

Special Events Planned Friday And Saturday For Founder's Day Observance At Bennett College

GREENSBORO
A special day long celebration has been scheduled for Founder's Day at Bennett College here on next Friday, Oct. 9.

Two special programs, one at the Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel at 10:30 o'clock Friday morning and another at seven o'clock Friday evening have been announced by Bennett President Dr. David D. Jones.

Alumnae, faculty and students are expected to participate in the day's activities which will begin with the special service at 10:30. Bishop Edgar A. Love is scheduled to be the principal speaker for this program. Also to be heard during the morning program are Dr. P. A. Taylor of New Orleans, La., and Dr. Earl Tolley of Binghamton, N. Y.

Dr. Henry Hitt Crane of Detroit will be the featured speaker at the Alumnae dinner at seven o'clock in the Student Union.

Reports of gifts to the college endowment fund will during the special program.

On Saturday, Oct. 10, the observance will continue with the annual meeting of the college's trustee board at 9:30 o'clock a.m. and it will be concluded with the laying of the cornerstone for the new nursery school at 2:30 in the afternoon. Mrs. J. N. Rodeheaver, chairman of the Women's division of the Methodist Church, Winona Lake, Ind., will preside at the cornerstone laying.

The observance will mark the 81st anniversary of the school.

DURHAM GIRL SCOUTS ENJOY WEEK-END AT OUTDOOR CAMP

DURHAM
Friday night, September 25, was one of excitement for Girl Scout Troop 55, White Rock Baptist Church. At six o'clock, thirteen Scouts and their co-leaders, Mrs. Artelia T. Bryant and Miss Geneva Chase along with Mrs. Lulu Booker, Field Director, went troop camping at J. C. Hubbard's farm about 12 miles from Durham. R. Kelly Bryant, Jr., also accompanied the group as First Aider.

On arriving at the campsite, the girls pitched their pup tents, two to a tent, assigned to the girls—some gathered firewood, others brought water to the campsite, another group laid fires and others prepared cocoa for supper. The cocoa was served with the nosebag lunches which the Scouts prepared before leaving home. The lunches included sandwiches, fruit, raw vegetables, cookies, and candy bars.

After supper and cleaning up the dining area, the scouts gathered around their campfire and sang Scout songs and Campfire songs. The harmony was good and everyone's face seemed to glow with joy. It was soon time for bed, but the excitement of this venture proved to be too much for sleep so the hour that the last pair of eyes closed and talking ceased is unknown.

By the break of dawn, most of the Girl Scouts had awakened and activity began at the campsite again. There was more water needed, firewood, and fires laid for breakfast. Each scout prepared her own breakfast. Bacon or sausage, eggs, fried apples, toast, and cocoa were consumed for breakfast.

As a campsite activity the scouts made a dishwasher drain and grease pit. This proved to be hard work because the soil was very rocky and the pits had to be about 1 foot deep and 3 feet wide. So, the scouts rested, but not for long—the sky was cloudy and rain was on its way. The tents were taken down and blankets rolled.

It rained lightly but lunch was prepared before the scouts returned home. The entire lunch was cooked in aluminum foil. Hamburgers, white potatoes and baked apples—delicious. Lemonade was the beverage.

The girls then cleaned up and according to Mr. Hubbard left the site just as they found it—and on the way home sang songs and talked about their camping trip. The Scouts attending were Bennie Booker, Annie Conrad, Bettie Jo Goodloe, Marsha Goodwin, Alma Green, Priscilla Harris, Evelyn Kennedy, Jocelyn McKissick, Catherine Pratt, June Rosser, Doris Schooler, Joyce Smith, and Carrie Wiggins.

Present at this meeting were Mesdames Annabelle Carrick, Addie Barbee, Mattie Brown, Addie Smith, Jessie O'Neal, Martha Stanley, Ronie Prince, Effie Chavis, Lelia Perry, Carrie McCaskill, Della Hubbard, Mattie Holloway, Zelma Adams, Icelene Josey, and Mildred Mangum, and J. W. Barbee and Ulysses Adams.

A round of hot tea, pimento cheese sandwiches and plain cookies was served.

Irene Dudley, secretary; Mrs. Robert Jarrott, assistant secretary; and Mrs. Corrine Luck, musician.

The 200 persons present at the annual Red Cross meeting heard a report of the auxiliary's activities given by the secretary, Mrs. Bertha Bradley Hyder.

The Reverend M. R. Donald, assistant pastor of Nazareth First Baptist Church was the principal speaker of the evening. Offering brief remarks were chapter chairman J. D. Brown and chapter manager, W. D. Dibrell.

The program also included a vocal solo by John Thompson.

MRS. MCBROOM FETES GROUP

DURHAM
Mrs. Hazel McBroom was hostess to a recent meeting of the Azalea Garden club at her home on Price Street.

Mrs. Effie Cotton, president of the club, presided over the sessions during which minutes were read, new business was taken up and several plans made.

Present at the meeting were Mesdames Mabry, Richardson, Harris, McNeill, Marsh, McCullom, Lucas, Long, Register, Davis, Peeler, Wheeler, Perry, Trice, Rivera and Williams.

The floral club of the Ebenezer Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. Mattie Lee at 508 Commonwealth St. on last Sunday, September 27. The meeting began at four o'clock.

Present at this meeting were Mesdames Annabelle Carrick, Addie Barbee, Mattie Brown, Addie Smith, Jessie O'Neal, Martha Stanley, Ronie Prince, Effie Chavis, Lelia Perry, Carrie McCaskill, Della Hubbard, Mattie Holloway, Zelma Adams, Icelene Josey, and Mildred Mangum, and J. W. Barbee and Ulysses Adams.

A round of hot tea, pimento cheese sandwiches and plain cookies was served.

Raleigh School Head Speaks To Durham Pupils

DURHAM
The 7-2 Grade of Lyon Park School thrilled the faculty and students with a very unique and interesting chapel program Friday afternoon.

The dancing group beautifully executed precision steps while doing the "Bunny Hop".

Dr. W. H. Watson, former principal of the Carver School at Winston-Salem and present principal of the New Legion Junior and Senior High School of Raleigh, was the guest speaker.

The student body and teachers were entertained by the slides and film shown and narrated by Dr. Watson of a recent European Tour. Many of the interesting sights which he showed us are presently being studied by the Lyon Park School students.

F. G. Burnett, principal of Lyon Park School, responded to the lecture.

Tour Planned

The "Spiritual Stars," a vocal ensemble composed of six women and one man, has scheduled a tour of North and South Carolina and some eastern and northern points, according to its director, Mrs. Ruth Fields.

The group, which recently concluded a broadcast series over a Durham radio station, is composed of Misses Margaret Hall, Annie L. Bell, Ethel and Mary McGhee and Al McClain.

Some of the principals of the 85th annual session of the Mt. Peace Missionary Baptist Association convention are shown here. The association convened on September 17 and 18 at the Shiloh Baptist Church. An address before the meeting on Thursday night by Rev. W. R. Johnson, moderator, was the keynote of the convention. Other speakers heard during the two day meeting were Rev. J. C. Brewer, Rev. C. C. Warren, representatives of the Oxford Orphanage, State Baptist convention, Friendship College. Educational convention of western N. C. and northern S. C., and Rev. J. E. Fiddmont, Rev. J. A. White is pastor of the host Shiloh Baptist church.

"Strike It Rich" Show Gives New Hope To Handicapped Girl

CHARLOTTE
An 18 year old Charlotte girl who had to stop school in early childhood because of a physical handicap which left her unable to walk correctly and to climb or descend steps, had her hopes for overcoming this handicap rejuvenated this week with the receipt of $550 from the "Strike It Rich" television program.

Screen actress Ann Rutherford appeared as a "helping hand" on the show during which Miss Russell's case was aired.

Miss Russell, who lives at 2347 Orlando St., plans to use the money to get treatments from a New York specialist, and hopes eventually to be able to enter trade school if the treatments are successful.

Two Fair Days For Students

School children of North Carolina will again this year be guests of the N. C. State Fair on Tuesday and Friday of Fair Week, October 20-24. It was announced this week by Dr. J. S. Dorton, fair manager. Free tickets, good without payment of any admission tax, will be distributed by their school principals.

Dr. Dorton said that Tuesday, October 20, the opening day of the Fair, has been formally designated as "Wake County Day" on the fair program, and Friday, October 23, will be "Young North Carolinas' Day".

IT'S ALL A MATTER OF TASTE

INSIDE OUR LOCKER ROOM
by JUNIOR GILLIAM
STAR ROOKIE OF THE BROOKLYN DODGERS

Ever see a major-league locker room after a game? Maybe you've seen pictures of one. Man, it's something. If we win, it's full of noise, horseplay and smoke. If we lose, it's full of smoke.

Most of the guys light up a cigarette soon as they come in. It eases things up, specially after a tough one. I know, myself—I've usually got a Lucky lighted a couple of seconds after I've opened my locker.

Why a Lucky? That's tough to say. The other day one of the guys asked me why I wear the kind of sports coats I do. I guess they're a little on the bright side. Well, I had no answer, so I just told him I like 'em. That's why I smoke Luckies, too. I like 'em.

I don't know as anybody can tell exactly why he likes one smoke more than another kind. It's pretty much all a matter of taste. I've liked Luckies—you know, the way they taste, the way they smoke—since I broke into the minors. As far as that taste goes, I don't think there's another smoke can touch 'em.

Inside Story on Luckies

We believe—and Junior Gilliam obviously agrees—that smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste. And once you've tried Luckies, we think you, too, will agree they taste better.

Two facts tell why Luckies taste better. First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco . . . fine, light, mild tobacco. Second, Luckies are made better to taste better . . . always round and firm to smoke freely and easily.

So, why not get the enjoyment that only better taste can give you. Be Happy—Go Lucky. Remember, Luckies are made by The American Tobacco Company, America's leading manufacturer of cigarettes.

LUCKIES TASTE BETTER. CLEANER, FRESHER, SMOOTHER!
