Eddie Durham And Orch Take King Kolax Engagement

Around The Town

WITH LIN HOLLOWAY

WILMINGTON, N. C. — The true caption of this column should be AROUND THE TOWN (S). The scribe has just completed a blitzkrieg tour of the eastern portion of the old north state and will herein report the conditions as I saw them. Kingston and Wilmington are suffering slightly from soldier-trouble because these towns are the only one of any size within close proximity to Camp Davis.

AT THE INK SPOTS - Lucky Millinder Hop, one of the Spots and the Baton-swinging Millinder were absent. Rumors have it that Lucky and the absent Spot had a cutting scrape prior to the dance and one of them got hurt up pretty badly. This statement is only what was rumored by those who should be in the know and its authenticity cannot be vouched for by yours truly as yet, but in the very near future an expose of exactly what kept these cats out of the lineup will follow in this column.

Routing schedules have caused King Kolax to drop his local engagement. In the place of the Kolax Revue, Lin Holloway will present to the dancing public of Durham, Eddie Durham and his All-Negro, All-girl's band. Eddie is well known in the music circles and his crew is considered the best all-girl crew in America. The date for this dance is on July 1st. Don't miss it.

LIN HOLLOWAY'S Victory Revue will open at the Wonder Bar on Sunday, June 20. Talent in this lineup include such favorites as Black an Tan, ace comedy and dance team, a host of fair ladies, Brodie Lipcomb's music, The Tunetwisters, Wilkie and his singing guitar and a host of others. Don't forget the opening date, Sunday June 20 at the Wonder Bar, Durham's leading Nite Club.

THE DURHAM Ministerial Alliance has taken upon itself the job of applying sufficient pressure to the people of Durham to raise an amount which will be equal to the costs of further prosecuting the Case of Doris Lyons and Officer Gates of the Durham Police Department. This is a notable step on the part of the ministers of the city who want to see justice done in the case. The case has been appealed to the Superior court and added expenses have made it necessary to secure additional funds to counteract them. Do your part to help the minister's fight for Justice. When asked to donate to this cause, give all you can. You will be helping yourself and your family. You will insure Justice in the future for

NEW YORK'S PIANO DARLING GOES HOLLYWOOD

Hazel Scott, darling of New York's Cafe Society and pianist A-1 from Trinidad, the land of the Calypso singers, has been signed to play a special number in the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production, "I Dood It," starring Red Skelton and Eleanor Powell. Miss Scott, who won fame in New York's cafe circles, is well known for her many piano recordings. Recognized as a talented exponent of the classics, the artist devised a clever method of presenting such selections for boogie woogie devotees. First she presents the classical version of her number and then, very gradually gets hot, but hot.

Eddie Durham's All-Girl Orchestra To Appear At City Armory July 1st

ELLA FITZGERALD and Her Famous Orchestra leading the orchestra which was rumored to have been circulated that Ella Fitzgerald, acclaimed by many as being the All-American "Queen of Song" is seriously contemplating going back into the baton swinging business once more, Ella retired from Routing difficulties have caused King Kolax's Revue, scheduled to appear in the Durham City Armory on July 2nd, to cancel the engagement. In the place of the Kolax Revue, Lin Holloway of the CAROLINA TIMES staff has acquired the services of Eddie Durham and his All-girl orchestra. Eddie Durham was formerly featured with Count Basie's band in the trombonist chair. He was connected with the original International Sweethearts of Rhythm and remained with this group until he had collected enough feminine talent to appear under his baton. Durham has been collaborating on some compositions by the "Count" and is well known in musical circles. The aggregation under the baton of Eddie Durham is now the greatest all-Negro, All-girl's band in the country, and the Durham engagement scheduled for July 1 promises to be one of the greatest attractions to ever appear in the Durham Armory.
