

N.C.C. Eagles Claw Trojans, 19-14

Homecoming Fans See 15 Year-Old Jinx Broken By NCC Team

By Ronald C. Foreman, Jr.

Virginia State's Trojans almost netted two yards rushing here last Saturday, but had to content themselves with a brace of fourth period touchdowns, as a strong North Carolina College eleven treated 9,500 Homecoming fans to a 19-14 victory, the first Eagle win over the Trojans since 1934.

Coach Herman H. Riddick's Eagles kept Virginia State's dangerous backfield bottled up most of the afternoon, while engineering a tally in the second period and two more in the third quarter. After quarterback Willie Bradshaw hit end John Hunter with a 22-yard pass to the Trojan 21 and completed another aerial to halfback Welton Britt, to the seven-yard stripe, halfback Butler Taylor went the distance to score.

The Eagles' second touchdown drive started on Virginia State's 47-yard line, when linebacker Edward Darden intercepted a Trojan pass. Taylor and freshman fullback McClain Matthews, from Hampton, Va., divided ball-carrying chores as far as the 26. After two line backs had failed to gain yardage, Taylor flipped a pass to Hunter to the 13, powered his way to the seven, two plays later, and then completed a school's-out toss to Britt. Several moments later halfback Otto Fuller, from St. Petersburg, Fla., ran a 20-yard Trojan kick to the visitors' four, and Taylor swept right end on the next play for the Tar Heels' final TD.

Both Virginia State touchdowns came in the final period on passes from quarterback Barnes to halfback Ray Crittenden. The first touchdown play covered 54 yards from the Trojans' 46-yard line. The Old Dominion Staters tallied their second six-pointer after a desperate passing attack had placed the ball on North Carolina's six-yard line. Fullback Willis converted both extra points for the Virginians.

The Eagles made 14 first downs, 165 yards rushing, 74 yards passing and completed five of 10 passes. Virginia State netted minus two yards rushing, 138 yards passing, made nine first downs, and completed nine of 17 aerials.

Score by Periods

NCC	6	0	13	0	19
Va. State	0	0	0	14	14

North Carolina Scoring: Taylor, 2 touchdowns. Britt, 1 touchdown. Extra point, Matthews, 1.

Virginia State scoring: Crittenden, 2 touchdowns. Extra point, Willis, 2.

Butler "Blue Juice" Taylor, a Virginian from Newport News, helped the Eagles foil the Virginia State Trojans for the first time since 194 last Saturday at O'Kelly Field before a pleased crowd of Homecoming fans. Taylor literally ran and passed the Virginians ragged, scoring two touchdowns himself and passing for the other. The Eagles defeated the Trojans by a 19-14 score.

St. Augustine Swamps St. Paul By 37-0 Count

RALEIGH

Scoring in every quarter the St. Augustine's Falcons piled up six touchdowns and one conversion to swamp the St. Paul Tigers 37-0 in a contest played under the lights in Chavis Park October 15. The Falcons' second and third team saw plenty of action.

St. Augustine's kicked off to St. Paul's. Unable to gain the Tigers kicked. Within three minutes Quarterback Roland Miles had sent his backs through offensive maneuvers which had the Tigers baffled. A long pass, Miles to Jesse Clements, clicked for the first touchdown.

St. Paul's failed to gain after receiving the kickoff. Burt got off a long punt, but the Falcons got rolling from deep in their territory. Clarence Jones scored the second touchdown on an off-tackle smash. Middleton converted. In the last minutes of the quarter, with the reserves predominating in the Saint Augustine lineup George Clements pitched a 20 yard pass to "Catfish" Simmons, right end, who scampered 30 yards to score. The half ended with the Falcons in possession on the Tigers' 5. Score — St. Augustine's 19, St. Paul's 0.

St. Augustine's received the kickoff on their own 21, and immediately launched a drive down the field with alternating handoffs and passes from the T formation. A pass, Miles to J. Clements, was good for 9 yards. Clements lateraled to Bobby Clark, who ran the remaining 10 yards to the goal line. The next scoring play came when Miles faked a pass on St. Paul's 30 and ran the ball to score standing up.

A beautiful pass from Quarterback Ernest Hicks to Statham, right end, was good for 35 yards. Bobby Clark took the ball over for the final touchdown on a 14 yard jaunt.

Hicks and Miles alternated at sparking the team. Hicks, playing his last year, completed five out of six tries with long and short jump passes for a total of 81 yards.

St. Paul's got the ball into St. Augustine's territory twice in the last quarter, but lost the ball repeatedly on interceptions and being held for downs. The Tigers failed to make progress against the Falcons' forward line, making a net gain of only 21 yards against the Falcons' 274. St. Augustine gained 142 yards through the air to Saint Paul's 30. The visitors collected only 3 first downs while Saint Augustine's made 14.

Aggies Eke Out 7-6 Victory Over Shaw In Thriller

GREENSBORO

With goal dust in their eyes and championship ambitions in their hearts, an undefeated A and T Aggie eleven nipped a stubborn Shaw University football team 7-6 here last week before 8,500 highly partisan fans after trailing until the ebbing minutes of the encounter.

The slim margin of difference was Bill Blakely's point after the touchdown for the Aggies.

After a scoreless first half which highlighted the two evenly matched front walls and the well timed aerial attacks of both teams, Shaw scored on a five yard throw from Jimmy Jackson to James Brown, elongated end from Philadelphia, Pa., after getting possession of the ball on the 10 yard line on a bobble by William "Red" Jackson which was recovered by Leroy Way.

With the last quarter almost spent, the Aggie grid machine was set into motion by Robert "Stonewall" Jackson, who conspired with Milas Kelly, senior quarterback from Media, Pa., who sparked a sensational 93 yard sustained drive for the lone Aggie TD.

This spectacular show of power and strength came about midway of the last quarter after the Aggies had been punted out of bounds on their own 7 yard line. Bill Blakely converted.

The victory drive was climaxed by a beautiful south-paw pass by Athie Garrison to Red Jackson from the 18 which he took over for the tying tally.

Defensively, both teams were evenly matched but offensively, Shaw excelled in every department of the statistics except the scoring. Twillie Bellamy won individual honors hands down. He was little short of sensational.

Bisons And Lions To Clash For Turkey Tilt

Definite announcement that the annual Lincoln Howard Classic, traditional Thanksgiving Day encounter, will be played at Temple Stadium, Phila., on November 24 was made today by Professor Harold F. Grim, Chairman of the Athletic Committee at Lincoln.

The Lincoln-Howard classic is the oldest standing rivalry between colored teams in the United States. The forty-two games series dates from 1894, when Lincoln defeated the Howard squad 6-5. Since that date, Howard has won 19 games, Lincoln 11, and there have been seven deadlocks.

Lincoln University is the nation's oldest school for colored Americans, having been founded in 1854. Howard is the nation's largest University for colored students, and is the only school anywhere in the country supported by the federal government.

Temple Stadium was the scene of the classic two years ago, when Lincoln took a 20-0 defeat. Last year Lincoln was defeated at Griffith Stadium, Washington, D. C.

SMITH "BULLS" TO MEET "RAMS" OF W. S. T. C. IN HOMECOMER OCTOBER 29

CHARLOTTE

The Homecoming Committee at Johnson C. Smith University, which is headed by J. Gerard Benson, is making preparation for the return of alumni, former students and friends on Oct. 29.

The activities of the day will begin at 12:30 P. M. with a motorcade, composed of beautifully decorated cars, the leading one bearing the Homecoming Queen, Miss Iris Peebles, a junior, who hails from Raleigh. In the parade will be several bands.

At 2 P. M. the "Golden Bulls" of Johnson C. Smith University will meet on the gridiron with the "Rams" of Winston-Salem Teachers' College at the American Legion Stadium. At half-time the Homecoming Queen will be presented with her attendants who are Miss Mary A. Minnis, a senior, Alta Vista, V.; Miss Harriet Imogene Friday, a senior, Charlotte; Miss Barbara Goudlock, a junior, Asheville; and Miss Helen B. Lawson, a senior, Columbia, S. C. Also at half-time, the young women of the freshman class, under the leadership of Miss Joann Daughtry of the Physical Education Department, will present stunts and drills.

The final event of the day will be the Homecoming Dance to be held on the campus beginning at 8:30 P. M.

Panthers To Meet Ky. Thoroughbreds In Dominion Classic

Not unlike the great General Grant who attained historical fame when he moved in to take Richmond, so the Old Dominion Classic is making current history as it moves in to take the same city with the greatest football spectacle to show in the Tidewater area or in any of the environs of old Virginia.

The mighty thoroughbreds Kentucky State, powerhouse grid eleven of the Midwestern Conference will test the speed and endurance of a fast pack of Union University Panthers the night of October 21 at Richmond Stadium.

Gridiron fans will be amazed at the color, brilliance and downright pageantry that will dress up this first football classic expression in the city of Richmond.

ON TO RICHMOND are the words sounded off by the Grand one himself, J. Finley Wilson of the I. B. P. O. E. of W. who has given the green light to the Elk hordes in the entire state who will converge on Richmond en masse.

Prior to the game the Old Dominion Classic parade will swing through the streets of Richmond featuring bands, curvacious drum majorettes sauntering and prancing to spirited band music Dr. Marshall Shepard, Recorder of Deeds the District of Columbia, Attorney and City Councilman Oliver Hill and other city dignitaries will be on the reviewing stand as a parade chuck-full of swank rolling stock decorated with eye-pleasing gridiron and sorority queens, bedecked floats, and all manner of marching groups.

Every moment in Richmond at the Classic affairs will be charged with excitement, pleasure and entertainment. The post-game dance at Strawberry Hill featuring the swingeristics of Eddie Wilcox and his Jimmy Lunceford band shapes up as a four-star affair — a great day and night for Richmond.

"The Zebra"

Twillie "Zebra" Bellamy, Shaw will-o'-the-wisp halfback, is upping his all-CIAA stock each time Coach Brutus Wilson's Bears take the field. Bellamy, leading ground gainer in the CIAA loop in 1947 was a thorn in the Aggies' side all last Saturday night despite the fact the A. and T. eleven defeated the Bears, 7-6.

AROUND THE FIRST TURN IN THE CIAA DERBY

And around the first turn its A. and T. and Morgan (each with three wins and no losses) in front and moving to the rail, but with West Virginia State, the favorite, close in on the inside with a light load and few challengers, and half-a-length behind is Winston-Salem, stumbling under the handicap of Shaw University to face and fading fast. Bunched and fighting for a position is Smith inexperienced and short-winded, Virginia State ambitious and stout-hearted, St. Augustine surprising and exciting, and Lincoln University with an outside chance, but up on the outside with a rush comes North Carolina College, with power enough to challenge all front runners. A length back is Delaware State, battling for an opening to cut off the Carolina entry, finding the going tough. And going for the whip so early in the race we have Shaw University boxed in tight with Howard, spurred and crop-beaten, blocking the drive. Fading fast but holding on we have Bluefield then Hampton and in the rear far back struggling desperately to stay in the big race is Virginia Union and St. Paul.

'FORCE STATE PUT THE SKIDS UNDER TIGERS

CHICAGO, ILL.

The Wilberforce State College fast eleven put the skids under Tuskegee's Golden Tigers to the tune of 22 to 7, Friday evening under lights at Comiskey Park before an estimated crowd of approximately ten thousand.

Wilberforce, the aggressor pounded their way through ed itself to victory with a lone tally in the second quarter, a safety, two touchdowns and a conversion in the final stanza of the game.

Blessed with speed a plenty and bountiful bits of good pounded their way through the Tigers' forward wall time after time and wounded up with a well-earned victory.
