Mary Glymph—

(Continued from Page Five) Miss Virginia Mayo of Durham, wearing pink, Miss Carolyn Brown of Lynchburg and Miss Dorothy Andrews, sister of the groom, wearing blue. They carried mixed flower bouquets, tied with matching satin ribbon. Little Peggy Daye was flower girl and wore floor length white marquisette dress with full skirt and short-puffed sleeves, and a white satin ribbon bandeau. She carried a white basket filled with rose petals which she strew in the path of the bride. Mr. Andrews had his brother, Dan Andrews, Jr., as best man. Ushers were: Alphonso Clement, brother-in-law of the bride, Cecil Goins, Samuel Burton and Richard Andrews, brother of the groom. Mrs. Frank Glymph chose for her daughter's wedding a turquoise crepe dress, black accessories and corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Andrews, the bridegroom's mother, wore a dinner gown of black and white faille and a corsage of white rose buds. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Alphonso Clements. Guests were greeted at the door by Miss Doris Albright and introduced to the receiving line. Receiving with the bridal couple were the bride's parents, the bridegroom's parents and the wedding party. The entire house was attractively decorated with an arrangement of flowers carrying out a color scheme of white and green. The dining room table was covered with an imported embroidered Irish linen cloth and had, as a center piece, an arrangement of white button crystal themums and tuberoses, flanked on either side by candleholders with burning tapers. At one end of the table was placed a three tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. After the first slice of cake was cut by the bridal couple, Mrs. Lucille Z. Williams completed the serving. Miss Mary Lois Clements presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Arteria Bryant directed to the gift room. During the evening the couple left for a wedding trip to New York. For traveling the bride changed to a blue wool gaberdine suit with accessories of dove grey. The orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet completed her costume. Mrs. Andrews is a graduate of the public schools of Newberry, South Carolina and received her B. S. Degree in Business Administration at A. and T. College in Greensboro. Mrs. Andrews is a member of the A. K. A. Sorority. She is employed at the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company. Mr. Andrews is a product of the Winston Salem School System and his college work was done at A. and T. College in Greensboro, where he received a B. S. Degree in Business Administration. He is in business with his father in Winston-Salem. The Andrews Plumbing and Heating Company. Mr. Andrews is affiliated with the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity. Out of town guests were: Mrs. Carrie Rogers, aunt of the bride; Master Raymon Rogers, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Crownwell, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Cunningham, Mrs. James Aspangh, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. White, Mrs. Carrie

Richards, Mrs. M. Linton, Miss Louise Yserly, N. D. Lyserly, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Black, of Winston Salem; Mrs. John Anderson, High Point; Miss Marion Campbell, Philadelphia.

Bears

(Continued from Page Four) PATry was perfect. Hampton's touchdown climaxed an interrupted march which began on Shaw's 35-yard marker, ended on their five-yard line, and started again on the Bears' 34-yard line. Before the peg from Carroll to Lewis, Dillard flipped a beauty to end Robert Ayers, moving the pigskin to the 14-yard stripe. Halfback James Bryson gained two yards through the middle, and the next play earned the Virginians a half-dozen points. At the end of the game, Shaw was moving toward the Pirate goal from the Seaside's 30-yard line. * * * Booker T. Washington's (Norfolk) High School Band staged a gigantic half-time parade, with all lights on Foreman Field being turned off, and lights on the bandmen's instruments and ankles forming intricate patterns in the dark. * * * Among press box workers and visitors were pen-men Kearney, Cal Jacox, and Editor P. B. Young, all of the GUIDE; Alex Rivera, the COURIER; Statistician William Clark, Jr., and Assistant Director of Public Relations, Claude Nelson, Jr., both from Hampton Institute; J. W. Wallace, Director of Publicity, Shaw University; and Booker T. Alexander, Shriner Promotional Director from the Motor City in Michigan.

THE SUGAR COATING

THE HISTORY OF COTTON TEXTILES

ALWAYS pioneers in industrial progress, textile manufacturers were among the first to make practical use of steam power and as early as 1827 Slater erected a "Steam Mill" in Providence. Because coal and raw cotton were easily transported by sea, while humid ocean air aided manufacturing processes, mills soon sprang up in such ports as New Bedford, Fall River and Salem, still centers of textile manufacturing. SAMUEL SLATER WAS AMONG THE FIRST TO harness steam for cotton manufacturing. MANY PORT CITIES BECAME MANUFACTURING CENTERS BECAUSE COTTON AND COAL WERE EASILY SHIPPED BY SEA. THE GROWING INDUSTRY WAS FURTHER STIMULATED WHEN CLIPPER SHIPS AND WHALERS CARRIED GOODS TO ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD. HE HAD A MILL IN GREENSBORO, N.C., WAS THE FIRST SOUTHERN PLANT TO USE STEAM POWER. WOOD FROM NEARBY FORESTS SUPPLIED THE FUEL.

Pictured above are the officers and members of the Penny-Saving-Club who entertained about seventy guests on last Saturday night. Pictured left to right are: Rev. J. C. Milt To Play For Jockey's Celebration

WATERLOO, IOWA A real long range booking was set this week with the signing of Milt Buckner's exciting new band to play the first anniversary celebration of disc-jockey Ray Starr's "Ray's Record Room" program on radio station KWLL, Waterloo, Sept. 8, 1950. Disc-jockey Starr, who had been spinning the platters on another station in this city for the past two years, recently switched his show to KWLL and on his initial KWLL broadcast promised his radio audience a big anniversary dance when the program marked its milestone. The platter-spinner, whose most requested disc has been Buckner's MGM waxing of "Milt's Boogie," then promised he would bring Buckner's band to Waterloo if a thousand listeners would write in their approval. In the next few days Starr was deluged with more than 5000 Buckner requests and the deal was promptly set.

Sarah Vaughan Slated For Apollo Date

NEW YORK Sarah Vaughan, the girl with the "Magic Voice," will make a triumphant return to the spot from where she launched her career by winning an amateur contest when she headlines in a week's engagement on the stage of the 125th Street Apollo Theater in Harlem, opening Friday, Sept. 30, at a salary of $3500 plus a percentage of the receipts. It was a mere six years ago that the teen-aged Sarah came over from her home town of Newark, N. J., to win first prize in the Apollo's amateur contest and start on the road to fame and fortune. In her appearance at the Apollo, Sarah will be introduced by disc-jockey "Symphony Sid" Torin of WJZ's "Symphony Sid Show." The popular platter-spinner was one of the first persons to spot her as a potential star and gave her a big boost up the ladder of success when her first records were released a few years ago. Others attending were: Mrs. Maggie McGhee, Mrs. Florence Earl, Mrs. Lorena Spain, Mrs. Modessa Morgan, Miss China L. Jones, Mrs. Mary Blake, Wade Blake, Jr. and Sr., Joe McGhee, Robert Lambeth, George Blake, Beatrice Blake, Alton Freeland, W. A. Amey.

We believe that when Beaver is removed peace will be restored to our school and community, but never until then. We have been informed that the powers that be have used their influence with the local papers, the radio and the Associated Press to prevent us from giving any publicity so the facts can not be known. 10. We are compelled to use these handbills to inform the people. Why are the school authorities afraid of the facts being told? We, therefore, humbly beg the trustees to keep their promise and we are now appealing to our friends, black and white, to help us in our struggle for justice and fair play. We want to prevent serious trouble. Chain (Continued from Page One) stitute. Mrs. Callie Daye, proprietor of Club Boulevard Beauty Nook, local business woman is chairman of the Contest Committee.
