Dr., Mrs. D. B. Cooke Entertain The Blandings Of Washington

Dr. and Mrs. David Cooke have had as their guests for the past several days Mr. and Mrs. Warren Blanding and their daughter, India, of Washington, D. C. and Mexico City, Mexico.

Mrs. Blanding, a college classmate of Mrs. Cooke's at Fisk University, was an attendant at the Cooke's wedding which highlighted the social season of 1944, and the Cooke's reciprocated, traveling to Washington to serve as best man and matron of honor at the Blandings' wedding in 1947.

Mrs. Blanding, who dances professionally under the name of Betty Lightfoot, has renewed many friendships while in Durham and has delighted her many friends, new and old, with descriptions of life in Mexico.

Mr. Blanding, who is in the publishing business in Washington and has business interests in Mexico, has shown particular interest in the operations of the CAROLINA TIMES, which he describes as superior to the Northern weeklies with which he is familiar. Miss India Blanding, the couple's three-year-old daughter, has been showered with attention from the two Cooke boys, David, 7, and Logan, 4, and was pleased to find a namesake in the Cooke's three month old daughter, India Merle.

The departure of Miss Ruth Rush for Atlanta, Georgia where she will assume new duties as dean at Spelman College in September will leave the State minus one of its most well-known and highly regarded women. Perhaps two of the most eminent of the State's lady citizens are shown in the photo above, taken in May, 1952 when the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs honored Dr. Charlotte Hawkins Brown (left), retired North Carolina educator; Miss Ruth, then president of the Federation, is seen presenting a gift to Dr. Brown.

Daughters Of Dorcas Club Fetes President, Ruth Rush With Party

The Daughters of Dorcas Club staged a lovely "Surprise Party" for its president—Miss Ruth G. Rush—on the beautiful garden lawn of Mrs. Effie Cotton—708 Carroll St., Friday evening, July 24.

Although "stunned" when news came that "Dorcas Club" would be deprived of the presence of its president everyone "joined hands" in planning a fitting way to assure her of the love and esteem in which she is held by its members. The idea was uniquely carried out—Vice Pres., Mrs. G. Hubbard, invited her to a "long delayed dinner" which turned out to be "a pleasant auto ride" around the city, finally ushering her into Mrs. Cotton's lovely, soft-lighted, green and flowered garden where were gathered the "Dorcas Sisters" with the "Junior Dorcas Club" as guests. Knowing "Ruth Rush" as one does it was not easy to believe she could be so "taken in" but the "trick" worked and proved (though the party is most regrettable) to be a very happy occasion.

Out under the clear, moonlit skies there was a soul satisfying serenity that made one forget all else that could disturb one—and cheery voices mingled in pleasant conversations—pushing afar as long as possible the cause that had brought us together. Beautiful "Daughters of Dorcas" Club-song rang out clear and sweet—always bespeaking the Club's purpose—Love and Cheer for others.

The special committees headed by Mrs. L. V. Merrick and Mrs. Effie Cotton had every arrangement complete. A handsome, gold, stone-set, heart-shaped brooch, selected by Mrs. Merrick's committee, was presented to Miss Ruth in touching well fitted words by Vice-Pres-

Mrs. Ava Leach read a most interesting original "Will and Testament" to Miss Ruth wishing every possible blessing she'd signed, in portions, the Club's Roster.

The Junior Dorcas Club's expression of esteem and best wishes was read by Secretary Constance Young. Miss Rush was almost "overcome" by this demonstration of affection—but expressed in most tender and expressive terms her unbounded interest and devotion for "Dorcas Club" and her love for each and every member saying she knew the nature-purpose of "Dorcas Club"—its high ideals for giving its best for Others—and she'd always want to be associated—in fact, she asserted she'd "never give up her membership".

At this point all gathered around and partook, bountifully of the delicious fruit punch, delightfully cold. A gorgeous punch bowl held this placed on a lovely lace cloth covered table—cookies added. Pleasant mingling kept all lingering and it was hard to say "Good Night".

Mrs. Cotton (and her committee) was thanked over and over for so pleasant an evening. Miss Ruth Rush had been (among others) a "Right hand" to our beloved late president—Mrs. C. S. Moore—and when it became necessary, she was unanimously elected president.

She has given meritorious services and congenial companionship always giving her best in guiding wisely in the interest of all. She will be greatly missed! and she carries with her the highest regard, prayers and best wishes for continued success and happiness always.
