

Introducing An Amiable Personality

BY FRANK BROWER

Our personality this week, James I. Bolden of A-2 Mutual Drive, joins NCM, Dr. R. P. Randolph and The Durham-Orange County Heart Association in soliciting your contribution in the 1952 Fund Drive farm February 1-29.

Funds raised through the nation-wide campaign will be used in a three-way program of research, education, and Community cardiac service. "It is important," Bolden pointed out, "that seventy-five per cent of the money raised will remain in the local and State Heart Associations."

Bolden, Chief Clerk of the Actuary Department at NCM, was born in Reidsville, N. C., September 6, 1924, the son of James R. Bolden and Claudie Graves Bolden, one of six children. Albert F. is a member of the local Employment office staff; Paul Maurice is a student at A. and T. College at Greensboro; Olga is a senior at Caswell County Training School; Anna Lee, a sophomore there and Marna Arlene, a six grader.

Bolden's public school work was done in Caswell County, and he graduated from the Business Department of North Carolina College in June, 1949. After his brother died in an auto accident, he went home to stay with his parents for a year before returning to Durham and to take a temporary job at North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company in March of 1950. His temporary work was in the Supply department, and on June 1, 1950, he was made a permanent employee.

During the last war, he held a Civil Service job at H. R. P. E. in Newport News, Virginia, and then came here and took two part-time jobs to help pay for his education, one at a tailor shop during the day, and the other at the College Grill at night. "Did I get rich? Are you kidding?" It took more than that to get through school, you know," he laughed.

He married the former Deloys Paul of Burlington last Thanksgiving Day. She is still in NCC in the Commercial Education Department. "We started to postpone the wedding because North Carolina College lost the football game with A. and T."

He is a member of Kappa Alpha Psi, The Neighborhood Commission of Boy Scouts, vice-president of the North Carolina Mutual Forum and a member of Saint Joseph A. M. E. Church where he is secretary of the Usher Board.

VALENTINE HOP HERE NEXT THURSDAY CREATES INTEREST

"Say, what's the rush?" "Man, haven't you heard? I'm hurrying to tell my best girl that I've got two invitations to the N. C. College Alumni Valentine Ball."

"Yeah man, the Durham Alumni Chapter is really throwing one that should be a lulu!"

Yes, our friend has a right to be excited if he has invitations to the much-talked about Valentine Ball. The affair is a benefit for the scholarship fund of our college here and will be held at the City Armory on Valentine night, February 14, between the hours of nine and one.

According to Chapter president, A. M. Rivera, Jr., plans for an elaborate intermission will include the recognition of Robert Best. of Philadelphia, and Johnny Johnson, of Washington, D. C., the first graduates of the college department.

Mrs. Ruth McCollum, chairman of the decorations committee, announced at the call meeting last week that colorful decorations will carry out the Valentine motif and class numerals, beginning with the first college class, will circle the balcony. Class reunions will take place under the numerals during intermission.

Ted Stroud, chairman of the dance committee, told the Carolina Times here this week that "the enthusiastic response of all alumni has been gratifying beyond expectations."

rapidly developing to the standard of previous Hillside Bands, as can be denoted by the playing of several difficult selections at the beginning of the concert season.

Approximately eleven hundred people are expected to attend the concert.

NEW DRUG

(Continued from Page One) point out that the disease organisms also build a resistance to Aldinamide after eight weeks and experiments to overcome this resistance are now underway.

This new drug is given orally, while streptomycin must be administered by injection.

VARIETY OF ACTIVITIES BUSIES CLUB

The Daughters of Dorcas Club has made a number of interesting and highly enjoyable trips since visiting the city's noted mouthpiece. The Carolina Times. May we begin by sending our most beautiful bouquets to the five federated clubs of Durham for their fine spirit of cooperation in, as our beloved president, Miss Ruth Rush says, "Pulling Together" when that most magnificent performance was given in the Duo Piano Recital on January 18th in the E. N. Duke Auditorium at N. C. College. Everyone was really proud of our own Barbara Logan Cooke and Mr. Pearsall - well they completed a grand pair!!

Mesdames Effie Cotton, Annie Laster, Ora Sneed Lee, Miss Ruth Rush, Gazelle Lipscomb and Maud Logan (please forgive me if any hostess, since our last report, is omitted) have all served as gracious hostesses.

It would take a whole book to tell the club's story since Fall or previous meetings, as always, have been most inspiring and very very enjoyable.

At Mrs. Lee's home the real spirit of Christmas was shown by fond greetings, Christian fellowship and was that lovely tree laden with useful and appreciated gifts? You should have seen it. At President Rush's meeting, January 3rd, reports say that Film on Pottery Making made everyone feel they might go into the business and the Rush cake was a treat.

Dr. Carol Cotton Bowle of N. C. College almost made us feel we'd like to enter that field, since we'd really like to know why we humans behave as we do and some of us are still tasting hostess Lipscomb's "Smithfield".

The Dorcas Club - recording made a few years ago brought back pleasant but sacred memories. Mrs. Maud Logan at the Jade Room spread a lovely table surrounded by members and charming guests. Indeed guests at each meeting are cherished pleasures.

Miss Minnie Lyons, a Durhamite and returned Missionary after 30 years of service in Liberia, gave a very touching and interesting account of her work there.

FORMER CHINA MISSIONARY TO SPEAK AT 'Y' TUESDAY NIGHT

Mrs. Richard Jackson, former missionary to China, will speak at the annual meeting of the Harriet Tubman "YWCA" here on Tuesday, February 12, at 8 o'clock in the evening. She will be introduced by Mrs. H. Shelton Smith, chairman, Board of Directors of YWCA.

Mrs. Jackson's speech will follow the annual "Y" dinner which begins at 7 o'clock. Reservations for the dinner, may be made with the secretary, Miss Rupert Blanchard, 4-4151.

The former missionary to China returned to the United States in 1951. Prior to that time, she and her husband the Rev. Richard Jackson, pastor of the Congregational Christian Church of Chapel Hill, had resided in Shaown Fu Kian, Province, China.

The Jacksons were in the Orient under the auspices of the American Board of Commissioners of the Foreign Missions of the Congregational Christian Church of China. They went to the Far East in 1946.

Mrs. Jackson taught English, Recreation, Music and Youth Work. For two of the years in China, the Jacksons worked under the Communist regime.

After 1949, the Jacksons removed to Foo Chow, which is across from Formosa.

The speech Tuesday night is expected to highlight some of Mrs. Jackson's experiences in China.
