

CIVILIAN TRAFFIC URGED TO STAY OUT OF MANEUVER AREA WHILE WAR GAMES ARE GOING ON

Speed Limit Of 25 to 35 Miles Per Hour To Be Enforced

Raleigh, Oct. 13.—Following a conference between Lieut. Col. Harry D. Scheibler and a representative of the Highway Commission at Hoffman this week, all civilian traffic is again being urged to remain out of Army maneuver areas while the war games are going on. This suggestion is advanced in the interest of the traveling public's safety and convenience and should apply except in case of highly important business or an emergency. Army officers reiterated today, however, that it is not planned to close or block any highways in the maneuver areas.

Reasons advanced by Col. Scheibler, for the request, are: (1) the large number of Army vehicles being used in the war games, which will subject civilian traffic to constant inconveniences. (2) Speed limits of 25 and 35 miles per hour have been established for all highways in maneuver areas by the Highway Commission, greatly restricting normal traffic in Army territory. (3) Army vehicles, during the blackouts at night, travel without headlight burning, creating a dangerous situation for civilian traffic, unless traveling at very low speed.

(4) Under special conditions during blackouts, the State Patrol may consider it necessary to close temporarily certain section of the highway over which Army movements are being made.

Units of the Army are reported to be well scattered throughout this area with large groups of Army trucks moving on the highways almost constantly. The routes and intersections are patrolled by Military Police with a large number of Highway Patrolmen being stationed in these areas for special duty. Army and civilian traffic, with restricted speed limits, create conditions under which civilian traffic could hardly hope to maintain a sustained speed at more than from 20 to 30 miles per hour. This situation lends added emphasis to the suggestion of Army officials and the Highway Commission that all civilian traffic avoid maneuver areas as much as possible except under extraordinary circumstances.

Information as to Army maneuvers is available at all times to the Highway Patrol which is maintaining an office adjoining that of the Provost Marshall.

BETWEEN THE LINES

NATISM NEXT DOOR

When Lindbergh sets upon the Jews he is coming dangerously near the Negroes. Nazism thrives on race hatreds and well might the Negroes tremble when the race persecution comes to the Jews, for then is it next door to the Negroes.

Only a fortuitous circumstance saved the Negroes from great persecution when Ku Klux Klan was directed wholly against Negroes the revised form of the movement included Jews, Catholics and Negroes, and therein was the Negroes' salvation. Had the Klan not mistakenly lined up against these other two elements in our nation, great would have been the tribulation of Negroes. But the Jews and Catholics could take care of themselves and incidentally they took care of the Negroes.

It is most fortunate for Negroes that Nazism in this country is making its initial racial assault on the Jews; and we only hope that the Catholics will come next as this will give the Negroes a breathing spell. Lindbergh has indirectly mitigated any wrath Nazism may be inclined to mete out to the Negro race; and there is such wrath, though latent, it is potent; and we must not deceive ourselves on this point. When the attack on the Jews comes, it brings trouble next door to the Negroes of the country.

We may as well be warned that unless Hitlerism is defeated great tribulation awaits our already hardpressed race. For every reason Negroes had for fighting in past wars, there are many reasons for fighting in this one. The threat against the Negro is more dire than ever and with the possibility of a worldwide conquest, those minority groups that are subjected until they are annihilated. That is to say, if Nazism wins world-wide dominion with its persecution complex, minority groups will be doomed perhaps unto their final extermination.

The democratic and Christian ideology has been the only redeeming hope of the interracial situation throughout the world. When democracy perishes from the earth the hopes and fortunes of the darker race will also perish. Then will Christianity be so emasculated that it cannot function in saving oppressed groups. It must not be forgotten that there are those in this country committed to the proposition that in order that this country may reach its destiny, it must be relieved of its darker population. The movement that springs up every and anon to have the Negro repatriated in Africa is merely a symptom of an underlying social disorder that will call for more attention as the years go by. There is a threat in this recurring movement that Negroes have never fully appreciated. Under Hitlerism the repatriation of Negroes in Africa would be speedily consummated.

Today we have a press in this nation that has a conscience; under Nazism the press would have none. Today the Negro can make his protest vocal; under Nazism his voice of protest would be silenced. Today the Negro's dark out look gives hope of a brighter tomorrow; under Nazism there would be no tomorrow. One of the most disquieting symptoms of this whole situation here in the United States is the sympathetic way in which Lindberghism is treated. Until his outburst against the Jews he was tolerated in a way that was most distressing. Instead regarding him as a pro-German and Hitlerite and Nazis of deepest hue, he was regarded in far too many circles as a patriotic zealot of his country's good.

It was disheartening to see how reverently the higher-ups regarded Wheeler and how slow the press was to brand him the pro-Hitler satrap that many believe him to be. The press of the nation has been entirely too sympathetic and "tender" in its handling of such men as Wheeler and Lindbergh and their vast-pocket satellites. In other words, Lindbergh and Wheeler have gotten away with "murder" in this country. That there are those to help them over is significant. The Nazi sympathizers are strong in this country and this strength is a dangerous threat to Negroes everywhere. Negroes may not be able to do much about it; but they should know what is taking place under their very eyes—next door.

DEFENSE BOND QUIZ

Q. How many Defense Savings Stamps does it take to fill an album?

A. Seventy-five 25-cent stamps—seventy-five 50-cent stamps; seventy-five $1 stamps; or fifteen $5 stamps. The completed albums are immediately exchangeable for Defense Bonds (Series 'E') at your post office, or through your bank.

Q. Who directs the National movement to sell Defense Savings Stamps in retail stores?

A. The Treasury's Retail Advisory Committee, of which Benjamin H. Namm, of the National Retail Dry Goods Association, is chairman. Officers of 13 other great national retail organizations comprise the committee.

Q. Has the Government set a quota to be raised through the sales of Defense Savings Bonds?

A. No; there is no quota and no time limit. The Defense Savings Program is to be a continuing effort, and both Defense Bonds and Stamps should be purchased steadily and regularly.

AMERICA'S OUTSTANDING ADVISOR ON LIFE'S PROBLEMS

IN THE SHADOW OF THE STARS

BY PROF. ABBE WALLACE

Y. V. M.—I'm very much in love with a boy who is nice and well mannered. There is also another girl. She asks him to see her but when we are out, he always pays more attention to me than anyone else. He has asked for my photo but I didn't give it to him. Tell me does he care?

Ans: He thinks you're mighty fine... but is in no position to confess his love right now and he desires to continue keeping company with both you girls. It is very evident that he prizes your friendship, but keep him guessing as you are doing... that makes going with you so interesting. Make a few friends yourself.

W. K. C.—When we were first married, my wife proved to me that she loved no one but me. But now for the past two years, there has been a slight change in her mind to separate. Is this right or wrong?

Ans: Wrong... give yourself a chance to straighten out the differences between you. It is true that she is a bit indifferent here or late but have you bothered yourself to see what is causing it? Take her out in the evenings more often than you have been doing... talk to her confidentially and see if you can't correct the trouble. I am sure you can if you go about it in the right way.

A. S. M.—Should I take the money that I have saved and pay off this mortgage and get this old home place or what do you advise?

Ans: I can't see how you could profit by assuming this great responsibility. The mortgage amounts to $1400 and the place really isn't worth it. Let it go... take your earnings and make the change to the north that you have been wanting to make so very long.

N. K. F.—My daughter and I can't get along. It seems like she hates me and I want some advice?

Ans: At the present time your daughter is terribly dissatisfied and she really is upset to the extent that she doesn't seem to care if she makes people around her unhappy or not. Continue to love and avoid her as much as possible... don't worry about her too much for in a few months she is going to see things quite differently.

E. B.—I'm writing to you now for advice. I'm in love with a high school graduate. He doesn't seem to love me. If I were to win his love I am sure it will make me a better girl. Tell me where his heart is right now?

Ans: His interests aren't centered on any one girl right now—there are bigger things for him to think about—he is trying desperately to establish himself in the business world. I do think with your very attractive disposition and self that you could win him—but don't think yourself at his feet. Arrange to be thrown in his company, even though you may not be with him, keep yourself charming and alluring and he will be attracted to you no doubt.

I. M. K.—I am a married woman and my husband stays out with another man's wife every night. He curses me and fights me when I get after him about it. Does he love me or her?

Ans: Right now he seems to think that he is madly in love with this other woman, but I feel confident that he is only infatuated. It will all blow over in time. The best thing for you to do is to stop saying anything at all to him about the woman—give him free rope for awhile and let him get her out of his system altogether. If her husband finds out—there will be fireworks and he will be glad to stay at home with you. A change will take place soon.

Who Benefits From Life Insurance?

Have you ever asked yourself the question — "Who benefits most from life insurance?" Consider the following points carefully, then decide this question for yourself:

- What investment offers the advantages of protection, plus financial security should sickness or any accident create a financial crisis?
- What investment will guarantee the education of your children and keep the home intact—whether you live or die?
- What investment will provide old age security and safeguard the mortgage on your home against loss?
- What investment will protect your loved ones, should illness or death cut short your plans?

To all these questions the answer is—
