At Asheville, T. A. McDowell, a barber, filed last Tues day for that city's council race. Indications were that he would be joined by Dr. Robert Hendrick, prominent physician, who is being urged to make the race. Dr. Hendrick is a member of the North Carolina College board of trustees, McDowell and Hen-drick, if he enters, will be subect to a city-wide election, since system.

W R. (Bob) Maness, 71 year old resident of Asheboro, be-came the first Negro to seek election to that city's council when he announced his entry last Wednesday. A long-time resident of Randolph County, he has operated a barber shop catering to white trade for some 30 years. He is listed as a Republican. Asheboro's election is set for May 5.

In Raleigh, Herman Taylor well known attorney, filed with election officials last week for Raleigh city council elections which are scheduled for May 25. Fourteen candidates will be nominated in the primary on April 25.

Already entered in city election races in North Carolina are Dr. W. H. Hampton and J. Kenneth Lee, Greensboro; Augus-tus Greenwood, High Point; Kel-ly Alexander and Mrs. E. M. Anderson, Charlotte; Nathaniel Barber, Gastonia; Hubert Robinson, Chapel Hill; R. N. Harris and J. T. Taylor, Durham.

Of this group, only Dr. Hampton of Greensboro is already a council member. Elected in 1951, Dr. Hampton is seeking re-election. Mrs. Anderson of Charlotte is seeking a seat on that city's school board.

Big Luke Easter Hitting Bushel Of Bingles

WICHITA, KAN.-There was a time when the Indians' front office would worry no end if Luke Easter didn't hit them over the fences. How... ever, during the current grapefruit circuit, Luke hasn't been getting many long balls, but he's certainly stacked up the singles. And how is the front office taking this? Why, both Greenberg and Manager Lopez haven't opened their mouths since the singles are coming when they're

Perhaps the Tribe now realizes that Luke struck out or popped up too many times in the clutch last year when aiming for a homer. If you will only let him alone, the big fellow can hit a lot of singles and doubles to left and left center. And it will certainly be more valuable in the long run than

Simpson Set To Arrive This Year

If he can keep up his sizzling hitting which has sparked many a Cleveland drive, Harry (Suitcase) Simpson figures that this year he will have "arrived". And he may at last get that home for his mother which he's alway

Harry started off spring train ing at a hot tempo. And now as the exhibition season draws to s close and the real thing begins, he still leads the team with a .462 batting average. He's piled total.

The simply elated Simpson loves to talk about his power though he isn't amazed by it at ally "I did it in the minors," he explains. "It proves I had the power. In my two years in the minors, I hit 64 homers, 85 triples and 68 doubles. I knew I had it in me."

As he packed his tow bats with which he's done most of his slugging; Simpson sighed: "Wouldn't it be nice, it this were October 1st? Then Hank (Greenberg) would have to give me a nice fat salary. I'd like to build a nice home for my mom up north, some place near Ak-ron, Ohio. She's paralyzed, you know. I'd like a ranch-type house, away from the city where
