Museum Willed T. R.'s Trophies By Bodyguard

NEW YORK
James E. Amos, the valet and bodyguard of Theodore Roosevelt for more than ten years, willed three case loads of trophies and souvenirs once belonging to T. R. to the Theodore Roosevelt Museum. Amos also left his widow, Annie Amos, $20,000, according to the will filed this week in Queens Surrogate Court.

Teachers Hold Regular Meet In Roxboro

ROXBORO
The Local Unit of the North Carolina Teachers' Association held its regular monthly meeting Thursday evening in the Person County High School Auditorium.

A retired special agent for the FBI, Amos died last December 26th in his Jamaica, Long Island home. He started his career as valet and later bodyguard to President Theodore Roosevelt. He entered the Federal Bureau of Investigation in 1921 on his boss' recommendation and was a special agent until he retired last October.

The Classroom Teachers Division discussed the following as would be ways and means of making the meeting more interesting, meaningful, and helpful for each teacher: School Legislation, A More Significant Program Through Films, and Active Participation by Each Member.

Among the case loads of Roosevelt trophies as willed by Amos to the museum, were big game trophies from Africa, riding crops used by T. R. in his Rough Rider days, a "billy" he carried when police commissioner of New York and a half a dozen "big sticks" sent by admirers.

The group then discussed the Mason Bill HR5180 which is now before Congress. This bill introduced by Mrs. Fountain, Chairman of the Legislative Committee of the Local Unit, deals with equal tax treatment for all retired people. A great

Do CRAMPS give you that monthly look?
Why let this minor, "nerve" show in your face? Does your mirror show an older-looking, worn-out, nervous face during your "bad days"? Why let men see that you are suffering from monthly cramps? Try a little Cardui each day as thousands of women do. Let it help build strength and resistance so you have less and less misery each month. Some go through periods without feeling any discomfort at all. Also helps relax itchy nerves—sleep better. Look, feel, act younger, more normal all month. Ask for Cardui. (Say: "card-oo-ee")
