Klans Being Laughed Out Of Existence

CHICAGO
The KKK isn't what it used to be, says WASHINGTON POST reporter Ben Price in September Negro DIGEST...

Reporting on recent Klan papers which were jeered into nothingness, Price reports: "During a Klan parade through the colored district of Gainesville, Georgia, a Negro woman shouted from her porch..."

As an example of the growing derision whites are heaping on the Klan, reporter Price relates this Columbia, South Carolina, incident in the Negro DIGEST story: "Grand Dragon Dr. Samuel Green told a crowd of Klansmen and curious that unless 'White supremacy is maintained, the day will come when a black buck Negro may ask for your daughter's hand in marriage.'"

"A voice on the edge of the crowd drawled, 'Well, she can always say no, can't she?'" Price concludes: "After this a stink bomb was thrown into the midst of the Klansmen and police broke up the meeting."

Miss Gravely Is Crowned 'Miss Reidsville'

By C. R. CLARKE
REIDSVILLE
Miss Minnie Lee Gravely was crowned "Miss Reidsville" by the Assistant Mayor of this city...

Rocky Mount born Kay Kyser who has gone farther in the entertainment world than any other North Carolina native will meet here on Monday evening, Aug. 15, with citizens of Dare County and purpose of the meeting will be to discuss the future of Paul Green's symphonic drama The Lost Colony which this year is celebrating its 13th anniversary since the premiere in 1937.

The noted band leader and radio star who is spending the summer with his family and mother on Nags Head has a devoted interest in the Paul Green epic which is becoming the world's outstanding drama through the years has also had tough sledding financially. Mr. Kyser has ideas which will assure, he believes a brighter and more stable future for the production. He will exchange his ideas with the ideas of leading citizens of this area including members of the Roanoke Island Historical Association, sponsor of the show and heads of the three chambers of commerce in the county which include Guy Lennon, Dare County Chamber of Commerce; Warren Jennette, Nags Head Chamber of Commerce and Walter Perry, head of the former Dare Beaches Chamber and Kitty Hawk Chamber of Commerce.

Plans for the meeting on Monday evening, August 15th, were made this week when Chamber of Commerce officials, county and association executives met with Kyser.

Kyser has made it clear that the successful future of The Lost Colony is definitely not a one man job and that it will take the cooperation of the county-at-large to make the show a financial success. As a result it was decided at the informal meeting between the famous band leader and officials this week that the logical procedure to follow would be a mass meeting and that is what will be held on Monday night, August 15 at 8 o'clock in the Dare County Courthouse. Kyser will appear at the meeting in the role of master of ceremonies.

Fishing Good At Nags Head In August
MANTEO, N. C.
Fishing has been at its very best in Nags Head waters during the early days of August. Anglers from this and many other states have tried their piscatorial luck in the fresh ponds of Nags Head, the sounds at Oregon Inlet, from the ocean fishing piers on Nags Head and in the Gulf Stream a few miles offshore. Species taken have included sailfish, dolphin, amberjack, cero, albacore, remora, cabio, channel bass, bluefish, flounder, trout, sea mullet, channel bass, bream and large mouth bass.

EXECUTORS NOTICE TO CREDITORS
Having qualified as Executor of the estate of Nancy Ellen Smith, deceased, late of Durham County, North Carolina, this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate of said deceased to exhibit them to the undersigned at North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company or at the office of his attorney, 111 Corcoran Street, Durham, North Carolina, on or before the 6th day of August, 1950, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment. This the 6th day of August, 1949. W. J. KENNEDY, Jr., Executor of the Estate of Nancy Ellen Smith. VICTOR S. BRYANT, Attorney.

The renowned "Dynamo Of The Saxophone," whose RCA Victor recording contract was just recently extended for an additional two-year period on the strength of the sales figures being achieved by his waxing of "Black Velvet," is set to wax four new sides for RCA Victor before he departs on an extended road tour late this month. Jaquet's exciting sax work is highlighted on both sides of his new release, which is in sharp contrast to the melodic rhythmic pattern he set forth in the very smooth flowing "Black Velvet."

Blue Ribbons Awarded To Eighteen In Show

Blue Ribbon awards were given to 18 animals entered in the third annual cattle show held by Rockingham farmers according to T. D. Williamson, county agent. 26 animals were entered in the show.

Ten animals received red ribbons and three received white ribbons. L. Wynn, dairy specialist at A. and T. College was the show judge. Grand champion of the Guernsey breed was exhibited by Arthur Hooper and the animal also won top honors in showmanship. Robert Daniels exhibited the Jersey champion; Curtis Anderson showed the top-ranking bull of any breed, and Fletcher Motley showed the best-fitted dairy animal of any breed.

Vets Need To Get Papers In Order For School

There are only 90 more shopping days until school starts, and these veterans who intend to make the first use of their eligibility under the G. I. Bill to enter a school this fall will need that much time for preliminary arrangements, the Veterans Administration reminded them today.

Jacquet Has New Wax Seen As Sure Hit

Illinois Jaquet, whose RCA Victor platter of "Black Velvet" is spinning merrily in the jukeboxes and on disc-jockey programs as one of the nation's biggest record hits, has come forth with still another new RCA release, coupling two frantic instrumentals, "Big Foot" and "B.Yot."

The veteran holding an unused G. I. Bill certificate of eligibility issued before Sept. 1, 1948, must exchange it for a new type certificate. Copies of separation papers also must accompany the exchange application for eligibility determination.

If dependents are to be claimed for subsistence allowance purposes, veterans should start obtaining evidence in the form of certified public records for submitting upon entrance into training.

Mrs. Gant Is New Oxford Schools Head

OXFORD
Mrs. Mary W. Gant has recently been appointed supervisor of the Oxford City Schools. She is the wife of the Rev. G. S. Gant, pastor of Sanford Circuit A. M. E. Churches of Sanford and Lee Counties.

Mrs. Gant is the former Miss Mary E. Wimberley of Rocky Mount. She received her early training in the public schools of her home town, and earned her Bachelor of Science degree in mathematics and science at Shaw University in 1930. After several years of successful teaching in the public schools of this state, she went back to school and received her master's degree in education from Atlanta University in 1947. She served as a consultant in the Workshop in Family Life Education conducted in July in North Wilkesboro, in connection with the Workshop in Family Life Education which was offered at North Carolina College this summer.

Being a Methodist minister's wife, Mrs. Gant has had a variety of teaching experiences in public school education. She has held positions in the high schools of Rich Square, Reidsville, and Hillsboro, and also in the Albemarle and Granville County systems. Before assuming her new post, she was instructor in mathematics at Toler High School in the Granville County system.

Not only is Mrs. Gant recognized for her achievements as a classroom teacher, but also for the services she renders to the community in general. She served for three years as president of the Granville County Parent-Teachers Association, and for two years as president of the Durham District Woman's Missionary Society of the African Methodist Episcopal Church.

The citizens of Oxford are well pleased with the appointment and feel that Mrs. Gant is well qualified for the job. She is a member of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority.

She received her early training in the public schools of her home town, and earned her Bachelor of Science degree in mathematics and science at Shaw University in 1930. After several years of successful teaching in the public schools of this state, she went back to school and received her master's degree in education from Atlanta University in 1947. She served as a consultant in the Workshop in Family Life Education conducted in July in North Wilkesboro, in connection with the Workshop in Family Life Education which was offered at North Carolina College this summer. Being a Methodist minister's wife, Mrs. Gant has had a variety of teaching experiences in public school education. She has held positions in the high schools of Rich Square, Reidsville, and Hillsboro, and also in the Albemarle and Granville County systems. Before assuming her new post, she was instructor in mathematics at Toler High School in the Granville County system. Not only is Mrs. Gant recognized for her achievements as a classroom teacher, but also for the services she renders to the community in general. She served for three years as president of the Granville County Parent-Teachers Association, and for two years as president of the Durham District Woman's Missionary Society of the African Methodist Episcopal Church. The citizens of Oxford are well pleased with the appointment and feel that Mrs. Gant is well qualified for the job. She is a member of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority.
