Members present were Miss Mary Alston, Mesdames Mary Taylor, Sadie Green, Magdalene Llewellyn, Martha Armstrong, Mable Powell and C. M. Palmer, Sr. The meeting adjourned to meet next with Mrs. Green on Dunston Street.

La Petite Garden Club met with Mrs. L. W. Parker at her home in the Mill Grove Section on March 23. The business meeting was conducted in the usual manner. Mrs. Saunders read a lovely poem, "I Walked In My Garden." Mrs. Curry made a report on "preparation of soils for planting." Mrs. Egerton made a report on different programs that were made at the Council meeting.

Everyone was enthused over Mrs. Parker's flowers, beautiful ferns trailing over the windows blended with the deep red amaryllis. Mrs. Saunders brought mixed panies to the hostess. Mrs. Fuller of Price Street was guest for the evening.

Games as usual were enjoyed by the group. The hostess served home made cake and ice cream. Everyone had a grand time.

La Petite Gardeners visited the Sarah P. Duke Gardens Sunday, March 30. The group left for the gardens around 3:30 p. m. On their tour, they met the president and other members of the Dahlia Garden Club, and completed the tour together. The gardens were beautiful and thousands of people were taking advantage of the beautiful weather. One member exclaimed, "This is like fairyland!" Nothing was left out. They enjoyed comparing their flowers with those in the gardens. It was really inspirational. The two clubs were reluctant to leave, they found so many flowers to ask about. La Petite Gardeners have already made plans to attend the Azelia Festival in Wilmington, N. C., next year. They didn't think about it in time for this year. They also hope to visit other gardens this spring and summer.

On Tuesday night, March 18, the I. E. S. Club was graciously entertained at the home of the club's former president, Miss Montez Bates, 611 Pine Street. The meeting was opened by devotionals and the usual procedure. The hostess welcomed the guest to her home. A business session followed. The secretary,

Young Adult Group Sponsors Workshop At YWCA

The Young Adult Committee of the Harriett Tubman Branch YWCA sponsored a Spring Workshop for Young Adults recently. Mrs. Josie Powell presided as chairman. The theme was "Do You Know Your YWCA?" The purpose of the workshop was to acquaint young adults with basic facts about our local "Y" and to help them as volunteers to understand their responsibilities in the association. Cannon interpreted, The Function of the Young Adult Committee. Miss Zelma Jones expressed beautifully, What The YWCA Means to Me As A Young Adult. Miss Nezzie V. Carter gave Echoes of Our National YWCA Emphasis. Mrs. Elizabeth Jones instructed, Square Dancing. Miss Rupert Blanchard discussed The Responsibility of the Volunteer in the YWCA. An evaluation and a brief meditation concluded the session.

Others attending were: Mrs. Maurine Jones, Mrs. Cora Canady, Mrs. Nannie Tate, Mrs. Beatrice White, Mrs. Addie Barbee, Mrs. Clara Stroud, Mrs. Elvora Johnson, Mrs. Alice Cobb McClain, Miss Ruby Bolding, Miss Madie McDowell, Miss Mamie Weaver, Miss Eula Baucum, Miss Dorothy Watkins, Miss Margaret Rogers, Miss Bessie Winston, Miss Mary Scurdy, Miss Gladys Southerland and Mrs. Bessie Gilmer.

Kyles' Singers To Be Guests At Mount Calvary

Sunday afternoon, April 6 following the broadcast, Rev. S. P. Cooke, the Mixed Chorus and members of Kyles Temple Church will be the guests at Mount Calvary Holiness Church on Glenn Street. The public is cordially invited to attend this great service. A grand time is expected.

Mrs. Alice Lewis read minutes and gave reports. At this point the social committee took charge.

A baby shower was given for Mrs. Doris Reddrick and many beautiful and worthwhile presents were given little baby Reddrick.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Lewis, served a most delectable repast.

Members enjoying this fine hospitality were: Mesdames Mildred Sellers, A. Campbell, Alice Lewis, Sylvia Bullock, Lubetha Bule, Ida Roberts, Lillian McKay and Juliet Scott. Miss Fannie Rolle was absent due to illness.

Miss Lubetha Bule will be the next hostess to the club at her home on the Fish Dam Road.

Senior Choir Plans Easter Cantata, April 6

MRS. NELL HUNTER

"Olivet To Calvary", a cantata in two parts, will be presented Sunday evening April 6 at 7 o'clock by the senior choir of the St. Joseph A. M. E. Church. The program is the fifth annual Palm Sunday recital featuring pre-Easter music by the choir which is considered one of the best in the State.

The cantata is a musical portrayal of the sacred drama of the last days of the life of Christ, in which he traveled from the Mount of Olives to Calvary. His prayer in the Garden of Gethsemane, trial and march to Calvary's hill are appropriately arranged by the author, J. H. Maunder.

The 30 voice choir is under the direction of Mrs. Nell Hunter, well-known soprano soloist and instructor of music at Bennett College; T. R. Webber, director of music at the W. G. Pearson Elementary School, is the organist for the occasion. The program features solos by Mrs. Ruth G. Edwards, of the Dept. of Music at N. C. College. Mrs. Gladys Hawkins, Mrs. Katie L. Smith, J. R. Holmes, W. E. Baines and a quartet by Miss Evangelina Vidal, Mrs. Constance Watts, Lawrence McLeod and A. S. Hunter.

This service is expected to top the other Palm Sunday services rendered by the choir, which have been highly praised by local music lovers and friends. The program will be presented in the main auditorium of the church, located at Fayetteville and St. Joseph Sts.

Announce Coming Marriage Of Miss Davis To Butler

The Rev. and Mrs. Herman S. Davis of Mary Potter School, Oxford, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Charlie Lucille, to Joseph L. Butler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Butler of Savannah, Georgia. The wedding has been planned for June 21, in the Timothy Darling Presbyterian Church of Oxford.

Miss Davis was graduated from Fisk University and received a master's degree in musicology from Radcliffe College. A member of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority and of the American Association of University Women, Miss Davis is instructor of music at Fisk University.

Butler received his undergraduate training at Savannah State College at Morris Brown University. He is a veteran of four years service in World War II in the Pacific area and was decorated for this service. At present, Butler is a senior medical student of Meharry Medical College, Nashville, Tennessee.

Special Program Features Solo By Mrs. Mabel Powell

A special program was held at Kyles Temple Church last Sunday night where a solo was offered by Mrs. Mabel Powell who sang "Calvary" accompanied by C. M. Palmer, Sr. Mrs. Magdalene Llewellyn recited a poem on "Mind Your Own Business." Miss Cook gave an interesting read on "The Pastor's Duties." The senior choir gave music for the occasion. Rev. S. P. Cooke brought the audience a brief and inspiring sermon.

Following the program, the Red, white and blue pew rally was brought to a close. Captains for the rally were Miss Mary Alston and E. D. Barnes, representing red; Mrs. Leonia Hawkins and C. M. Palmer, representing white; and Mrs. Mabel Powell and Walter McKinnie, taking the blue. The blue defeated the red and white, by raising the largest amount of money. Proceeds from this effort will go toward the purchase of pews for the church. Mrs. L. B. Hawkins was mistress of ceremony.
