Ferrell Street. The 2-1 Class of Lyon Park School whose teacher is Miss Annie Lee Cobb gave a very enjoyable Easter program in chapel Thursday. The program told about the Resurrection. The children were dressed in white and the stage was decorated with three white crosses and dogwood blossoms.

2-2 Grade of Lyon Park School sent little Sylvia Webb an Easter basket for Easter. They made cards wishing Sylvia a happy Easter. Sylvia has been out of school since Christmas because of illness. Miss M. L. Stephens is the teacher of this class.

Julius Royster of West Pettigrew Street was made to feel very happy for Easter when his former teacher, Mrs. Evelyn Kennedy, visited him and presented him with a large Easter basket. Julius has been out of school because of illness.

The children of West Durham Baptist and First Calvary Sunday Schools enjoyed Egg Hunts given by their Sunday Schools Easter Monday. There were plenty of pretty colored eggs for everyone.

"Billy Boy" Boykins of Dupree Street celebrated his sixth birthday on April 24 with about sixty of his friends. They all had a lovely time playing volleyball, basketball and many other games. The guests were served ice cream, cake, Easter eggs, and peanuts. "Billy Boy" received many gifts; among them was a swing which was a gift from his daddy.

Elizabeth Tanner and Alice Douglas have been absent from Pearson School on account of illness.

Gwendolyn Winston is in the hospital. Her brother "Bill" was also in the hospital but left when she came in.

The declaration contest for Pearson School was held Monday, April 12, and Tuesday April 13. The winners of the upper grades' contest were: First place, Hattie Pearl Perry; Second place, Jimmy Henry and Betty Jo Goodloe; Third place, Bobby Liverpool. The winners of the Primary Grades' contest were: First place, Wilma Southerland; Second place, Third place, Doris Wall.

The Happy Club met at the home of Marsha Goodwin Saturday, April 24. The members played dodge ball, various games, and jumped rope. Fill Backs were given to all members. Refreshments consisted of ice cream, cake, candy and marshmallows.

The members of the 2 B 1 class of East End School are happy to have Eddie Cox return to school after having been a patient in Duke Hospital.

The members of 1 B 1 Grade of East End School were happy to greet Eddie James when he returned to school after he had been in the hospital.

The primary grades of East End School will present an operetta, "Old King Cole," Monday night, May 3, at 8 P. M.

The members of the 2 B 3 class of East End School regret that Levi McCrae is absent from school because of measles.

Willie Harris who is attending school in Washington, D. C. and residing with his aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Claud Williams, spent a very happy Easter. (Please Turn to Page Five)
