington, of 1116 Hyde Park Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Strudwick recently entertained three graduates from Hillside Park High School. They were Miss Fionnie Rogers, who won a scholarship to Hampton Institute, Miss Fannie Cain who won a scholarship to North Carolina College and Miss Margie Daniels. The dining room was decorated with beautiful cut flowers and school colors, blue and white. There was a beautiful flower garden in the back where the guests spent an enjoyable evening dancing and playing games.

The guests were Misses Janice Rogers, Javie Rogers, Lurley Bass, Mamie Harris, Norman Thomas, Gwendolyn Flintall, Gladys Alston, Nannie Alston, Dora Chavis, Ruth Freeman, Thelma Davis, Octavia Barbee, Francie Thompson, Willie Sue and Anna Mitchell, Lucille Ellis, Evelyn Carrington, Pecolia Flintall, Doris Alston, Christine Cain, Trivylene Alston, Eliza Rogers.

Messes Benjamin Barnes,

DAY NURSERY

Pictured is a scene of one of the WPA operated nursery in the city of Charlotte. These tiny pre-school children are under the supervision of a trained worker, who guides them through the day until mother comes home from work. In addition to developing the hidden interest of the children, the nursery provides a wholesome environment for the kiddies, and encourages the formation of good habits.

Johnnie Hopkins, Jessie Kirkland Willie Jones, Robert McKinney, Nathaniel Daniels, Burdard and James Alston, Nathaniel Flintall, R. T. Perry, Walter Barbee, Emmett Strudwick, Jr., William Hams and James Bumpsee.

The Albright Yankees defeated the Elites 6-2 at Hillside Park Friday night in the last game of a double header. We hope the Yanks a successful year.

Newsboys Visit Movies

The following Carolina Times newsboys were guests of the Regal Theater Tuesday afternoon as a reward for having increased their sales for the week. Eugene Mumford, Benjamin Purefoy, Claude Baker, Jr., Johnny Stevenson, Lewon Davis and Nathaniel McCrae.

Times Has Reporters In All Sections

Beginning this week our local readers will again have the opportunity of getting social and church news from all sections of the city in Albright, Miss Javie Rogers of 1311 Hyde Park Avenue is news reporter and may be contacted by those who wish to have articles included in her column. Miss Syble Brewer of Fourth Street reports Walltown news. Mrs. Martha Stanley of Glenn Street gathers news in East Durham, while Mrs. M. E. Curtis is the representative for the Lyon Park section. Residents of Brookstown may report their news to Eugene Mumford who lives at 1406 Page St. In sections where no reporter has yet been appointed, readers may give articles to the CAROLINA TIMES newsboy. News may also be telephoned into the office. There are no charges for news.

last week. They were accompanied by their son, W. A. Tuck and Miss Thelma Tuck.

Misses Fannie Mayo of Baltimore, Md., Roxie and Eliza Mayo and James Thompson of Hillsboro were the Sunday afternoon guest of Mrs. M. H. Williams and Miss Janet Williams.

Bronfield Johnson Jr. spent the week end in Oxford visiting friends.

The Prayer Band of Ebenezer Church met at the home of Mrs. Harriet Barbee on Bailey Street Sunday afternoon. The service was opened by Miss Mary Jane Cunningham, after devotional services, the president Mrs. Julia Barbee took charge. Other homes visited were Mesdames Frances Jeffers on Glenn Street and Lovie Jenkins on Smith Street.

Durham Visiting From Maine

Rev. W. Tyler Nelson is back in the city after a years leave from Pine Street Presbyterian Church studying at the University of Pittsburgh and the Western Theological Seminary. Rev. Nelson received the Master's degree in Education and completed half the requirements for the Master's degree in Theology at Western Seminary.

C. A. Irvin, Director of Public Relations for the Carolina Times spent the week-end in Charlotte on a business trip.

John Southerland and Lennon Hardy, who are connected with the Mecklenburg County Welfare Department were week-end guest here.

Lodius Austin, employee of the Cape Fear Journal spent the week end with his wife, Mrs. Dinino Austin on Glenn Street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Tuck visited friends and relatives in many nearby cities of North Carolina

Miss Olivette Hall of Portland, Maine, a student at Saint Augustine's College in Raleigh, has been the guest of Miss Doris Holloway of 905 Elizabeth Street for the past week. While in the city Miss Hall accompanied her hostess to Winston Salem for a week end visit.

NCC Alumnus Passes Sunday

Durhamites were shocked this week on receiving news of the death of Miss Daisy Deimore Thomas, Burlington, North Carolina.

Miss Thomas, a graduate of North Carolina College in the class of 1930, died Sunday, June 15, and funeral services were held Tuesday, June 17.

There is no great and no small To the soul that maketh all; And where it cometh, all things are; And it cometh everywhere.

Charlotte Socials

By Mrs. Bessie Hardy

Mrs. Elizabeth Hardy Colvin is the niece of Mrs. Louis Harris of New York City came in town Monday. Mrs. Colvin is a former resident of Charlotte. She will be the guests of relatives and friends for 3 weeks.

Miss Betty Holmes of Raleigh was a visitor in the home of Rev. and Mrs. Davidson on Beatties Ford Road last Thursday.

Members of the Pickwick club entertained at their annual picnic last Thursday at the home of the Griers. Games were played during the evening. There were 50 guests present including in and out of town guests.

Rev. and Mrs. Paul Davis had their guest last week Mrs. Etta Spaulding and Miss Ruth Butcher of Columbia, S. C.

Miss Ida Johnson, young daughter of Professor Hodge Johnson entertained a few friends of the younger set Wednesday evening at her home on Davis street, honoring Miss Eloise McKinney who will be leaving for Texas next week to spend the summer.

Dewit Hairston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Worthy D. Hairston left the city Tuesday for Blowing Rock to work for the summer.

Mr. Ernest Friday, who is a patient at Good Samaritan Hospital is reported improving.

Members of the Pick Wick bridge club entertained their wives at their closing out party Tuesday evening at the home of the Griers on the Monroe Road.

Mrs. H. L. McCrorey entertained members of the Senior Class at the annual reception in the spacious and beautiful dining room of Johnson C. Smith University Wednesday evening. Miss Dorcas Gass of Sumter, arrived in the city last week to spend the summer. Miss Gass is the niece of Mrs. Louis Harris of East Stonewall St.

Rev. and Mrs. S. L. Young, of Winston Salem, were the house guests of Attorney and Mrs. L. P. Harris at their home on E. Stonewall street during Smith's commencement. Rev. and Mrs. Young are parents of Mrs. Harris.

Attorney J. S. Bowser left the city last week on a business trip to Detroit, Michigan. Attorney Bowser plans to be gone about two weeks.

Dr. B. F. Gordon returned to the city last week after being away for a short vacation.

Miss Jocelyn Tate, daughter of Mrs. A. J. Tate left for Pittsburgh, last Wednesday where she plans to spend the summer with her grand parents.

Members of the 7th Street Presbyterian church entertained at a reception Monday evening at the church in honor of their pastor Rev. J. W. Smith and his family. Rev. Smith was recently sent to 7th Street Church from Raleigh.

Attorney L. P. Harris was the guest speaker at China Grove church Sunday, June 15th Father's day in Pineville. Attorney Harris subject was "A wise son maketh a glad father and a wise father maketh a glad son." The program was sponsored by the Young Men's Willing Workers club of Charlotte composed of a group of young men belonging to different churches have come together and formed a club. It can be stated here that the "Young men willing workers club and is a member of Bethel church."

Hogs - Northampton County farmers are being urged to buy breeding hogs now in view of the possible scarcity this fall.

Who Benefits From Life Insurance

Have you ever asked yourself the question - "Who benefits most from life insurance?" Consider the following points carefully, then decide this question for yourself:

What investment offers the advantages of protection, plus financial security should sickness or any accident create a financial crisis?

What investment will guarantee the education of your children and keep the home intact—whether you live or die?

What investment will provide old age security and safeguard the mortgage on your home against loss?

What investment will protect your loved ones, should illness or death cut short your plans?

To all these questions the answer is—

YOUR LIFE INSURANCE

Can you afford to be without a North Carolina Mutual policy? See your nearest agent and have him explain how he can bring financial security to your home.

NORTH CAROLINA MUTUAL

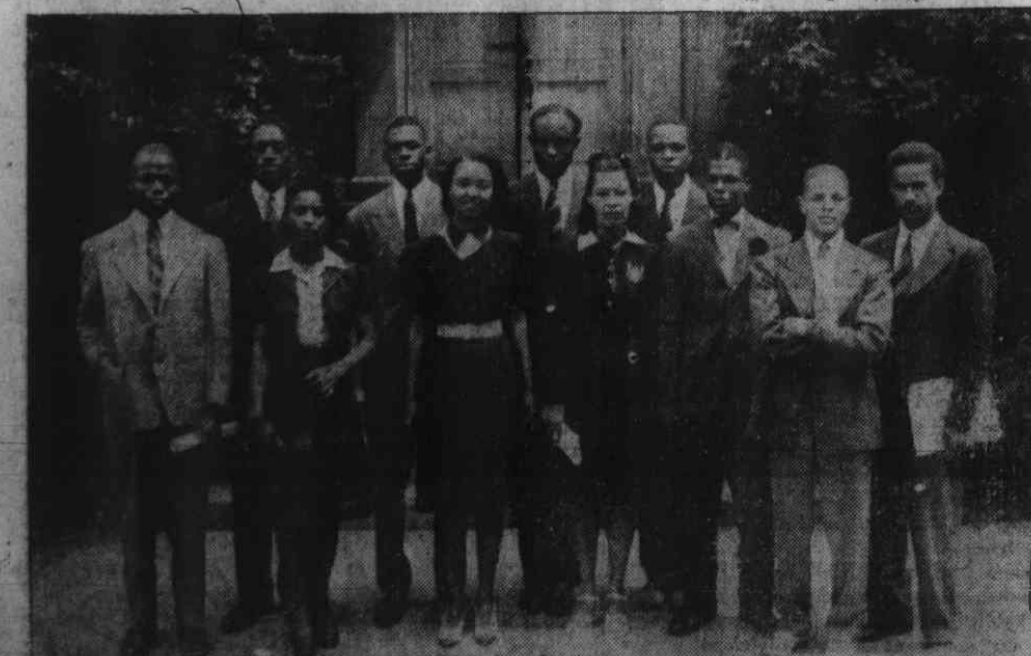

Life Insurance Company

C. C. SPAULDING, President * DURHAM, NORTH CAROLINA

Durham District Office
809 Fayetteville Street
W. L. COOK, Manager

Charlotte District Office
404 E. First Street
A. E. SPEARS, Manager

Students' Activities Committee At J. C. S. "U."

The Students' Activities Committee of Johnson C. Smith University, Charlotte, N. C., for 1940-1941. Reading left to right, front row: Seth Hester, Oxford, N. C.; Ruby Rhyne, Charlotte, N. C.; Mildred Rhadine Mitchell, Philadelphia, Pa.; President, Hattie I. Houston, Greensboro, N. C.; Secretary, William Eugene Houston, Camden, S. C.; Arthur Lyman Johnson, Hartford, Conn.; Walter Clarence Daniel, Macon, Georgia. Second Row: Edward Hargrave, Charlotte, N. C.; John Coleman, Spartanburg, S. C.; Charles Jenkins, Fort Pierce, Florida; Evans King Miss, Hendersonville, N. C.