

Scarborough Day Camp Opens On Fayetteville Rd.

Daisy E. Scarborough Girl Scout Camp had its official opening Monday, June 28, with 50 girls of Durham present. The camp will accommodate 60 children. There is a cabin on the three-acre site which is equipped with a large meeting room, a screened porch, and kitchen. Children attending the day camp will leave their respective homes each morning and return each evening. Transportation to and from the camping area is also being provided for the youngsters. Picnic tables and benches are in use at the camp for the children's lunch period.

A flag and flag pole have been secured from the local American Legion and the entire site has been cleared of all underbrush so that the children may have ample space for recreational activities. Outdoor cooking, nature hikes, aircraft, and handicraft is being supervised by the camp workers.

Two week sessions will be held by the camp to accommodate those who cannot attend the first session. Persons interested in assisting with the camping program should make their services known by contacting Mrs. Booker at the Girl Scout Office.

turned to spend the summer with her aunt, Mrs. Celeste J. Smith, after a visit with her husband at Fort Benning, Ga.

The Lyon Park Rose Garden Club held its last two meetings at the homes of Mrs. Elizabeth Bullock on Carrol St., and Mrs. Margaret Burnett on Moreland Ave., respectively.

Mrs. Alice Jones, president, presided over the meetings. The two meetings consisted of discussions in preparation for and the results of the Annual Flower Convention which was held at Bricks, N. C.

Each member felt that she was present at the convention while listening to the report of the delegate, Mrs. Jones.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hester, a very faithful member and the reporter for the club is on leave of absence because of the change of working hours.

Members present were Mesdames Daisy Green, Victoria Joyner, N. J. Curry, Elnora Smith, Fannie Tapp, Alice Jones, Margaret Burnett, Mattie Canty, M. W. Webb, Mary Hardy, Grace Frazier, Mable Freedland, Sadie Mebane, Sophronia, Greene, Effie Young, Annie B. Greene, Elizabeth Bullock, Aliner Randall, and Fannie Cozart.

Burial Group Holds Meeting

SPRING HOPE

The Spring Hope Mutual Burial Association held its annual observance Sunday, June 27 at Spaulding High School under the direction of J. D. Toney and Mrs. Ethel Hopkins, head of the association's celebration.

A street parade opened the celebration Sunday morning at 10:30, followed by the annual sermon delivered by Dr. C. E. Askew, formerly of Pittsburgh, Pa. J. W. Wilkins of Roanoke Rapids, presided at the services. Extending greetings on behalf of the association were E. L. Roberts, principal of Spaulding High School; the Rev. J. G. Strickland, and J. E. Byrd, of Rocky Mount.

Choirs participating were the Wonder Travelers of Newport News, Va.; St. Marys of Bailey; The Silver Star Gospel Singers of Washington, D. C.; the Dra-

Final Rites Held For Mr. James London Mitchell

Final rites at Mount Vernon Baptist Church were held for James L. Mitchell, Sunday, June 27, with the pastor, the Rev. E. T. Browne, officiating. Mr. Mitchell died Thursday, June 24. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Willis Mitchell of Granville County.

Mrs. Ruth S. McCollum played the organ prelude. Floral bearers were members of the Kingdom Seekers Bible Class and pall bearers were members of the Tonkin's Bible Class of Mt. Vernon Church.

Surviving Mr. Mitchell are his wife, Mrs. Edna Gerald Mitchell; one sister, Isa Mae Mitchell; two brothers, Messrs. William and Warnie Mitchell; one step-daughter; Ruth Fedrick; one step-son; Howard Gerald; one aunt, Mrs. Mary E. Day; two nieces, and one nephew.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a. m. at the Trinity Church of Zeblon.

Rams Down West Virginia Miners In Exhibition

Interment was at Beechwood Cemetery with the directors of Amey's Funeral Home in charge.

Backed by the breaking curve balls thrown by Pete Payton, the Durham Rams came from behind a 2-0 lead to down the Bluefield West Virginia Miners Monday night 11-5. The visitors drew first blood in the first inning with two runs, but the local team roared back in their half of the same frame to cop a 2-3 lead.

Going on a scoring rampage thereafter, the Rams had men to cross the home plate in the second, fourth, fifth, sixth, and eighth innings. Payton struck out nine opposing batters while the visiting pitcher, Little, set down four Rams.

The game which was played at Durham Athletic Park was attended by one of the largest number of spectators since the season opened. Special attractions of the evening were the personal appearance of Jam-A-Ditty of the local radio station, and the awarding of the $5 gate prize.

The fourth of July weekend will find the Rams at home for two games. Sunday afternoon, they will play the Baltimore Stars at the Durham Athletic Park and Monday afternoon, July 5, they will be hosts to Greensboro. "Lefty" Coleman will pitch for the game Sunday.
