Miss Mayo, Mr. Oldham United In Candlelight Ceremony At White Rock Sunday

Miss Marylin Carlton Mayo, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Mayo of this city was united in marriage with James Thomas Oldham in a late afternoon ceremony held at 6 o'clock Sunday, March 19 in the White Rock Baptist Church. Mr. Oldham, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Oldham of this city. The Rev. Miles Mark Fisher officiated at the ceremony.

Prior to the ceremony, John Gattis presented a program of wedding music at the organ console. His numbers were, "I Love You Truly," "Until," "Believe Me," "I Love Thee" and "Ava Maria." Mrs. Margaret K. Goodwin, soloist sang "Through The Years," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" as a benediction. Shubert's Serenade was played softly during the ceremony. The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

Against a background of white gladioli, white asters, white cypripediums, palms and ferns, lighted by soft glow white cathedral candles the wedding vows were spoken. A white satin predu on which the couple knelt for prayers completed the bridal setting.

Miss Mayo was escorted and given in marriage by her father. For her wedding she wore an original slipper satin gown, a family heirloom, fashioned with a basque bodice with tiny self-covered buttons down the back. Long full leg o' mutton sleeves ended in calla points over the wrists and a full circular skirt which ended in a flowing train. Her full length veil of imported illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls and was encreine with a wide band of chantilly lace. Her only ornament was a double strand of pearls, gift of the groom. Lace mitts completed the bride's costume. She carried a white prayer book topped with a purple throated orchid and showered with streamers of white ribbon and swansonia.

Miss Virginia Mayo, sister of the bride was maid of honor, and wore a pink gown fashioned with tight fitting bodice, marquisette insert neckline, full bouffant skirt over hoops. She wore lace mitts and her headress was a cornet of seed pearls with short illusion veil. Her bouquet was of mixed flowers tied with pink satin ribbon. Misses Julia M. Spencer and Audrey P. Mack, cousin of the bride were selected as bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of blue satin, fashioned with fitted bodice, marquisette insert neckline, full bouffant skirt over hoops. Their headresses were braided satin bandeaus. They carried mixed bouquets tied with blue satin ribbon.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids wore three strand pearl necklaces, gifts of the bride.

Little Marsha Goodwin was flower girl, and she wore a yellow marquisette floor length gown with yellow ribbon bandeau. She carried a white flower basket and strew petals in the path of the bride.

White satin ribbons and burning tapers marked the family pews. Linwood O. Purvis lighted the cathedral candles prior to the entrance of the wedding party.

Mr. Oldham had as his best man Marion Mangum.

Ushers were Messrs Linwood O. Purvis, William A. Marsh, Jr., Perry B. Gillard, Wilfred H. Carter. All were formally attired.

The bride's mother wore a rose crepe dress.

Mrs. Oldham, mother of the groom wore a blue teal crepe.

Both mothers corsages were purple throated orchid.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Mayo entertained at a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Williams on Lincoln Street. The home was decorated throughout with an arrangement of white and green bridal flowers. Mrs. Williams welcomed at the door and Miss Gladys Holloway introduced to the receiving line which consisted of the wedding party and parents of the bride and groom.

The dining room table was covered with an Italian lace cloth and appointed with a three tiered wedding cake with miniature bride and groom and centerpiece of white and green bridal flower.

After the traditional first slice of cake was cut by the couple, Mrs. Loraine Browne completed the serving. Mrs. Eula Harris poured punch. Miss Virginia Southerland presided in the gift room. Others assisting were Miss Bevely Mitchell, Mrs. Ruth S. Boyd, Miss Doris Albright, Mrs. Cora Peace, Mrs. Ruth Johnson, Mrs. Daisy Sinclair, Mrs. Dorothy Davis, Mrs. Margaret Purvis, Mrs. Mary Johnson, and Mrs. Beatrice Alston.

After the reception, the young couple left for a wedding trip to unannounced points. For traveling Mrs. Oldham changed to a forest green gaberdine suit, white blouse, grey reptile shoes and bag, grey felt hat with an ostrich pom pom and three quarter length grey fur coat. She lifted the orchid from her prayer book for her corsage.

The bride attended the Durham City Schools and North Carolina College and is now employed by the North Carolina Mutual in the Underwriting Department.

Mr. Oldham attended the city schools and served for three years during World War II in the South Pacific. He is now enrolled in the GI Tailoring School and employed at the American Tobacco Company.

Out of town guests for the wedding were Mrs. Daisy Sinclair, Mrs. Maggie Carson and children, Mickey and Vivian Marie of Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. A. Richard Mayo of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Haywood B. Mayo, Newport News, Newport News, Va.

The YWCA Needs You

Why sit around wondering what to do with your leisure time when there is an organization right in your own vicinity which needs you and your support. The Harriet Tubman Branch YWCA, 312 Umstead Street is putting on its Annual Membership Drive, to get new members and urging all old members to please renew their memberships. Once you become a member you may engage in any activity, join the club of your choice and all of the facilities are at your disposal. Classes in cooking, sewing, bridge and public speaking are now in session.

Mrs. Nunn and Miss E. Louise Boswell two newly elected members to the Board of Management are serving as Co-chairmen of the membership committee.

There is no restriction in community participation once you are a member of the "Y." It strives to help you work better in your community and with people at large. It also brings all the current problems and trends to your attention, and helps you to realize your responsibility as a citizen. One of the most recent examples of this type of situation and the sponsorship of a Benefit Dance for the Educational Fund by the Business and Professional Women's Club, to be held March 31, 1950 at the W. D. Hill Recreation Center.

Camp will be opening up soon for all Y-Teens and all parents are urged to please see to it that your little girl gets this experience. Ask any Y-Teen, if you don't believe it is a wonderful experience, long to be remembered. (Please turn to Page Eight)

Beauticians To Present 3-Act Comedy Here

On Monday evening, April 3, the members of Deshaazor's Alumni, Local Number Nine, will present a comedy in three acts, "Sophronia's Wedding," at the W. D. Hill Recreation Center.

The play tells of Sophronia, a somewhat frivolous and gushing girl, though sweet tempered, much given to "style" since her one year course at a fashionable Girls' School, has come home to Tattletown much imbued with up-to-date ideas and attempts to make over her own village and friends, receiving rather half-hearted support in her schemes for advancement, but succeeding in establishing the Tattletown Uplift Society. This club meets ostensibly to discuss the civic welfare of the community, and gossip is strictly "taboo," but we shall see how far away they get from their ideal. The news that Sophronia is going to marry a city man, a "tonorial artist," and has all sorts of up-to-the minute plans for a fashionable wedding, leads to the calling of a special meeting of the Club by the President (long a disapprover of Sophronia and "her ways") to discuss Sophronia's nonsense and decide whether or not she should be put out of the Society. Much gossip ensues.

As the story unfolds, the abundance of quaint and homely humor captivates one's own sense of humor.
