Miss Carrie Lee Vance, roommate of the bride, was maid of honor and the only attendant. She wore a ballerina length gown of ice blue nylon net with matching accessories. Her bouquet was of pink carnations.

First Lt. Haywood Allen, brother of the groom, was best man. The bride's mother wore a street length dress of blue crepe and lace with a corsage of red roses.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's mother entertained at a reception for members of the wedding party, relatives and intimate friends.

Out of town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Allen and son, Edward Allen Sr., father of the groom, Mrs. James Robinson and little Ethel Morgan, niece of the groom, all of Durham.

The bride is a graduate of Good Samaritan School of Nursing and is on the staff of Duke Hospital, Durham. The groom attended North Carolina College and is employed by The J. S. Smith Construction Company. The couple will reside in Durham.

Back to School—Miss Mary Louise Hogan has resumed her duties at Douglas High School Live Oak, Fla. where she is a teacher. After spending the Xmas holidays with grandmother, Mrs. Mary Hogan of Kent St.

Mr. and Mrs. David Moore, David Jr., and Pat of New York City motored down and spent the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moore of 5th Street.

Hart-Choice Vows Are Spoken

CHARLOTTE
The wedding of Miss Frances Hart and Luther Lee Choice, both of Charlotte, was held at Saint Paul Baptist Church Friday, December 25, at six p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hart of this city and the bridegroom is the son of Gasaway Choice of Clinton, S. C.

Officiating at the single ring rites was Rev. James F. Wertz, pastor of St. Paul. Preceding the wedding, a program of music was presented by Miss Essie Mae Shappie, soloist and Miss Clara Wertz, pianist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white taffeta styled with long lace sleeves. She carried a Bible topped with a white orchid.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Catherine McCray was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Alice Sloan and Miss Dorothy Jackson.

Best man for the bridegroom was Joseph Livingston, cousin of the bride. Ushers were, Eddie Floyd, Robert Sandler, Willie Drakeford, Nathaniel Gleaton, John Jackson, Marshal Peary and Alexander Sloan.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held in the dining room of the church.
