Association Of Colleges And Secondary Schools For Negroes To Meet Southern University, Friday, Saturday, Dec. 4 - 5

The Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools will hold its Eighth Annual Meeting December 4-5 at Southern University, Scotlandville, La. Dr. R. B. Atwood, President of the Association has announced. The Association is made up of a total of 126 educational institutions for Negroes—40 colleges, 7 Junior Colleges, and 78 High Schools located in 12 different states and the District of Columbia which are accredited either by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools or by the regional accrediting agency within whose area they are located.

President Atwood of Kentucky State College has announced a two-day program for the meeting at Southern University that appears stimulating in every respect. Nationally known leaders in various fields are scheduled to make contributions to those representing member institutions on vital current phases of educational endeavor.

During the morning session, December 4, Dr. Eliza Atkins Glasgow, Director of the Atlanta University School of Library Service will discuss "The Role of the Trained Librarian in Schools and Colleges During the Present Emergency" and Mrs. Jessie Daniel Ames, General Field Secretary of the Commission on Interracial Cooperation, Atlanta, Georgia, will speak on some phase of her experiences in the field. Special meetings of the Commission on Higher Education and on Secondary Education are planned for the afternoon with the respective chairmen, T. E. McKinney of Johnson C. Smith University, and Prof. W. A. Robinson of Atlanta University, presiding.

A banquet session is scheduled for Thursday evening, December 4 at which time the representatives will hear Jesse O. Thomas on the "Defense Savings Bond Program" and Dr. Arthur D. Wright, President of the Southern Education Foundation of Washington, D. C. Dr. Wright was the first accrediting agent of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools for Negro schools.

The Commission on Higher Education and the Commission on Secondary Schools will make their reports to the Association Friday morning. Dr. Rayford, Howard University, Washington, D. C., will also address the meeting on "The Negro in the Post-War Settlement at the morning session. During the afternoon of the final day the representatives will hear Major Campbell O. Johnson, Executive Assistant, Selective Service System, on "Some Trends of Value to Education Revealed by Examinations of Registrants for the Selective Service System." Dr. T. Lynn Smith, head of the Department of Sociology, Louisiana State University, will also speak at this afternoon session.

The Association meeting will be brought to a close with a message from the Committee on Approval of Negro Schools of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Dr. J. Henry Highsmith, Secretary of the Southern Association Committee on Approval of Negro Schools, and Dr. George Howard, present Field Agent for inspecting Negro schools, will have charge of this meeting.

Dr. F. G. Clark, youthful, Progressive President of Southern University, and host to the Association's Eighth Annual meeting, is sparing no effort to make this the banner year so far as are atmosphere and general interests are concerned. Those persons who are making plans to attend should notify President Clark without delay.

Chinese leader sees victory over Japan with U. S. aid.

New York. — Emphatically and definitely denying that he was one of the signers of the purported request to President Roosevelt for separate Army officers' training school for colored and white, the Reverend D. V. Jemison, president of the National Baptist Convention, Inc., wrote the NAACP recently: "I am definitely and frankly with the leaders who signed the statement repudiating requests for Jim-Crow officers training. In no sense would I give my name to a thing of this kind."

If my name is anywhere attached to anything of this kind, it is either forged or the facts were kept secret. President Jemison was among those who David Stick, secretary to newsmaster Fulton Lewis, Jr., said were named by Edgar G. Brown, president of the United Government Employees, as having signed the dequest. Others are Dr. C. T. Murray, president of the National Negro Council; Leonard Lewis, counsel for the National
