BUT JESUS CHRIST THE SAVIOR OF SINNERS HAS ALWAYS DEMANDED UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER
 He asks for surrender and gives in exchange the only true freedom there is — the freedom found in the will of God with its joy, love and forgiveness. Too many of us this afternoon have surrendered with Ifs, Reservations, and conditions, but Jesus surrendered unconditionally to the will of the father. He left His matchless throne in Glory . . . condescended to be born . . . in a Manger and tasted death for every man that he might wash us from our sins in his own blood and make us "KINGS AND PRIESTS."

How can we capture the souls of men when he has not captured our souls by unconditional surrender? "If any man will come after me let him deny himself take up his cross and follow me."

Dr. Canipe told the nearly 1,000 persons composed mostly of white men and women and a few Negroes that, "It is wrong to send armaments to people overseas who don't know Christ."

Said Dr. Canipe further, "we must believe in only one kind of evangelism, the kind that brings souls into the Kingdom of God. Singing a few songs at the Kiwanis Club and the Rotary Club is not enough."

The meeting is being held in preparation of a revival service in Baptist churches east of the Mississippi river to be held in 1951.

 ter sewing room. They will help you with yours there too if you wish.

February, the shortest and one of the most popular of the months, with its famous birthday celebrations and of course Valentine's Day is speeding to a close. The Center still has several outstanding activities on schedule: Tuesday, February 21, the Costume Ball; February 22, Party by the Teen Age Boys and Teen Age Girls' Clubs; February 23, Adult Recreation Night. Mrs. Moore Green is still calling for 7th and 8th grades for the newly organized Dramatic Club. This group meets Tuesday at six o'clock.

Volkmenia Meets With The Taylors

The Volkmenia Literary Club is sponsored by a professional group of ladies who are interested in the cultural development of the community. This group holds semi-monthly meetings at which time a member of the group leads a discussion on an important and interesting topic.

Our last meeting was held with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Taylor on Masondale Avenue. The topic for discussion was "Truman Reshapes The Supreme Court." Discussion leader was Mrs. Mamie Taylor Geer. The hostess was Mrs. LuSybil Taylor.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Charles Amey on Elm Street. The topic for discussion will be "Losing The War In Germany," hostess Mrs. Mildred Amey. Leader of discussion, Miss H. M. Jenkins.

This club group makes yearly contributions to the Community Chest, Red Cross, John

Isador Boyd Oglesby, Lyric Tenor, Captivates Audience In First Hometown Recital

A pure example of recital style, as distinguished from operatic style was offered to a representative group of music lovers by Isador Boyd Oglesby, tenor, in his first recital at home following a Baltimore debut in December. Mr. Oglesby appeared in the B. N. Duke Auditorium, under the auspices of the Hampton Alumni Association.

He displayed an unusual natural voice of exceptional range and depth, accompanied with poise, vigor, and a winning stage personality which marked his appearance through the performance. He was accorded every courtesy and acclaim by the modern composers, his presentation emphasized that great volume and tonal magnitude is not necessary to convey vocal intensities. On last Wednesday night his voice never attained the immense size which often exists in opera presentation. Yet, through sensitive shading, diction perfection and expression, there was no sense of smallness present. At time the voice floated through ethereal lyrical passages and then plunged in dramatic fervor which captivated his audience — and left them hoping for new vocal surprises.

His treatment of "Oh! Dolore," "Ed Io Vivea" from Attilla gave brilliance and truly dramatic expression of the artist. The spirituals he sang after intermission proved to be of lasting impression on an audience that felt so close to him.

The tenor and his superb acrycompanion, Orville Moseley, were able to evoke from their presentation new freshness and vitality to some of the better known art songs as well as the Negro spirituals. Mr. Moseley is head of the Department of Music at Morgan State College.

Mr. Oglesby, who is growing in artistic stature has gained added to previous report that he fulfills promise among the great singers holds promise of taking his rightful stage at the present time.

Acceptance— Negro's Goal Says Dr. Edmunds

RALEIGH
 Dr. Helen G. Edmunds, Professor of History at North Carolina College, delivered the Negro History Week address at Shaw University Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at exercises held in University Church. Dr. Edmunds spoke on the subject, "Freedom With Opportunity."

The Negro race, in 85 years of freedom, has had one goal, the speaker declared: "to be accepted as a true American citizen with all the rights and privileges thereto appertaining." The race is no longer entirely neglected, Dr. Edmunds thought.

"We have come from a period of ignoring the Negro to a period in which he has become a focal point of national interest," she said. "The problem has been laid at the door of the national government, and the government must at least pay lip service to a consideration of it."

Bandmaster At Music Meet

The annual band clinic, sponsored by the North Carolina Bandmasters' Association was held recently at the Agricultural and Technical College in Greensboro.

To better acquaint "up and coming musicians" with ways to render better service to their respective organizations was the main purpose of this occasion.

Regular classes were held along with the many outstanding selections rendered.

Most of the band members of Hillside High School were present along with other bands, according to proportions.

Since Mr. Hall has been president, of the Association, the clinic has become a state wide concern and has boosted the festival attendance to an overwhelmingly large percentage degree.

Last year the clinic was held at the A. and T. College as it was this year.

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Miller to Garson McLeod, both of this city was announced recently by the bride's sister, Mrs. L. M. Pretty. The nuptial vows were solemnized December 18th at the home of Rev. S. P. Perry who officiated.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Miller.

Mr. McLeod is the son of Mrs. Evelyn Sterling. He is a member of the city's police force.

President Earl Hampton McClenney, Sr., who was recently elected unanimously as the third president of St. Paul's Polytechnic Institute of Lawrenceville, Virginia. Mr. McClenney will assume presidential duties on April 1.

C. T. Russell is president and Miss Lucy Anita Royster, secretary.

N & I Rattlers Ready For Morehouse

TALLAHASSEE, FLA.
 With the opening of the 1950 S. I. A. C. baseball season, Coach O. A. Moore has already begun to send his ambitious prospects through conditioning drills so that they will be ready to open a 26 game schedule beginning with Morehouse College on March 24 at Tallahassee.

Coach O. A. Moore will have a tremendous task carving a team out of the 40 or more candidates. His job will be lightened somewhat by the return of twelve veterans, nine of them being lettermen. The men returning are: Al McCoy, infielder; Costa Kittles, catcher; P. Hughes, infielder; R. Lumpkins, infielder; J. Singletary, outfielder; F. Hearst, outfielder; L. Jones, infielder; and T. Poole, C. King, A. Jones, pitchers. This year's team will be built around these men.

On the first day of practice Coach Moore stated that "all positions are open." This means that every man, old and new alike, will have to work hard everyday to earn a position on the team. Over 40 men reported for the first practice session. Fifteen of these men were battery candidates, while the remaining 25 were infielders and outfielders.

The 1950 Rattler baseball team will definitely be a threat for the S. I. A. C. Championship. Last year the Rattlers had a 9-9 season, giving them an average of .500. They will be out to better that mark this year. The Rattlers will depend upon some of the freshmen prospects for a great deal of strength, and if they come through the 1950 Rattler squad should be one of the best teams in the S. I. A. C.

To Sing In Philly

Miss Dinah Washington realizes a long smoldering desire, come February 27th, to play a location engagement with the band she tabbed as the "most promising new combo for 1950" when she opens for a single week at the 421 Club here.

The "Queen of the Juke Boxes" finds Joe Thomas' beat completely to her liking. She therefore has anxiously looked forward to playing a date with the band in a location spot.

Rev. Henry Wilson

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Maggie Gipson Wilson; six children, Malcom of Fayetteville, Mrs. Ila Evans of Portsmouth, Va., and Mrs. Bessie Wilkens of Fayetteville; and 14 grandchildren, and 10 great grandchildren.

Junior Class Officers

The Junior class of Hillside High School recently elected officers for the year '49-50. Elliott Palmer, junior of the 11-2 homeroom was elected president by a majority vote of 91. Palmer's nearest rival was Harvey Jones with '8 votes.

Sarah McNeil, secretary; Elliott Palmer, president; Emma Pate, assistant secretary and Nathan White, treasurer.

Back Row: Glauys Morgan, chairman of the program committee; Fred Sneed, chairman of the decoration committee; Bobbie Williams, social committee chairman and Fuller Robinson, business manager.

Palmer is a member of the teen-age boys club, an organization of the W. D. Hill Community Center. He takes part in a majority of scholastic athletic events and always make a good showing. His leadership qualities have been verified by the fact that his cause was strongly supported.

Negro Home In White Area Bombed

DALLAS, TEXAS
 Horace Boener, a Dallas Negro, moved into a white neighborhood last month, and on last Wednesday afternoon had his home damaged considerably by a bomb. Windows were shattered on one side of the house and strips of plank siding were blown off.

Boener's neighbor, J. E. Dugan, white, told investigating authorities a man approached him last Tuesday with the suggestion that Negroes be run out of the neighborhood "with bombs, if necessary." Dugan says he told the man that that "wasn't the right thing to do," and that "we should get out ourselves."

Boener's wife and mother-in-law were asleep in the rooms on the bombed side of the dwelling but escaped unhurt. Mr. Boener, 57, is employed at a local printing firm.

Dr. Seabrook At Twin City "Y" Meet

WINSTON-SALEM
 Dr. J. W. Seabrook, president of Fayetteville State Teachers' College, addressed the annual meeting of the Chestnut Street Branch YMCA here last week.

Dr. Seabrook is a former instructor at Winston-Salem Teachers' College.

In speaking to the group, Dr. Seabrook told of how many young men do not feel at home in church, many of which are largely taken over by women or dominated by super-critical and unsympathetic older men. He continued by saying that it is the work of the "Y" to help remove the many pitfalls and dangers which confront young men of today.

J. D. Asheley, chairman of the committee of management reported that the branch operated on a budget of $20,084, of which more than $16,000 was appropriated by the Community Chest. The enrollment of the branch include 870 adults and 300 boys.
