

St. Augustine Beats St. Paul

LAWRENCEVILLE Va. St. Augustine's College defeated St. Paul's Polytechnic Institute, Saturday, Oct. 18 by a score of 18-6, before a Homecoming crowd of 2,000. St. Augustine scored twice in the first period on punt returns of 60 and 80 yards respectively by Herbert Oldham. The extra points were no good and St. Augustine led the end of the first period 12-0.

In the second period the St. Paulites fought back scoring their lone touchdown on a pass intercepted by Dewey Brown who ran 17 yards to the St. Augustine's one yard line. Robert (Bobby) Faulk scored on a line buck. The kick was no good making the score 12-6 in favor of St. Augustine. A few minutes later St. Paul's gained the ball on downs on St. Augustine's 12 yard line. On the third down St. Augustine intercepted a pass and held the ball until the half ended.

At half time flowers and citations were awarded to Miss Homecoming, and her attendances by President Earl H. McClenny of St. Paul's.

Prizes were also awarded for the best floats. The half time events were climaxed by excellent performance of the Norfolk County High School Band.

The third period was an example of the much publicized "Battle of the Saints". Both teams put up a terrific fight with St. Augustine advancing deep into St. Paul's territory once.

In the fourth period St. Augustine scored on an end sweep from the 28 by little Carl Edge

FOOTBALL FORESIGHT

By D. W. Stith

This week, sports fans, and for the remainder of the football season, we will attempt to out guess the coaches, bench warmers, and Saturday night quarterbacks, in a column called FOOTBALL FORESIGHT.

We want you to see how right (or wrong) our predictions can be. We think we know, so let's get started with this week-end's encounters: we find, W. Va. State at Morgan; Hampton at Va. State; Maryland State at N. C. College; Delaware at Lincoln; A. and T. at Winston-Salem; Bluefield at St. Paul; Howard at J. C. Smith.

Now let's try a little FORESIGHT.....

Morgan vs. West Va. State
Morgan to slip by

Va. State vs. Hampton.....we advise the Pirates to ask the Eagles

N. C. College vs. Maryland State.....Maryland rolls on.

Lincoln vs. Delaware.....Lincoln, all the way.

Winston-Salem vs. A. and T., A. and T., in a tough one.

Bluefield vs. St. Paul.....Bluefield, easy!

"Thorobreds" To Play Lane College Tigers

FRANKFORT, Ky. The Kentucky State "Thorobreds" will attempt once again to break into the winning column, as they take on a fiery crew of Lane College "Dragons", Saturday night, October 18th, at Alumni Field, 7:30 p.m.

The "Thorobreds" tasted defeat last Saturday afternoon, October 11th, in Jefferson City, Missouri, as they were soundly trounced by the tough Lincoln University "Tigers", 52-0. They have lost their two preceding games, being edged by Grambling College, 14-13, and bowing to Winston Salem, 12-8, while they held West Virginia State to a 0-0 deadlock.

Lane's last game was against Mississippi Industrial College, which was won 41-0. Kentucky has previously defeated Lane twice out of two games. After the Lane College game, the "Thorobreds" will journey to Nashville, Tennessee, Saturday, October 25th, to play the Fisk University "Bulldogs".

Miss Marybelle Johnson, Kannapolis junior home economics education major at North Carolina College, Durham, has been selected in a campus-wide voting to reign as "Miss North Carolina College Homecoming" in Durham on October 25.

The attractive Tarheel coed is 5'6", 20 years old, and a versatile coed. Her hobbies are sewing, singing, and playing the piano. She designs and makes many of her own clothes.

She is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. T. I. Johnson, 503 Copell Street, Kannapolis. Her father is the pastor of Mariabell Memorial A. M. E. Zion Church of Kannapolis.

Miss Johnson won in competition over two other pretty North Carolina College coeds, the Misses Nettie Martin, senior, and Carolyn Johnson, sophomore. These ladies will attend Miss Johnson at colorful half-time ceremonies during the North Carolina College-Maryland State College Homecoming classic Saturday, October 25 in Durham.

HOT OFF THE PRESS

By TED YATES

Harlem is politically-minded at this writing, and while it cannot understand why its representative in Congress is touring the South (Congressman Adam Clayton Powell, Jr., New York, spoke at Mount Zion Baptist Church in Miami, Florida, on Oct. 16) it has also taken into consideration that Powell who at first denounced Adlai Stevenson and held a mass meeting 'urging' Negro voters not to vote either the Democratic or Republican ticket, is now busy campaigning for Stevenson in various section of the country.

It was the Rev. David Licorish, assistant pastor at Abyssinian Baptist Church, who called upon the congregation to contribute from five to fifty dollars to "keep our pastor in Washington." Before his trek to key cities to address, particularly, Negro voters Powell was on a speaking tour—hold your hat—in London, England.

Something should be done to make Powell stay put. But the man New Yorkers want for Congress in the 16th Congressional District is not Powell. It's the rising young attorney Richard L. Baltimore, Jr. And the fact that many Negro leaders have soured on Powell can be traced back to his denunciation of Boss Truman and Powell's expressed feelings for Communist sympathizer Paul Robeson. Harlemites would also like to know what 'oppen' that Powell became suddenly madly about Adlai???

JOTS: Ruth Allen King on leave of absence from New York National Urban League headquarters due to illness. Ida James has given up the idea of ever returning to the entertainment field. Lil' "Bo" (Fannie E. Robinson) joined up with IPS staff. Her first supplementary feature "What Negroes Want" was released as a syndicated feature this week. George Rhodes, the pianist with Arnett Cobb, has written a new tune that will be recorded by Cobb and the Mob.

Earl Bostic and His Band a terrific hit in the nation's capital Thursday (opening) nite at the Howard Theatre. Billy (Mr. "B") Eckstine getting set for European tour. Monte Irvin told reporters that he believed Willie Mays would be back with the N. Y. Giants on opening day 1953. Josephine Baker's recent 'slur' on America—given to the Peron-dominated press—has embarrassed her friends here who were battling to clear her name that had been (Walter) Winchell-ized. Enid C. Baird, the efficient NUL secretary, looked charming at the Gothamettes dance in N. Y. C. last Friday nite. Sylvia Flitt rated by EBONY mag as a top model.

Jackie Robinson to open a department store in the heart of N. Y.'s Harlem on the site of the old Orient Theatre. Ray Robinson made his debut at the Latin Quarter as a hooper and emcee and scored a tremendous hit. Wini Brown is to receive the RHYTHM & BLUES 1952 top ballad-singer award in Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 10 at Pep's Musical Bar. Presentation to be made by Nat Middleton of the Phila.
