HOLDS "CHRISTMAS MEET"

The West Durham Community Club held its annual "Christmas Meeting" in the West Durham Baptist Church annex, Friday night, December 30 at 8 p. m. A "Missionary Play" given by some of the members of the group was highly enjoyed by members and friends present. The West Durham Community night, singers entertained the group by rendering several musical selections after which gifts were exchanged by the members. Mrs. Cora Womack is president and Mrs. Allene Brown is secretary of this group.

VISITS MOTHER

Mrs. Minnie Brown Baldwin former resident of Durham who now lives in New York City visited her mother, Mrs. Ella Roberson of University, N. C. during the holidays.

ENTERTAINS LADIES AID

Mrs. T. C. Graham, wife of the pastor of the West Durham Baptist Church, entertained the Ladies Aid and Willing Workers Clubs of the church Tuesday night, December 27 in the Sunday School Building.

During the evening a short missionary play was given, a reading by Mrs. Mary Satterfield and a solo by Mrs. Allene Brown. After this the members and friends were seated at a long table beautifully decorated for Christmas and Mesdames Allene Brown, Josie Powell and Helen Jones served the guests fried chicken, ham, peas, hot rolls, pear salad, ice cream, cake, candy and coffee.

Those enjoying Mrs. Graham's hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. Burch Coley, Mr. and Mrs. John Markham, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tate, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Satterfield, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Siler, Mr. and Mrs. Oather Jones, Mr. and Mrs. John Roberson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Allen, Mr. and Mrs. William Cole, Mesdames Ella Mumford, Rosa Artis, Carrye Cole, A. W. Morris, Leola Borland, Josie Turner, Dora Bowling, Willie Mae Richmond, Mary Horton, Ellibbie Graham, Misses Ruby Bowling, Beulah Coley, Josie Terry, Mesdames Olive Love, Harriett Mabry, Adeline Lloyd and Willie Love.

The above scenes show students and townspeople peering into the windows of the North Carolina College gymnasium from the scaffolding erected on the spot of any available material. The event was the first basketball home game of the season which saw West Virginia State College defeat the North Carolina College five.

The crowd that flocked to the gymnasium, Monday night, Jan. 9, was so large that twice as many people as the gymnasium accommodated were said to have been turned away. In the scramble for seats three co-eds were injured and had to be given first aid. School officials were said to be planning curtailment of spectators space at future basketball games.
