drawn, partners selected and four progressions of bridge held the attention of the ladies for the next two hours. When scores were collected and added, prizes were awarded to Mesdames Olivia Cole, Lola Riddick and Sadie Hughley. Other Merry Wives enjoying the evening with Mrs. Farrison were Mesdames Ethel Berry, Selena Wheeler, Josephine Clement Frances Schooler, Dorothy Manley, Emma Randolph, Fannie Robinson, Thelma Perry and Plassie Harris.

Our sympathy to the Singletary family in the passing of their loved one, Luther Singletary.

Don't forget our sick and shut-ins: Miss Geneva Mebane, Willis Mitchell, Johnson Ray, Mrs. Veora Bynum, Mrs. Emma Russell, Mrs. Nannie Cooper, James C. Harris, Mrs. Rosa Cleland, Dr. I. E. Turner, Mrs. Lenora Tyson, Owen Green, Mrs. Teen Elliott, Mrs. Lottie Lowe, Mrs. Nannie Sears, Mrs. Bernice Jones, Miss Edrice Williams, Mrs. Laura Shaw, Mrs. Josephine Johnson, M. J. Williams, James Bailey, Bunny Atwater, Robert Cotton, Kenneth Jones and Miss Evelyn Matthews.

The Ideal Club of the Harriet Tubman Branch YWCA sponsored its annual Fellowship Tea at the home of Mrs. Nannie Tate, 1006 Thaxton Avenue. Mrs. Elnora Johnson, president of the club, extended a cordial welcome to everyone. Mrs. Ruth Holloway gave a brief meditation. Mrs. Josie Powell, advisor of the club, gave highlights on the history of the club and its purposes. Miss Ruby Bolding presented the guest speaker, Mrs. S. P. Satterfield. Her message was centered around the thought, "Do Everything Well." The response was given by Miss Nezzie Carter.

Other members attending were Mrs. Aleasa Bynum, Mrs. Carolina Thompson, Mrs. Nannie Tate, Mrs. Clara Perkins, Mrs. Maureen Jones, Mrs. Daisey Gunn, Mrs. Cora Cannady and Miss Zelma Jones. The guests attending were: Mrs. Helen Jones, Mrs. Ruth Bolding, Mrs. Golar Carter and Mrs. Sallie Rebel.

Monday April 20, Mrs. Jaunita Page was the charming hostess to Les Fleur Garden Club members at her home on Price Street. The home was beautiful throughout with arrangements of assorted tulips, narcissus, and roses that came from the hostesses garden. After a brief and enjoyable devotion, president Virginia Alston, presided over the business session. Easter greetings came from our adopted patient, Miss Bernice Miller, who is in the Sanatorium at McCain. J. C. Hubbard, Durham County Farm Agent was guest for the evening. He made an interesting and informative talk on "Landscaping the New Home." He also showed a series of pictures on "Homestead Planting," which were really enjoyed. Mr. Hubbard had as his guest, Herbert Haysbert of New York City. At the completion of the pictures the hostess took charge assisted by Mesdames Dudley, Henry and Thorpe, and a delectable cold plate dinner was served. Mrs. Frances Walker was guest.

Members enjoying this very fine hospitality with the Pages were Mesdames Minnie Gilmer, Bessie Whitted, Mary Smith, Consuella Foreman, Nellie Toole, Marie Pittman, Minerva Evans, Eleanor Lloyd, Beatrice White, Evelyn Dudley, Gladys Swift, Lizzie Cannady, Lyda Wray, Gladys Rhodes, Mozella McLaughlin, Virginia Alston, Estella Freeland, Gladys McKinnie, Marlon Henry, Naomi Thorpe, Lucy Norwood, and Mabel Powell. Mrs. Swift thanked the hostess for such fine hospitality and we adjourned to meet next with Mrs. Elma Peddy on Otis Street.

Testimonial service will be held at Kyles Temple Church Sunday, May 4th at 3:00 o'clock in honor of C. M. Palmer, Sr., Mr. Palmer is a delegate to the General Conference which will be held in Brooklyn, N. Y. The public is invited to attend this program.

Dr. Herbert T. Shaw and family of Wilmington were guests at Kyles Temple Church last Sunday morning. Dr. Shaw preached a wonderful sermon. Rev. and Mrs. S. P. Perry entertained the Shaw family at dinner Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Peddy of Otis Street are proud parents of a baby girl, Wendelin Ardell, born at Lincoln Hospital on April 15. The couple already have two boys, Jimmy, age 5 and Paul, age 3.

Rev. S. T. Cook of Kings Mountain will be the guest speaker at Kyles Temple Church on Sunday May 4 at the 11:00 worship hour. He will conduct a revival service during the following week. Rev. Cook is well-known here in the city and is the brother of our pastor, Rev. S. P. Cook. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

The following persons from the Harriett Tubman Branch YWCA are attending the nineteenth National Convention Association in Chicago, Ill: Mrs. Dorothy Manley, Mrs. Selena Wheeler, Miss Rupert Blanchard, Miss Mamie Bedell, Miss Josephine Brooks, Miss Julia Morrison and Miss Josephine Long.

Mrs. Mary Louise Jones of Rosewood Avenue left last Friday for Ashland, Ky., to attend funeral services for her only brother.

Misses A. Mason, Ola Ruth Davis, Clara Cobb, Mrs. L. Clay and Mrs. V. J. Howard attended funeral services Tuesday for Henry Parks in Raleigh. Mr. Parks was the husband of Mrs. Armstrong Parks, a R. N. at Lincoln Hospital.

Members of the Beta Psi Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority reported a very interesting trip to Portsmouth, Va., April 25-27 to the Eleventh annual Northeastern Regional Conference. Three hundred sorors from six states were present.

Local sorors attending were Sorors Willie B. Bradsher, Georgia D. Whitted, Naomi A. Morgan, Bessie E. McLaurin, Mable A. Watson and Isabella M. Harden. Thanks to W. L. Bradsher, who so kindly offered his service and car in order that our trip would be a success.
