crime against nature, by a Mecklenburg County Superior Court.

The case rocked North Carolina circles when it broke about two months ago when the two are alleged to have been surprised by a patrol car, at or near a drive-in bank, supposedly committing the act.

The pair was taken to Raleigh on June 11 and prison officials told newsmen that they were given the regular prison routine. It could not be determined as to what duties they would be assigned after the processing was over.

-Dr. Jones-

and in the late 1920's was executive secretary of the Pine Street YMCA in St. Louis, Mo., Dr. Jones has made a most distinguished mark as an educator.

-NAACP-

tion to the problems and issues arising out of the Court's ruling. They recognized, as they pointed out in The Atlanta Declaration, "that school officials will have certain administrative problems in transferring from a segregated to a non-segregated system."
