Gethsemane Male Chorus Celebrated Fourth Anniversary

The Gethsemane Male Chorus of the Gethsemane Baptist Church celebrated its fourth anniversary Sunday October 8. The chorus was organized in 1945 by the Rev. N. A. Trice, pastor of the church. At that time E. B. Butler was elected president, E. M. Shaw, vice president, Elbert Smith, secretary; Charlie Martin, treasurer and Raleigh Price, leader. Mr. Butler served two years as president of the chorus, and

L. Miles, chairman of program committee.

When the chorus as organized in 1945 it had a total of 14 members. There are now 25 in the group.

JOE LOUIS—

give Joe Louis the same chance he gave him to win the title.

To lure Joe back to the ring again are prospects of a tempting radio and television fee for a second Louis-Charles fight, surpassing even the $146,000 paid for the first. And Joe still needs the money.

Though Joe has not said so officially, his pal, Ray Robinson, the welterweight king, has been acting spokesman for the ex-champ. At Boston press luncheon Ray and Brion and Joe were signed for the November 29 date; that he had seen the contract shown him by an IBC official, despite their denials.

REV. N. A. TRICE was succeeded in 1947 by William Heath who served one year. In 1948 Mr. Butler was again elected president with G. L. Atkins being elected vice president.

This year's roster of officers are George Greenwood, president; E. B. Butler, vice president; Lester Green, secretary; Robert Corbett, recording secretary; Charlie Martin, treasurer; Elbert Smith, director and Raleigh Price, leader.

During this year the chorus has raised over $1400 with which it has purchased a bus to be used in traveling about the country while giving concerts. Serving on the bus committee were E. M. Shaw, chairman; Len Stewart, treasurer and G.
