

Introducing An Amiable Personality

BY FRANK BROWER

This week we have the pleasure of introducing one who has made a career of cooking. Mrs. Merma Dunigan of 619 Massey Avenue who can prove that "the way to a man's stomach is through his heart."

That's why she was a June Bride in 1924 when she married Charlie Dunigan of Durham, and lived happily ever after. She was born on the First of June, 1902 in Roxboro, Person County, North Carolina, the daughter of John Albert and Sallie Walker, one of five children. She is one of the two surviving. The other is Eugene Walker who is in government employ in Winston-Salem.

She went to public school at home and then took to the culinary arts. "When I was a child, I would stand and watch Grandmother Candis Woods, while she cooked, and decided I wanted to be a professional cook or dietitian," she laughed.

On the 8th of October, 1942, she joined the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company Family, and "I just love my work, and am happy to be a member of this family," she firmly asserted. Crocheting and cooking, along with "doing nice things for others" are her hobbies, avocation and vocation. There are no children in her immediate family, but they do have a jolly and lovable little "sooner," four years old Brownie.

Our personality, who is Assistant Manager of the NCM Cafeteria, is a member of the Union Baptist Church on Glendale Avenue where she is a member of the Senior Choir. She is also active in the charity church club, called Up-To-Date Galeta, and founder of the Neighborhood Club which is also a community charity association.—(Adv.)

Gate City Usher In Hospital Account Illness

GREENSBORO

From the Greensboro Ushers Union comes the report this week that one of its outstanding members is now a patient in the L. Richardson Memorial Hospital, of that city. The report sent to the Carolina Times by State Supervisor of Ushers, C. R. Craig reads as follows:

John McClinton, son of Levanda and Henrietta McClinton, was born in Chatham County, on March 3, 1885. He is the father of eight children, five boys and three girls.

For more than 40 years he was employed by The Southern Railway Company and was officially retired on September 5, 1945. Having been transferred from the Oxford Division, he was hired by E. A. Reeves, round-house foreman and B. McBride, general foreman at the "Old Hole" in Greensboro, February 3, 1910. As Mechanic helper he served under the following: Master mechanic E. E. Sassey; first mechanics J. C. Parish, A. G. Wilson, and R. V. Wilson. While working at the shop he made many valuable friends.

While still working at the shop he moved his family to Guilford, North Carolina, where he became connected with the Raleigh's Cross Road Church. For many years he served on the Trustee Board of the Church, and is now serving as a member of the Greensboro Interdenominational Usher Board Union.

In later years illness made it a necessity that he be placed on the railroad's disability list. His last working day at the Shop was November 30, 1943. He has been in ill-health since his retirement.

Mr. McClinton has, through the years, been an inspiration and guiding light to all who knew him; for his straight forward Christian character and activity in promoting the finer things of life.

He is, at present a patient in the L. Richardson Memorial Hospital of Greensboro, and his many friends and admirers wish for him a speedy and complete recovery.
