BY ERNEST JOHNSON WASHINGTON, (A N P)

Simultaneous with the flareup over the question of admitting Negro war workers to the Willow Run Housing project in the Detroit area, scrap which has provoked many to see a weakening in the earlier policy of the Federal Public Housing administration, comes the announcement that Landgon W. Post, FPHA region director for the west coast section, informed all local housing authorities that he is against discrimination and Segregation in any public prol jects under his jurisdiction. His memorandum to the anthorities, dated Feb. 17, and released here by the racial relation division of FHPA on Wednesday, said:
