More Donations To PTA's Organ Fund Listed

A message of thanks "and deep appreciation" for support of the Hillside P.T.A. in its fund campaign to complete payments on the recent purchase of an organ for the high school was released this week by L. B. Frasier, secretary of the Parent Teachers Association of the school.

Frasier also listed three more contributors to the fund campaign. They were the class of 1953, $208.36; class of 1954 $25.00; and the Honor Society, $50.

In his message, Frasier said, "The contributions typify the spirit of loyalty and generosity existing among students at Hillside high school. The organ has been purchased for them, and we hope that it will be used to the fullest extent in helping to round out their program of development."

Plans Laid For NAACP Contest Drive

DURHAM

A popularity contest to choose the NAACP Queen is heading toward its climax in Durham as spokesmen for the Durham branch, which sponsors the contest, announced plans for a program to culminate the contest on Oct. 18.

J. R. Meers and Singleton Jackson, managers of the contest, said last week that a special program has been scheduled for Page's Auditorium on Sunday afternoon at three during which the winner of the NAACP Queen title will be announced.

Also during this program, the Durham branch will hold its regular monthly meeting, and attorney C. O. Pearson and John Holloway, officials of the Durham NAACP, will be heard in addresses. Special music for the program will be rendered by the Amey Jubilee chorus and the Community chorus.

Contestants for the NAACP Queen title so far are Mrs. Lillian Herndon, Mrs. Ruth Meers, Mrs. Sadie Alford, Miss Doris James and Mrs. Sylvester Cain.

Rev. Hagel To Address Ushers

DURHAM

Rev. O. A. Hagel of Burlington will deliver the key address as the Durham Ushers Union holds its usual monthly meeting Sunday, October 11, at the Congregational Christian Church on Beamon avenue.

The program is set for 3:15 in the afternoon.

Special music for the program will be furnished by the senior choir of the church. Other participants on the program are Misses Erma Kinsey, Zelma Williams and Berlina Bullock.

Rev. Hagel serves as pastor for the Congregational Christian church on Beamon avenue.

MRS. ELNORA SMITH HOSTESS TO LYON PARK ROSE GARDEN CLUB

Mrs. Elnora Smith was hostess to the Lyon Park Rose Garden Club Monday evening, September 28 at her home on Nelson Street. The home was really beautiful throughout, decorated with arrangements of assorted fall flowers that lent a festive touch to the occasion.

The meeting was opened by singing the club song, "God Bless the Little Roses," which was followed by Bible verses. The "Lord Prayer" was then repeated in unison. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Alice Jones, the meeting was presided over by Mrs. M. W. Webb, vice-president. Committee reports were given and received. The program chairman, Mrs. Notie J. Curry gave a beautiful illustration on the care and planting of winter gardens. Plans were discussed for a club project. The group also voted to put shrubbery around the Saint Matthew C. M. E. Church.

Following the business session, a social hour was held. Games were directed by Mrs. Thelma Allen and Mrs. Elnora Smith. Prizes were awarded the winners. At this point, the hostess invited the group into the dining room where a turkey dinner was served with all the trimmings, to all members and friends present.

Invited guests were: Mesdames C. C. Malone, Rada Prince, Ethel Perry, Evelyn Thorpe, Elnora Joyner, Annie Strickland, Grace Williams, Beatrice Manley, Annie B. Sanabria, E. D. Green and Miss Mary L. Stephens.

Members present were: Mesdames Sadie Mebane, Daisy Green, Alliner Randall, Pearl Brown, M. W. Webb, Notie J. Curry, Margaret Burnett, Ora Rich, Elizabeth Bullock, Mary Handy, Elnora Smith, Mable Freeland, Victoria Joyner, Effie Young, Allene Mebane, Thelma Allen, Elizabeth Hester and Mattie R. Canty. Mrs. Sadie Mebane thanked the hostess for such a grand time.

MRS. MARYLAND McCOLLUM ENTERTAINS AZALEA GARDEN CLUB

The Azalea Garden Club met with Mrs. Maryland McCollum on Nelson Street, September 28, at 6:30 p. m. The Garden Gate was opened by Mrs. D. F. Reed, after which the President, Mrs. Effie Cotton presided. Minutes were read and approved. Several reports were made. The group had Mrs. C. B. Nixon, Home Demonstrator as guest speaker. She gave us a very interesting discussion on trees and their beauty.

Mrs. McCollum has just moved in her beautiful new
