

Cab Celebrates Anniversary In Charlotte With His All-Star Revue In Person

Charlotte — Cab Calloway will celebrate his tenth anniversary in Charlotte. Ten years of band success.

"The Jival Barrel" will be introduced for the first time at the Cab Calloway dance according to Frank Hanley, President of the Chancellors Club. The dance will be held on Thursday night, July 31 from 9:30 till 1:30 A. M. at the Charlotte Armory Auditorium.

CAB CALLOWAY

Cab Calloway who is known as one of the country's outstanding showman will come to Charlotte direct from the Strand theatre in New York where he opened on July the fourth and will close what is termed an all time high attendance record. People stood for hours in rainy weather to see the Major General of Jive and his all star revue, Calloways sizzling scorch songs and a solid cast of sepien stars.

For ten year the Calloway has topped the list of all colored bands, his rise to the top was because of hard work and his outstanding performance, he gives the audience every ounce of energy in his body to put the show over. Spectators always come early for Cab stay late.

His rise has been made by he is the author of or that he is the author of or he has made famous. His biggest hit was "Jumpin' Jive" for which he is know today at the "Prince of Jive," other songs that put Calloway away out ahead are "Boog It," "Minnie the Moocher" and his first old hit "Saint James Infirmary Blues" and thousands of others, with new releases about to be made in the near future.

The Calloway dance in Charlotte which looms to be the biggest of the year, is being sponsored by The Chancellors Club, a live wire civic organization of Charlotte. The club will have an extensive campaign on advance tickets. Placing them on sale at Fred Kemps cafe, Fred Pattons Sweet Shop and The Rex Drug Store. The dance will be held for the benefit of the Chancellors Christmas Cheer Fund. Each Christmas the fund is used to spread cheer among underprivileged colored children and is one of the city's most worthy causes.

Cab Calloway has always been a hard worker and an outstanding colored citizen. He has spent much time and money in the development of the underprivileged. Last year when Cab was here he took a morning off and went out to the West End Colored High School and spent hours with the children in a Jam session. Cab has never been too busy for his fellow man and boasts of hundreds of personal friends in Charlotte and nearby. Chu Berry and Cozy Cole, two members of the band and both nationally known musicians also have many personal friends in Charlotte.

The Chancellors Club is arranging a special section for whites, tickets will be on sale at Liggetts Drug Store.

Plans are being made to honor

Cab by leading colored citizens as some festivity in honor of his fine record in colored citizenship and his inspiration to the country.

Johnston Family Rewards Servant

Charlotte — It was announced today by the administrators of the Estate of the late C. W. Johnston, noted textile executive and Philanthropist, that the will provided for cash consideration of $1000 and a Chevrolet automobile to Baxter Maxwell who was a faithful servant in the Johnston family for more than 35 years.

This reward came to Mr. Maxwell, a prominent member of the Brooklyn Presbyterian church for his loyalty and faithful service which ought to serve as a reminder that conscientious efforts will not go unnoticed.

The provisions of the will were met within a few days after the demise of Mr. Johnston.

The CAROLINA TIMES is happy to observe that the deceased is survived by a son R. Hanson Johnston, an able executive who is well qualified to carry on the duties and responsibilities of his illustrious father.

LIVESTOCK

Marketing of livestock and total meat production so far in 1941 have been about as large as in the corresponding months of last year, reports the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

SMALL

German sea and air forces destroyed only 56 consignments of woolen goods of a total of 2,540 shipments sent to the United States from Great Britain since the start of the war in September, 1939.

Claims paid by the railroads because of loss or damage to freight while in transit are now less than one-fourth of what they were twenty years ago.
