The Flower Gardens of Durham gave a garden party last Sunday afternoon on the beautiful lawn of Mrs. Effie Cotton on Carroll St. Beautiful and colorful dresses, made a picturesque sight to behold. The occasion here was honoring two outgoing state officers, Mrs. Roxie Rowland, president, and Mrs. Roxie Davis, secretary.

Mrs. Cotton, president of the Azalea Garden Club made the introductory remarks, welcoming clubs and friends to her beautiful garden. This was a fine fellowship.

Mrs. Cotton brought greetings from the Azalea Club. Greetings were also brought from the Year Round Club, Mrs. Lil Farrington; La-Fleur Garden Club, Mrs. Gladys Rhodes; La-Petite Club, Mrs. Magnolia Leak; Lyon Park Club, Mrs. Enora Smith, The Daliah Club, Mrs. Annie B. Mangum; West Durham Blossom Club, Miss M. L. Stephens; and The Old Fashion Club.

Mrs. Rowland introduced the new state president, Mrs. B. B. Redding, of Oxford, who gave some very inspiring remarks. Gifts were presented the two outgoing state officers, beautiful flower containers, by the clubs for their very fine work and cooperation through the year. The presentation was made by Mrs. Johnnie Mc Lester, in her usual fine way. Mrs. Rowland and Mrs. Davis expressed their gratitude. Mrs. Benetta Peel led group singing, "Let us all work together with original ideas."

Later in the evening, pictures were shown of homes, flower gardens, and arrangements of the different club members which were enjoyed by all. More than 75 members and guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Williams of Jacksonville, Fla., were visitors in Durham Friday. They were enroute to Pennsylvania, where Mr. Williams plans to enter Pennsylvania State University working toward his masters' degree. He is an instructor at New Stanton High School and Mrs. Williams is English teacher at Callahan High School. They were guests of Mrs. Lillian Buchanan.

Mrs. Lillian Rudisill Byrd, wife of Bunn Byrd, is attending summer school at N. C. College.

On Monday evening, Mrs. Mozelle Blount entertained members of the Cosmetology Club Chapter I, at her home on Walton Ave.

The president, Mrs. P. F. Love, presided over the business session. After the business session, refreshments were served. Attending were Mesdames P. F. Love, Pauline Hart, M. L. Minor, L. C. Coleman, Margaret Jefferies, Ethel Owens, B. F. Moss, Lucy Johnson, B. C. Fowler, Lela Wise, N. J. Curry, Misses Sarah Doison, Lillie Weins, Lois Burroughs, and Sae Fitts.

Dr. and Mrs. York D. Garrett were hosts Sunday evening, at their home on Fayetteville St., to their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Taylor Garrett of Cleveland, Ohio. A large number of friends went in to greet the couple who has been married one year. Miss Harriette Amey and Mrs. Arona McDough Parker received guests. Mrs. Alma Thompson presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Flora Earles, Mrs. Jessie Brown, Miss Marie Eaton of New York and Mrs. Ingo Spaulding of Washington, D. C., spent the week with their sisters, Mrs. Bessie E. McLaurin and Mrs. Viola Pendie. Mrs. Fendie went back to New York with her sisters to spend a few weeks.

Mrs. Roxie Rowland and Mrs. Roxie Davis, motored to Danville, Va. recently to attend the Virginia State Garden Club convention.

Mrs. Cora Thomas, Mrs. Cora Jones, Mrs. Cerena Woods and children, Barbara and Robert, and Hugh Wesley of New York City motored to Durham to spend last week end with their relatives, Mrs. Allie Mitchell and Mrs. Henrietta Lyon at their home on Fayetteville St.

Elwood Goins and Miss Doris Akeley of Baltimore, Md. spent the week end in the city visiting Mr. Goins' mother, Mrs. Eva Goins at her home on Fayetteville St. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Goins of Morgan College.

Mrs. Katie Love of Mebane, was hostess to the Year Round Garden Club Sunday afternoon, June 20. Dr. Love joins Mrs. Love in this event each year and entertains the husbands. A trip to the lovely county home of Dr. and Mrs. Love is a great treat which is looked forward to with much enthusiasm by the members.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Pearl Cordice. The garden gate was opened by Mrs. Sarah Felder. Mrs. Felder's opening included a song, prayer and a poem thought. Minutes were given by the secretary, Mrs. Flossie Tarrain. Mrs. Lottie Harris, delegate to the recent state garden club meeting held at Bricks, made her report.

The Year Round Garden Club received second state prize, a book on flower arrangements, which was presented to the club. A library of books on gardening will be put into effect by the club and this book is the first to be added to the effort. The highlight of the evening was the informative and helpful lecture given by John W. Jefferies, assistant director of the N. C. Farm Extension Dept., on lawn care.

Each gardener got so much valuable information from the lecture they returned to their respective homes determined to have better lawns.

Gardener Carrie Burch gave some timely and practical tips on how to transplant and reseed beds now for fall and spring gardens. She brought a container of several flowers for demonstration. There were a number of guests present and the president acknowledged their presence.

Guests were Mrs. J. W. Jefferies and daughter, Mrs. Maxine O'Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Coone, Dr. and Mrs. Shanks, A. B. Burch, Fred Henderson, W. J.
