Alice White of McDougald Terrace has been absent from school on account of illness.

Shirley Caldwell, James McIntosh, Leroy Patterson and William Durham have been confined to their homes on account of illness.

Arthur Johnson was seven years old Thursday, January 14, Luther and Dwight Brown ate ice cream and cake with him. Other neighborhood children were supposed to help him celebrate but the heavy rain prevented them from being present.

Ronald Stewart was out of school a few days last week on account of illness, but he kept the telephone line busy checking up on the activities of his classmates.

We are glad to welcome Pearl Bailey to Whitted School. She was transferred from East End School.

We are proud of the Mechanics and Framers Bank Fayetteville Street Branch, as we are all members of the Thrift Club. Souvenirs were provided for children at the formal opening Friday, January 15. Many children were present.

Carol Phillips of Alston Avenue has been in with the mumps.

Anthony (Tony) Sampson and James Stewart have been out of school on account of mumps.

ter in an unofficial Holiday Festival game at Greensboro. Samuel "Sad Sam" Jones, Laurinburg junior forward on North Carolina College's basketball team, is the club's leading scorer with an average of 20.9 points per game in 12 contests.

Jones, 20 years old, stands 6'4" and tips the scales at 180 pounds. Jones has hooped an even 100 field goals and connected with free throws enough to mass 51 points. The lanky Laurinburg hoopster has committed only 18 personal fouls.

Charles "Tex" Harrison, the Eagles' highly touted pivot ace, trails Jones in the scoring column with 19.8 tallies in the 12 browls to date. Harrison netted 89 field goals and bucketed 60 free throws. He has committed a total of 28 personal fouls.

As of January 11, the Eagles had scored 812 points against 757 for their opponents. NCC's cagers average 67.6 points per game against 63 for their opponents.

Jones tallied the largest number of points against Winston-Salem during a nonconference tournament in December when he copped 37 tallies.

FEPC bill, Senator H. Alexander Smith, (R., N.J.) today expressed his "firm conviction that hearings starting February 23 can be concluded in sufficient time to have legislation on Senate floor for action."

Walter White, executive secretary of the National Association of Colored People, had charged that postponement of the hearings from January 12 to February 23 "would almost certainly

Eaton, Seabrook And Kennedy Featured In Spring Hope School

RALEIGH

A series of meetings discussing "Lay Participation in Education" will be held at Spaulding High School in Spring Hope, January 31. These meetings are a part of a general effort to bring about more effective teamwork between the Patrons and the School. A special effort is being made to bring all of the patrons of the school into more active participation in the program, to show the role of the patron in the school program, and what the patron should expect of the school.

Dr. Hubert Eaton, noted physician of Wilmington, will deliver the first of a series of addresses on "Lay Participation in Education" at the Spaulding High School on Sunday, January 31, at five o'clock P. M.

Dr. Eaton takes time out to participate in all phases of Civic life in Wilmington and he is a recognized force for education in the state. Dr. Eaton has contributed much to the field of Education. He was a candidate prevent the measure from reaching the Senate calendar and a filibuster from killing the bill especially in an election year like 1954 when Congress will do its best to adjourn early to permit political campaigning."

Senator Smith who is chairman of the Senate Labor Committee postponed the hearings.

for the New Hanover County Board of Education in a recent election and was defeated by a slight margin.

The speakers selected for the occasions are experts in their fields. Beside the January 31, meeting there is a meeting scheduled February 28. Dr. J. W. Seabrook, President of Fayetteville State Teachers College, will be the principal speaker and on March 21, W. J. Kennedy, Jr., President of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, will be the speaker. A special tribute to the late C. C. Spaulding will be given for his contribution to Education.

At the close of each lecture there will be an open session and a question and answer period.
