

Eagles, Aggies Rout Opponents

A & T Converts 4 Union Fumbles Into TD's; Win By 26-6 Score

GREENSBORO — The A. and T. Aggies crushed the Virginia Union University Panthers 26-6 in a football game here at Memorial Stadium last Saturday. Striking twice each in the first two quarters Bill Bell sent in his freshman reserves in the last half, who were completely throttled.

All of the Aggie touchdowns were set up by costly errors of the visiting Virginians. Three fumbles, two each on the 17 and a third on the six yard line, and an attempted pass interception which backfired, made the A. and T. victory an easy one.

The Union touchdown resulted from a pass interception, deep in her own territory.

The Aggies struck like lightning in the first quarter scoring two touchdowns in rapid succession, the first coming even before many of the spectators had taken their seats.

The first was set up by a costly Union fumble on her own 17 yard line, covered by A. and T. tackle, Arthur Jones. Spencer Gwynn, Aggie full back hit for 5 and Bob Jones picked up 6 to the union 6 yard line. Charles Tisdale broke through for the initial tally, untouched, on a quarterback sneak. Don Quarles' kick was good, giving the Aggies a 7-0 lead.

The Aggies hit pay dirt a few minutes later, set up by another Union miscue in a fumble again on the 17 yard line. Donald Meadows shot through to cover the ball. Bob Jones hit for 4 yards, and Guy Mills, a recent returnee from Korea, shot a bullet pass to Carl Smith, his Army Buddy, who ran the remaining 10 yards.

Smith's kick was wide. The third touchdown came in the opening minutes of the second quarter, set up by another Union fumble on her own 6 yard line, which was covered by Bill Bush. George Johnson slipped through the middle for 2 yards and Lawrence Payne, circled end for the touchdown. His kick split the uprights to carry the Aggies out front, 20-0.

Shortly before the end of the second quarter, a fourth touchdown was scored following a weird set of developments. A Tisdale pass intended for Payne flipped off his fingertips to Fortune Spriggs, Union back, who made a lunge to intercept only to bounce it back into the arms of Payne who raced the remaining 15 yards to score.

Payne's attempt from placement was blocked, which gave the Aggies a 26-0 lead.

The Union tally came midway the final quarter as Charles "Chuck" Robinson, fleetly left end, plucked an Aggie aerial on his own 30 yard line, broke away for the sidelines and raced the remaining 70 yards for the touchdown. The attempt by Lewis Dockery from placement went astray.

J. C. Smith In Easy 25-7 Win Over Saints

CHARLOTTE — Bent on improving their fourth place standing in 1952, the Golden Bulls of Johnson C. Smith University blew the lid off their 1953 campaign here last Saturday with a convincing 25-7 triumph over the improved Tigers of St. Paul Polytechnic Institute from Lawrenceville, Va.

It was the Herd's All-Conference backfield which did the greater damage, although the defense appeared most impressive in holding the Tiger's fast backs to a net of 59 yards on land and 57 in the air.

Meanwhile, the Bulls' great backs, Howard Petty, Marcellus Penn, Roy McIlwain, Henry Eily, Hayden Renwick, Ruffin McNeil and Raymond McDouglas were churning up the Memorial Stadium turf for 238 yards running and an additional 58 on four completions of eight passes. Aided greatly by a tremendous 56 yard boot by Leon Anderson, the Smith eleven wound up the battle with a terrific kicking average of 47.2 for three punts.

Coach Robert (Stonewall) Jackson's Charges were well scouted. The mentor, who was making his debut in the rank of CIAA coaches, thus held his maneuvering to the straight stuff. The Bulls got a TD in each of the first two quarters and two in the final chapter. St. Paul's only score came in the third.

McIlwain sneaked for two. Renwick, his substitute, also slipped over twice. A 200-pound sophomore, McIlwain got the first marker midway through the initial stanza, stealing from the one to cap a 66-yard march.

Renwick, who is only 145, made his second. Wyatt Williams, a highly-promising tailback from Portsmouth, Va., flipped to Quarterback Robert Faulk for the Tiger score. McIlwain, who passed successfully on two of four tries for 44 yards, and Renwick put the Bulls' fifth straight triumph over St. Paul in the freezer with quickies in the fourth.

Standing among the defenders were John Massey, Nathaniel Schnell, David Woods, Fab Camp, Kenny Vincent and Robert Steede. In addition to Williams, Richard Gaffin, Lloyd King, Clarence Compton and Robert Faulk performed for the losers.

Trojans, Pirates In CIAA Classic

WASHINGTON — The Virginia State College Trojans and Hampton Institute Pirates will be the opposing teams in the seventh annual National Classic football game at Griffith Stadium on Saturday, October 24, the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association announced today through Thomas F. Johnson, chairman of the Classic.

Both teams are considered well matched for the game. Virginia State finished the 1952 season undefeated and was scored against only once, while Hampton won four and lost three games.

Representative teams are selected by the Executive Committee of the CIAA each year to play in the Classic. This event is owned and operated by the CIAA conference members, and all proceeds are distributed to the competing and the remaining fourteen member institutions.

Lucky Strikes . . . by JOE BLACK

There's something about a World Series that makes it a fascinating and memorable experience. It's the top sporting event of the year, and folks from all parts of the world come to see it.

Reporters and photographers swarm all over the place and we players have to be careful of what we say or do because these sportswriters will print anything they hear or see during a Series. The stands are always packed with enthusiastic rooters who cheer on every pitch and there's an excitement in the air which you can almost feel.

Most ball players aren't bothered by the crowd and noise. Of course, we realize the vastness of it all—the millions of people who are watching our every move—but once that first pitch is made, it becomes just another big ball game. I think the toughest part about being a player in a World Series is getting tickets. We get only about six sets for the games, and you can't imagine the hundreds of "old relatives and friends" who suddenly pop up at Series time. Strange coincidence!

Yes, it's excitement and a memorable experience you ball fans are looking for, try to get to a World Series. And if you cigarette fans are looking for a memorable experience, get to a pack of Lucky Strike right away. That good, clean taste of a Lucky is an experience you'll get puff after puff. Remember, nothing—no, nothing—beats better taste, and Luckies taste better... a lot better! So, Be Happy—Go Lucky... today! See you next week for my last column of the season.

TC Rams Stage Comeback To Broncos, 13-13

FAYETTEVILLE — The Fayetteville "Broncos", determined to repeat last year's performance and to break into the win column against the Head Coach Thomas Comrad's Winston-Salem "Rams", had to settle for a 13-13 tie as Ram quarterback Jodie Wilson passed thirty yards during the last five minutes of play and converted safely for the seven tallies that knotted the score.

The victory-hungry Broncos, paced by Wilson, Williams, Brayboy, and "Big" John Cotton, settled down in dead earnest as the second period opened to roll up two markers in quick succession. Early in the period, Baldwin ripped off forty yards down the sideline to put the ball on the five. From this point, Noble picked up three yards through the line and Co-captain Earl Garrett went over for the game's first six points. Wilson's recovery of a fumble on the thirty set up the second Bronco score. Brayboy, now quarterbacking for Fayetteville whipped two passes to Sam "Snake" Williams for the second score. The extra point was good and tackle to score standing up from the four yard line. Bill Hollingsworth, the Eagles' all conference candidate for end, failed in the first of four conversion tries.

Grinding Ground Game Deflates Hampton As NCC Wins, 25-0

DURHAM — North Carolina College's steamrolling football team defeated Hampton Institute's Pirates 25-0 at Durham Athletic Park last Saturday night for NCC's second CIAA victory.

Herman Riddick's gridders won their conference opener from the St. Augustine College Falcons 31-0 in Raleigh on Sept. 26. Featuring a greatly improved land attack, the Eagles' eleven pushed over their touchdowns in each of the four periods, scoring their first tally in the first eight minutes.

Although outweighing the visiting Pirates, the Eagles proved no match for them in the air as the Harry Jefferson coached gridders piled up 146 yards to only 31 for the Eagles.

Leading the scoring for the NCC gang was Cornelius Eason, 20 year old junior substitute right halfback from Norfolk, Va., who tallied two of the Eagles' touchdowns. The night's brightest offensive halfback, Thornton ripped off a series of snazzy runs in the first quarter to set up the first score. Jerome Evans, the Eagles' first string right half back, bulled off the half ended with Fayetteville leading 13-0. At half time Winston-Salem's 70 piece band under the direction of H. E. Pick-gles' triple threat starting quarterback, went over on a quarterback sneak on the third play of the second quarter for the Eagles' second score. Starting the scoring play, Montgomery passed to end Charley Floyd for eight yards. Thornton reeled off a 24 yard run. Evans skipped through the Pirates for 13 to put the ball on the visitors' 10. Harvey Thompson, NCC fullback, gained five yards in a power drive to put Montgomery in scoring position.

Hampton's biggest threat during the game came late in the second period when the passing combination of Bill Casey to Dick Harris put the ball on NCC's 11 yard line. Harris traveled 75 yards to reach the 11. However, time was waning and before the Pirates could execute a scoring play, the half ended with NCC ahead, 12-0.

The fleet Eason, subbing for Jerry Evans who was injured in the second half, dashed 21 yards for NCC's third tally. That occurred in the third quarter. Late in the fourth quarter, Otto Harvey, NCC center, intercepted one of Casey's passes and hurried to the two yard line. Eason inched over from the one yard stripe.

Bill Hollingsworth tried a 21 yard field goal late in the fourth frame, but his kick was wide and the game ended 25-0.
