CHAMBERLIN STUDIO NEWS

Pupils from the studio who participated in the state music festival on April 23, in Fayetteville were: Rebecca Saunders from Washington High School in Raleigh, Bernice Mitchell, Hillside High School, Durham; Ruth Baines, Hillside, Auba White, Hillside, Patricia Spaulding, Whitted, Beulah Brodie, and Grace Davis, Mary Potter, Oxford, N. C. All won rating of "Good" through "Excellent."

Charles (Bobby) Alston who attended the Chamberlin Studio is now at Fisk University. A letter received recently by Mrs. Shearin from Dr. John Work, the head of Fisk's music department stated: "Your protege and former student, Charles Alston is a gem." He is doing very well. He appeared on the student recital last week, even though he had spent eight days in the hospital. Tonight he played again. He played the Mozart's "Rondo." On each occasion he did a most creditable job. We need more students like him.

The Honor Roll of the Chamberlin Studio. First Honor Roll: Patricia Bowling, Claudine Daye, Helen Davis, Mirian Holmes, Jean Holloway, Jessie Winnfred McQuenn and Second Honor Roll: Sandra Brown, Betty Goodloe, Marjorie Lennon, Charles Stanback, Jr. and Valda White, Mrs. M. S. Shearin, Instructor.

Do CRAMPS give you that monthly look?

Why let the mirror, "mirror" show to you what worn-out, nervous face during your "bad days"? Why let men see that you are suffering from monthly cramps? Try a little Cardui each day as thousands of women do. Let it help build strength and resistance so you have less and less misery each month. Some go through periods without feeling any discomfort at all. Also helps relieve jittery nerves—sleep better. Look, feel, and younger, more normal all month. Ask for Cardui. (Say "cardui-cardui").
