

BROWSING WITH BROWER

BY FRANK BROWER

HELP CHANGE THE WORLD
It is better to light just one candle,
Than to curse all the darkness in the work.

IKE'S RESPONSIBILITY TO OUR MOTHERS, USA—The closing of our banks past Tuesday reminds us that our new President has a grave responsibility in his campaign promise to end the Korean war . . . An Armistice is a temporary suspension of hostilities between two nations at war, by mutual agreement. A local armistice may be arranged by any part of the opposing forces; a general armistice can be effected only by the commanders-in-chief or by the home governments. The Armistice applied for by the Germans to end World War I was signed at 5:00 A. M. on November 11, 1918, in the Forest of Compiègne. On the same site, France signed the German dictated armistice terms on June 22, 1940; armistice between France and Italy was concluded in Rome two days later . . . There was an Armistice for VD and VJ Days, and now the mothers are expecting too soon VK Day . . . also a hard pill for Ike to swallow is his promise of reduction of taxes which will take some time . . . However, it must be done before 1956 if his party expects to complete in the next big fight.

NATIONAL NEWS TELESCRIPTIONS—A card to this desk asks if Rencher Harris has paid off his political bet with Ike's man, Alex Barnes . . . Well-known "Puss" Owens of Richmond was buried at his home last week in Oxford . . . We didn't even know he was sick . . . National Headlines: Fabulous ex-light weight champion Beau Jack shines shoes of President Ike at National Golf Club in Augusta, Georgia, while his manager is chef of the same kitchen . . . During TV Wrestling from Hollywood, a fan flipped a cigarette into the mop long hair of Jungle-Boy, and set the forest on fire and nearly broke up the fight . . . Senator Wayne Morris is in a position to cast key vote in the new 83rd Congress.

NOTE WALTER WINCHELL—We don't go along with Josephine Baker's Red language in Argentina, but we do challenge your choice of words Mr. W. W. . . . "She could have adopted one of many United States black babies available," who nyou neglected to say "or one of the many Hebrew babies." Maybe one of your bastards conceived after midnight on your beat nightly, especially ONE . . . Congrats to Pearl Bailey's slap at Baker . . . The Mack Ingram case of "Leering" at 75 paces began again in Yanceyville after a year's recess or "cooling off" period . . . Be glad to live in Durham in stead of Moscow or Caswell County where the slogan is "Vote for Stalin or Don't Vote, Respectively; for the life you save may be your own" . . . COUSIN FRANK . . . Logan Building . . . (30).

A. AND T. AGGIES TO BATTLE VIRGINIA STATE NOVEMBER 15

GREENSBORO

The A. and T. Aggies take on the undefeated and untied Virginia State College here Saturday, November 15 of this week in a football game which shapes up as one of the most important clashes of the season. While the Petersburg outfit is favored in the contest, by reason of its record for the current season, this may mean little when the two teams begin bumping heads here in the Greensboro Stadium.

Sal Hall's underdog aggregation upset the favored Aggies last year in the Capital Classic dishing out a bitter defeat which knocked them out of the conference title. This is one which the Aggies have not forgotten and by reason of this fact the game may turn out to be a genuine grudge battle. At least, Bill Bell's boys have just about the same opportunity as rested in the hands of Virginia State prior to the Classic.

This is one which Virginia State will have to win. The Aggies want it equally as badly. Defeated once in a surprise by Morgan State College, the Aggies should be rough for the remainder of the season. They always are, after dropping one such as the homecoming setback. Of course, Virginia State boasts of the best, if not the best, aggregation in the conference. They consider having gotten by Virginia Union that the team is well in sight of the conference title, if they can get by the Aggies.

From any angle it is to be a tough battle for both teams and both will be "up" for this one. Doubtless, Virginia State will shoot for a big score through the air, but all reports show that the team has been equally effective on the ground. A. and T. should correct some of their passing deficiencies and fleetly backs such as Jack Gibson and Donald Quarles should prove trouble on the ground.

It is generally agreed that this one should be about the best in the CIAA for the current season. This should be definitely settled come kickoff time on Saturday at 2:00 P. M.

Joe Black

(Continued from Page Five)

tended the athletes additionally by Dr. Carl Murphy, a member of the Morgan Board of Trustees; Morgan Coaches Edward P. Hurt and Talmadge L. Hill; Dr. Eugene D. Byrd, president of the Morgan Alumni Association; and Louis Randall, president of the Student Council.

Black, a native of Plainfield, N. J. and a 1950 graduate of Morgan, jumped from the obscurity of an unknown rookie into national prominence almost overnight last season with the Dodgers, turning in a magnificent record in relief. At Morgan Black, who won the 1952 World Series opener for the Brooklyn "Bums," was a member of the championship football, basketball and track teams. A native of Jamaica, the British West Indies, and a 1952 Morgan alumnus, Rhoden gained international fame as a member of the world's record breaking 1600 meters Jamaican Olympic Relay Team. He was a member of Morgan's championship relay teams and NCAA meters champion while at Morgan.

LaBeach, like Rhoden, is a native of Jamaica and was a member of the Jamaican Olympic Team. He is a member of the Morgan State College championship sprint relay team.

Only Baltimorean in the group is Bragg, who is the grandson of the late Father George Bragg, rector of St. James Episcopal Church. Former National AAU and NCAA sprint champion, Bragg won the 100 meter dash in the 1952 Olympic trials as a member of the American Olympic Team.

Edward N. Wilson, Morgan registrar and Athletic Committee member, is in charge of the assembly program. Assisting him in addition to Dr. Fraser and Coach Hurt are Dr. George H. Spaulding, Dr. C. R. Campbell and Augustus Moseley, student member.

Girl Scout Troop 87 Sponsors Program

Girl Scout Troop No. 87 climaxed Girl Scout Week with a very timely and interesting program at the close of Sunday School on Sunday, November 2. The program consisted of the Flag Ceremony, the History of Girl Scouting, Scout Laws and Promise and the singing of "Our Chant." The following scouts participated: Emma Johnson, Patricia Johnson, Donnie McNeil, Scarlett McNeil, Mary Ann Thorpe, Blanch Gooch, Gloria Rogers, Anger Hart, Jackline Tucker, Carolyn Shaw, Patricia Burton, Loretta Adams, Jean Tyson, Sylvia Daye, Ardella Sanders, Ann Gilmore, Lenora Kelly, Brenda Edwards, Iris Higgin, Rella McMillan, Miss Ruth Thompson, Leader and Miss Clarice Thorpe, Assistant Leader.

This is the first Girl Scout Troop to be sponsored by the Mount Gilead Baptist Church with the Reverend Harold Roland, pastor.

Miss Victoria Cannady who was crowned "Miss Person County High School" at its Homecoming October 17. The coronation took place in the auditorium of the Roxboro Elementary School. Miss Cannady is a member of the senior class.

Daddy Grace

(Continued from Page One)

which tended to tie Bishop Grace in with Becton murder "due to jealousy," sides of the Portuguese born minister whose churches extend from New England to Cuba and West to California, said: "If he did make such statements, then he's liable for suit."

Attorneys for Bishop Grace announced this week they are just about ready to go to court with their suit against the magazine which published the charges in its September 1952 issue.

In making the first official public statement about the sensational murder of Elder Becton in 1933, the House of Prayer officials—for the first time—gave public credence to the idea that Bishop Grace had led his group into a position of pre-eminence in cultist regions, both numerically and financially.

Started Out In The South—"Coming up from the 'tent day' in the South in the middle Twenties," the elders say in an official statement, "Bishop Grace with his faithful followers has built one of the greatest organizations of today with more than 3,000,000 members and millions of dollars worth of property. He also has hotels, apartment buildings and land—all for the people of his parish."

Denies Magazine Story—Equally as bitterly denied was the report carried by the magazine which said that "This House of Prayer has as its financial backers some white men who are the actual owners of this chain of churches of which Bishop Grace is head; that these men are interested only in the financial angle of this chain."

The magazine also said: "Bishop Grace travels from place to place all over the country. All monies collected are turned over to the hands of the white men." "A damnable lie," said the elders of this accusation, and pointed to Bishop Grace's having the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company move its Harlem offices from the block at Eighth Avenue and 125th Street in New York City, which he had purchased, because they wouldn't rent the ground floor offices to Negroes.

"Bishop Grace is working for his people," the elders said, "and any charge to the contrary is a lie."

"Bishop Grace only uses what God gave him to give the people," the elders continue in their statement. "Thus we find millions today who are content with the true gospel of Jesus Christ as he preaches it again. The Lord said: 'All liars shall have their part in the lake of fire.' . . . Rev. 21: 8."

Never Met Becton

Bishop Grace made it known that he had never met Elder Becton, and that there had never been any hostile feelings between them. "There was no reason why there should have been," he said. "Elder Becton had his crowds and I had mine, so there wasn't any friction." In fact, said Elder M. F. Spencer, secretary to the General Council of Elders of the House of Prayer, "Elder Becton himself once said there were only two preachers in Philadelphia, himself and Bishop Grace."

Charges Jealousy Among Negro Preachers—The General Council said that jealousy among Negro preachers, especially the Baptists, were the basic causes for the efforts to "crucify" Bishop Grace, as they put it. "There were forty-four preachers who had him arrested more than sixteen times," they said. "If he was the type of murderer, surely he would have taken revenge on those who persecuted him."

It was pointed out that Captain Kelly's claim that the white slayer of Elder Becton on the night of May 21, 1933 was a member of Bishop Grace's Philadelphia church, could not have been true, because House of Prayer records show no such member, and also show that Bishop Grace held no baptizings of members in New Jersey other than one at Lawnside in 1930.

Bishop Grace, the General Council says, was in the South when the Becton slaying rocked the East. "That's a vicious lie," was the bishop's own comment on the charge that white people get the monies raised by the House of Prayer.

Among lush New York properties owned by the House of Prayer is the swank 555 Edgecombe Avenue building, one on Riverside Drive, the entire block of Eighth Avenue and 126th Street, and many other properties all over the nation. These revelations clearly show that Bishop Grace and his group are far ahead of Father Divine and any and all other religious cult leaders in the USA.

Churches End Financial Rallies

Two churches, pastored by Rev. Eli B. Thompson, have recently closed successful rallies that netted more than $1800.

On October 28, Mill Hill Baptist Church, located in Person County, ended the morning service with a total collection of $273.28.

The evening service was in the form of a program by the Social Savings Club which resulted in a total of $142.21 being raised, or a total for the day of $414.41.

On November 9, the Warren Chapel Baptist Church, pastored by Rev. Thompson raised a total of 1,461.56.

Warren Chapel was organized in 1909 and now has a membership of 211. Both churches have prospered greatly under the leadership of Rev. Thompson.

Trotters

(Continued from Page Five)

the globe trotters all over the country. If we don't appear in Baltimore and Washington now, we may not get back to either city the rest of the regular season.

The Trotters complete schedule for the following week is: Nov. 13, Providence; 14, Phila.; 15, New Haven; 16, Baltimore (afternoon), Washington

LeMoyné

(Continued from Page One)

Paul F. Guthrie, vice-president; L. S. Cossart, secretary-treasurer, and George W. Gore, past president.

The above persons join with the following persons to form the Association's executive committee: Richard V. Moore, J. T. Gaines, Rufus E. Clement, W. K. Payne, and F. J. Rogers.

President Hollis F. Price of LeMoyné is host for the convention.

La Baker

(Continued from Page One)

umlist. Nevertheless, according to this spokesman, an investigation is going on concerning Miss Baker but no decision has been reached.

Mack Ingram

(Continued from Page One)

that Ingram did not chase her or run at her, nor did he speak to her. She stated he was coming up the road in his car about five miles an hour and "kept watching me with his head out of the window." She also stated he was driving on the wrong side of the road and was not watching where he was going. "When I heard the motor stop, I started running as fast as I could," she said.

Ingram was first convicted of an assault in the Yanceyville Recorder's Court and sentenced to two years.

Carolina Times Uncovered Story

It was not until a confidential representative of the CAROLINA TIMES in Yanceyville reported the matter to his paper that the story was given international status. Other newspapers throughout the nation and in foreign countries quickly followed the publishing of the story in the CAROLINA TIMES, which later was adjudged by the Associated Press as the fifth best news story of the year. It has been acknowledged far and wide that had it not been for the alertness of the TIMES representative, that Ingram would have been railroaded to prison.

The maximum sentence he could have received was two years. The mere fact that Judge Armstrong only gave Ingram a suspended sentence of six months, sustains the belief of many that an apparent notorious attempt to railroad him to prison for two years by the Recorder's Court of Yanceyville was unjustifiable. The six months suspended sentence was apparently more of an attempt by the court at face saving for a segment of determined citizens for conviction in Yanceyville and Caswell County than a belief on the part of the Presiding Judge that Ingram was guilty of any offense.

Attorneys representing Ingram were: Fred Upchurch, Sr., and Jr., of the local white law firm of Upchurch and Upchurch, NAACP Attorneys Martin A. Martin of Richmond, Va., and C. O. Pearson of Durham.

Solicitor Ralph Scott, represented the State in the case.

Pictured above is Mrs. Karle Talley Herring, who did her high school and teacher-training work at Mary Potter Institute, and college work at North Carolina College. She has done further study at A. and T. College. Mrs. Herring is a teacher in the primary department at Roxboro Elementary School. She has been with the school since it was originated in 1925.

COLLEGE VIEW DRIVE-IN

APEX ROAD — DIAL 9-2255

SUNDAY-MONDAY-TUESDAY-WEDNESDAY

CALVARY SCOUT Rod Cameron

THURSDAY-FRIDAY
THE BIG CARNIVAL
KIRK DOUGLASS

SATURDAY
OKLAHOMA JUSTICE
JOHNNY MACK BROWN

Big News At Your COLLEGE VIEW DRIVE-IN

New equipment has been installed to improve the light on the screen by 100%. You and members of your car will be admitted to see one of the above pictures, by presenting this ad to the ticket office.

THANKSGIVING CLASSIC

N. C. College Eagles

-Vs.-

A. And T. College Aggies

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 27

2:00 P. M.

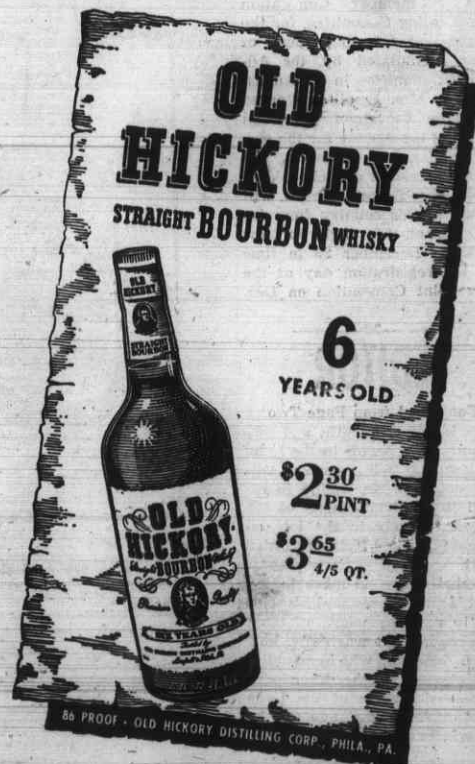

Durham Athletic Park

See The Great Rivalry

BASKETBALL GAME IN THE NEW NORTH CAROLINA COLLEGE GYM 8:00 P. M.

Dedication of New Gym, Dec. 8-9

6 years old

THEY GROW SO FAST . . .

But you can keep their cherubic babyhood through the years in professional photographs.

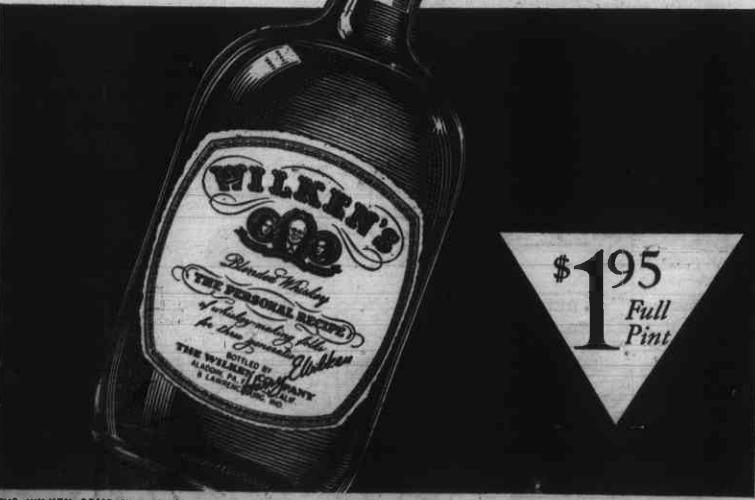

After - naptime appointments at your convenience in your own home by calling . . .

STANBACK STUDIOS

PHONE 4-7171

1710 FAYETTEVILLE STREET

WILKEN

THE WILKEN COMPANY, LAWRENCEBURG, INDIANA - BLENDED WHISKEY - 85 PROOF - 75% GRAIN NEUTRAL SPIRITS