Hot Fayetteville Cagers Down St. Paul, 92-65, In Loop Game

FAYETTEVILLE—Inspired by an imposing 8-3 win record in CIAA competition and a season cage count of thirteen wins against three losses, the raming Fayetteville State Teachers College "Broncos" put on a show to celebrate the departure to the armed services of their stellar guard, Malcolm "Mal" Hunter, and to administer a sound spanking to "Tiger" Coach N. L. Stallworth's fast-breaking quint to a 92-65 score.

The score does not tell the whole story, however, for the Virginians, paced by their amazing "set shot" artist, guard Ralph Bacote, currently high point man in the CIAA circuit, sank basket for basket throughout the first quarter and the Fayetteville Teachers had to extend themselves to post a three-point lead at the conclusion of the first quarter.

The second quarter saw a fine exhibition of ball handling by Bacote, workhorse for the "Tiger" outfit, and his running mate Co-Captain Milton Strickland, but "Mal" Hunter had already begun to break through the visitors' defense and William "Duke" Lewis, was hitting for his sensational "long set shots" in rapid succession. The visiting basketweavers soon bogged down under the pressure and the Broncos ran the first-half score to 40-25 count. The "home boys" were out in front of a tricky, confident cage group to stay.
