

Mrs. Willie H. Page is recuperating at her home 1102 Glenn Street, after undergoing treatment in Lincoln Hospital and N. C. Memorial Hospital at Chapel Hill. She wishes to thank her many friends for the cards and flowers sent during her illness.

The Azalea Garden Club met Monday evening, April 28 with Mrs. Effie Cotton at her home on Carroll Street. The club viewed her beautiful flower garden of roses, iris, thrift, pansies, tulips and other flowers. The garden gate was opened by Mrs. Minnie Forte. A short business session was held, presided over by the president, Mrs. E. Cotton, followed by a discussion of the garden tour made on Easter Sunday.

Only three gardens were visited and all were beautiful. First was that of Mrs. Wallons, of Duke University, an unusual garden, all wild flowers but very pretty, then Mrs. D. St. Pierre Du Bose near Chapel Hill and John Sprunt Hill, 3. Duke Street. The pictures of these gardens were then thrown on a screen by a slide projector which was a beautiful sight to behold.

A lovely dinner was served by the hostess, Mrs. Cotton's out of town guests were: Mrs. Register of Pa., Mrs. Lil Brown of Norfolk, Va., Mrs. Edna Chavious, Mrs. Geneva Nichols, Mrs. Alice Wilson, and Mrs. Effie Jones of Hillsboro.

Other guests were Mrs. Roxie Rowland, State president, Mrs. Christine Alston and Mrs. Katie Jenkins. Members present were Mesdames Roxie Davis, Sallie Harris, Julia Lucas, Mabel Mabry, Charlotte Miller, Margaret Marsh, Gladys McNeal, Hazel McBroome, Thelma Parham, Maryland McCullum, Benetta Peel, Lena Richardson, Janie Wheeler, Thomasine Register, Lillian Williams, Minnie Forte, Alease Herrod, Misses Mary E. Bane, Cleo Russell and Geneva Richardson.

Mrs. Bessie Pratt was hostess to the Utopia Club at the Algonquin Club House on Fayetteville Street. The business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. Mabel Mabry. The guest speaker was Mrs. Ada Fisher, who discussed "World Events" from every angle" which was thoroughly enjoyed by every one present. Mrs. Pratt served refreshments.

Her guests were: Mesdames Alease Herrod, Eugenia Simmons, Lil Farrington, Sara Felder, Ada Horton, and Mary Ray. Members were Mesdames Matilda Townsend, Roda Prince Dora Green, Minnie Forte, Plaisie Harris, Sallie Harris, Hattie Meadows, Lena Richardson, Laura Burnette, Mattie Alston, Wilmer Milum, Ethel Perry, Freeland Price, Vivian Stowe, Nellie Williams, P. Grace Williams, and Mabel Mabry.

Mrs. William J. Kennedy, III, who has been a patient at Lincoln Hospital for more than a week, has returned home at 1012 S. Alston Avenue.

Mrs. Mary Barbee Walker is home, after spending several weeks in Lincoln Hospital.

Mrs. Benena S. Kerr and Mrs. Annie Day S. Smith have returned from Atlanta, Ga., where they attended the inauguration of President Albert Manley of Spelman College.

The Model Mothers Club met last week with Mrs. Bettie Herndon at her home on Dunbar Street. The devotions were led by the president, Mrs. Sible Taylor. After the business session was over, Mrs. Margarie Lennon read a very interesting paper, "How To Teach Children To Be Beautiful." She said to be beautiful is like being happy. It must come from within.

The ladies enjoyed a delicious collation served by the hostess. Mrs. Herndon had as her guest, Mrs. Ann Wright. Members present were: Mesdames Minnie Forte, Marie Speigner, Reba Spaulding, Nellie Toole, Verdell Johnston, Lena Richardson, Frances Schooler, Margarie Lennon, Hortense McCullum, Sue Mae Bullock, Mae Spaulding, Althea Holmes, C. Fletcher, Selena Wheeler, Sylvia (continued on page five)
