

DURHAM SOCIETY NOTES

ALL NEWS FOR THIS PAGE MUST BE SUBMITTED BEFORE TEN A. M. MONDAY OF EACH WEEK

Mrs. Lillian Buchanan, Editor--9-1480

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

- MRS. MABEL POWELL - Fearonville-Phone 9-4134
MISS M. L. STEPHENS - West Durham-Phone 7-4164
MRS. N. J. CUREY - West End-Phone 7-8862
MISS RACHEL NUNN - Hickstons

Mrs. Nell Hunter Entertains Last Saturday evening at her home on Fayetteville Street...

Each member took a gift termed a white elephant. As the gifts were exchanged, everyone opened his gift which brought much fun and laughter...

Punch, assorted sandwiches, and accompaniments were served by the hostess. Speaking for the class, Mrs. Lill Buchanan thanked Mrs. Hunter for such a lovely party...

Members present at the party were Mesdames Mary Evans, Alma Hughes, Jessie Downey, Laura Strayhorn, Margaret Tucker, Nettie Lanier, Luna Robinson, Lessie Barbee, Edna Walker, Bessie McLaurin, Lillian Buchanan, Evelyn Rogers, Ceetta McCoy, Minnie Moses, Cora Lee Brown, Annie K. Day, Marian Warren Brown, Carrie Rigbee, Minnie Gilmer, Misses Snow Bailey, Rickelene Tucker, Geraldine Barbee, Lillian Burton, Annie Lee Cobb, and Vivian Rogers...

The Junior Thespians, under the direction of Miss Bohannon at N. C. College, presented the play entitled "Eternal Life," at Covenant Presbyterian Church Sunday, July 4, at 7:30 p.m.

New Bethel Mission Circle No. 3 entertained their pastor, the Rev. Lowry Reid recently with a surprise birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter McKenney on West Pettigrew St. Guests invited were members of Circles No. 1 and 2. The house was decorated with yellow roses and greenery...

The Hickstons Community Club held its monthly meeting recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Elliot on Second St. Mrs. Bertha Sellers, the president, presided over the meeting. The thought for the evening was taken from the book of Hebrews. Mr. Elliot was the speaker. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Members present were Mesdames Pratt, Moore, Nunn, Carrington, Smith, Johnson, Selar, and Elliot. Allen Nunn and Robert Pratt were visitors.

The Willing Workers Bible held its weekly meeting at the home of Mrs. David Harrison on Sherley St. July 9.

Mrs. Thelma Ratliff of 2311 Crest St. is home from the hospital and is making a favorable recovery.

Willie Wilson and daughter, Mrs. Watkins, and grandson from Albermarle were recent guests of Mrs. Laura Wilson on Neal St. in West Durham. Mr. Wilson is the brother of Mrs. Laura Wilson.

Mrs. Sarah Amey Johnson has returned from New York where she attended the funeral of Gabriel Dennis. Mr. Dennis has served as Secretary of State for Liberia. Mrs. Johnson also visited her two nieces, Dr. Amey Mills, Jr., of New York City.

Mrs. Johnson spent some time in Atlantic City with her brother, Cornelius Amey, and also spent a few hours in Washington, D. C. talking with friends at the Liberian Embassy.

Mrs. Annie Weber of Wilmington, N. C., is in the city visiting her son, W. B. Weber on Fayetteville St.

Mr. and Mrs. John Davis of Otis Street were hosts over the weekend to her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben

Davis and children, Dorothy, Teddie, and Carl of Baltimore, Md. Mrs. Davis' sister, Mrs. Esie Cherry of Washington, D. C., was also among the visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith and daughter, Leetta, and Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Ora W. Fitzgerald, motored to New York last week to visit friends.

Mrs. Evelyn Rogers left last Saturday night for New York City where she will spend her vacation.

Azalea Garden Club News - Mrs. Julia Lucas was hostess to the Azalea Garden Club Monday evening at her home on Otis Street. Mrs. Lillian Williams opened the 'garden gate' with hints on growing different kinds of flowers which were interesting and enjoyable.

A short business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. Effie Cotton. A pleasant discussion of the recent garden party and fellowship was held. Mrs. Roxie Rowland, honorary member, thanked the Azalea members for their fine cooperation. A chicken dinner was served following the discussion.

Guests present were Mrs. Esie Cherry of Washington, D. C., sister of Mrs. Roxie Davis; Mrs. Burnell Davis' sister-in-law of Baltimore, Md.; and Mrs. Rebecca Perry, a cousin of Mrs. Lucas. Mrs. Margaret Marsh thanked Mrs. Lucas for a pleasant evening. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Mabel Mabry on Dunbar St.

Members present were Mesdames Roxie Davis, Hazel McBroom, Janie Wheeler, Jathine Reed, Thelma Parham, Mabel Mabry, Charlotte Miller, Bannetta Peele, Lena Richardson, Margaret Marsh, Misses Cleo Russell, Mary B. Baines, and Geneva Richardson.

Our sympathy is extended to Mrs. Ethel Berry of Formosa Avenue in the death of her mother, Mrs. Paralee Sanders of Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Mena Pitts Martinev of Wilson, spent the holiday weekend in Durham visiting her brother, Benn Pitts on Fayetteville St.

Mrs. Daffodil Farrington Bland, Mrs. Mary Cobb Morrison, and Mrs. Fannie Taylor Johnson of Washington, D. C., all formerly of Durham, motored here to spend the holiday weekend with relatives and friends.

The W. B. Club met Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alma Williams on Dunbar St. The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Novella Crawford. After a short business meeting, the hostess served refreshments.

Members present were Mesdames Jessie Downey, Roberta Edmondson, Laura Strayhorn, Flonza Taylor, Ida Davis, and Miss Nettie Green.

The Model Mothers The Model Mothers Club had its closing meeting last week with Mrs. Esther Baldwin at her country home, the famous Baldwin Farm, where a good time is always assured. A short business session presided over by the president, Mrs. Syble Taylor.

After holding final chats with one another, the mothers said good byes until next fall when they will meet with Mrs. Lydia Wray on George St. Members present were Mesdames T. R. Speigner, Reba Spaulding, Selena Wheeler, Marjorie Lennon, Minnie Gilmer, Sue Mae Bullock, Frances Schooler, Naomi Thorpe, Nellie Toole, Bettie Herndon, and Syble Taylor.

Mrs. Mattie R. Canty was recent hostess to the Lyon Park Rose Garden Club at her home on Moreland Ave.

The garden gate was opened by Mrs. Elizabeth Bullock and the pres. Alice Jones, presided over the meeting. Minutes were read by Mrs. Victoria Joyner.

The program committee chairman, Mrs. N. J. Curry brought in an activity program schedule for the remainder of the year. The main discussions will be "Bulb Planting", "Flower Arrangements", and "Decorations for Christmas".

Miss Helen McDade and Mrs. Lottie Foushee are regular members again. The Social Committee was given the "go-sign" on the club outing for August.

Members present were Mesdames Pearl Brown, Josephine Hoskin, Mable Freeland, Mary Hardy, Sadie Mebane, Lottie Foushee, Elnora Smith, Helen McDade, Margaret Burnet, Notie Curry, Beatrice Robertson, Fannie Cozart, Victoria Joyner, Elizabeth Bullock, M. W. Webb, Mattie Canty, Sophronia Green, Alice Jones and Miss Aliene Mebane. Visitors were Miss Mary L. Stephens and Mrs. Minnie Connor of Charlotte, N. C.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Fannie Cozart on Moreland Ave.

Miss Lenora Jefferys, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Jefferys of Cecil Street, left Sunday July 4 to continue her studies at New York University.

The Third Quarterly conference of the Roxboro Circuit and the Durham District convened on the third Saturday and Sunday in June at Bailey Chapel A.M.E. Church. Due to the absence of the Presiding Elder, Dr. Davis, our pastor, the Rev. A. J. Holman, presided at the Saturday session.

On Sunday morning a very inspiring sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Holman. The meeting was well attended and proved to be very successful both spiritually and financially. The amount of money raised this quarter was $1588.70.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Theola Martin and family of Otis Street in the passing of her mother, Mrs. Ida Green of Oxford, N. C.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Joel Norwood, and daughter, Jacqueline, of Fort Benning, Ga., and Amos Norwood of Philadelphia, Pa., were weekend guests of their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Moses R. Norwood of Cecil St.

They were dinner guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Norwood of Oxford, on Sunday, July fourth.

EAST DURHAM NOTES

Mrs. Sophia Powell entertained her husband on his 71st birthday Sunday afternoon, July 4. Helping Mr. Powell celebrate the day were several of his friends. Present were the Rev. and Mrs. McPhatter, Mr. and Mrs. John Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Royster, Mrs. John Bridges, Mrs. Lillie Owens, Mrs. Horace Bridges, Mrs. Charles Bridges, Mrs. Zan Allen, Mrs. Revels, Mr. and Mrs. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Langley, Mrs. Ruby Hargrove, Mrs. Mary Paterson and several children.

The honoree and his guests were served in the dining room of his home in the midst of gay flower decorations. Assisting Mrs. Powell in serving were Mrs. Owens, Mrs. John Bridges, Mrs. Charles Bridges, Mrs. Horace Bridges, and Mrs. Joe Langley.

John W. Lee took the Boys' Community Club to Hillside, Park last Saturday for a picnic. Those motoring to Raleigh for a picnic Monday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. John W. Lee and family, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Bridges and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bridges. Each mother took a picnic basket of food which was served under the shade trees. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Royster, Mrs. Ruth Perry, and others.

Mrs. Vater Lassiter of 511 Odell St., was visited over the weekend by her daughter and son-in-law, from Apex.

Willie Thompson is visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Flowers in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Naomi Goldston and children, Leroy and Gwendolyn, and Miss Rosie Evans, spent the weekend in Norfolk, Va., visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bright Elliott.

Master James Edward Norris Jr. of Greensboro, N. C. spent several days recently with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Norris, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas Norris, Jr. of Greensboro, announced the birth of a son, Dwayne Elliot, June 14 at L. Richardson Hospital. Mrs. Norris is the former Odessa Jeffreys of Greensboro.

Mrs. Ruth S. Torian and Miss Ethel Stanfield have returned to the city after studying at New York University.

Sgt. Noble Jackson of La., who is now stationed at Fort Dix, N. J., visited Robert McCowan recently. While in the city, Sgt. Jackson and Mr. McCowan were dinner guests of Mrs. D. Grandy and daughter.

KID'S SOCIETY

JUNE ROSSER - Editor - Phone 4-5805 ASSOCIATE EDITOR: BETTY JO GOODLOE

Qurelda and John McLendon of George Street are spending their vacation with their dad, Coach McLendon, at Tennessee State College in Nashville, Tenn.

Yvonne Wray is visiting in Huntington, L. I., N. Y. She will spend most of the summer there.

Mary Martin who has been attending school in New Haven, Conn., is back in Durham visiting her mother, Mrs. Winnie Martin of McDougald Terrace. She spent the day Sunday with Sandra Wray.

Jacqueline has returned to Baltimore after a short stay with her parents at 1701 Fayetteville Street.

Nathaniel and Joseph White of Alston Avenue are visiting their grandparents in Baltimore.

Grover Ford of Littleton who visited here last week left for Winston-Salem where he expects to spend the summer.

Elijah Dillahunt of Charlotte is visiting his mother, Mrs. Halie Dillahunt, head nurse at the Infirmary of North Carolina College.

Emmett Brown has gone to Boston to visit his aunt, uncle and cousin. Emmett went by plane and will be in Boston for a month.

Willie and Barbara Edwards spent Monday in Winston-Salem visiting their aunt.

Eleanor Humphrey of Roxboro is the house guest of Jacqueline and Maurice Glenn Natalie Marshall celebrated her eighth birthday Wednesday, June 23, with a few of her neighborhood friends. Those present were Ferne Thorpe, Godfrey and Carriella Herndon, Regina George, Louise George, Maurice Glenn, Jan Stewart and Joyce Page. Games were played in the back yard and refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Natalie received many nice gifts.

This is the last week at Camp Scarborough. The pioneer unit is planning a Camp Fire Program for Friday evening at 7 o'clock. The public is invited. As Fayetteville Road to the camp is closed, visitors are asked to come by Pine Street and Cornwallis Road.

Godfrey Benjamin and Carriella Herndon of Dunbar St., entertained a group of their friends with a weiner roast Saturday, June 26. Those atten-

Miss Dorothy L. Stanfield, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Stanfield, graduated from the John J. Pershing High School, Detroit, Mich. with high honors.

Miss Marjorie N. Norris motored to New York last week to continue her studies at New York University.

Advertisement for Jones Sausage featuring a woman holding a sausage and the slogan 'BUY a pound SERVE a pound!'.

Robert and Chatry Perry are back in the city after spending a most enjoyable week in Richmond, Va., visiting their maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Cephas, Sr. "Bobby" and "Chat" are now making plans to spend the coming week at McKenzie Beach, S. C., to do some surf bathing and fishing.

The 3-2 Grade of Lyon Park School has planned a series of activities for the summer months. On Thursday, July 1, they had a picnic at the Hillside Park. Members of the class attending were Rosa Jones, Dorothy Morgan, Nancy Stepp, Barbara Wade, Cora Mae Cole and Charles Cockerham.

Guests attending the picnic were Jennifer Jean and Benetta Engram of Tallahassee, Fla., Yvonne Crowder of Miami, Fla., Carriella and Godfrey Benjamin Herndon, Sandra Brown, Elaine Artis, Janetta and James Stewart, Noma Alyce Bennett, and Willie Lee Whitley.

The early part of the afternoon was spent swimming and wading in the pools. After the water games, hot dogs were roasted and served with grape and orange drinks. Rides on the swings, merry-go-round and slide ended the afternoon activities. Assisting the children in the afternoon's amusements were Mesdames Evelyn Artis, Otelia Stewart, Elizabeth Herndon, Archie Engram and Alma Bennett.

The Vacation Bible School of the St. Joseph A.M.E. Church made its annual visit to the Long Meadow Dairy Thursday, June 24. An educational tour was made of the plant, after which everybody assembled in the Long Meadow Dairy's auditorium and was served ice cream and chewing gum. The children were given balloons and the adults received salad mixers. The Bible School closed Sunday, June 27 with a program and an exhibition of the benefit of the members. Professor Lindsey played, "Must Jesus Bear The Cross Alone," while the congregation joined in singing. I can truly say that it was a happy moment.

Advertisement for 'GOING TO CHURCH WITH NED-DAVIS' featuring a portrait of Ned Davis.

Last Sunday morning, Dr. W. S. Dacone, delivered the morning message at Clinton Metropolitan A.M.E. Zion Church. Dr. Dacone is president of the Bureau of Evangelism of the A.M.E. Zion Connection. In the process of introducing the speaker of the hour, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Blakey, took time out to commend the congregation on the rapid speed being made on the pipe organ.

Advertisement for Dillard's Self-Service Market featuring 'SPECIALS' like HAMBURGER, lb. 19c, BUTTER BEANS, lb., and Fresh Tomatoes, lb. 19c.

Advertisement for 'A FRIENDLY CHURCH' White Rock Baptist Church, White Rock Square, Miles Mark Fisher, Pastor, Sunday, July 11.

Methodist Group Plans Mammoth Convocation

NASHVILLE, TENN. Representatives from all sections of the African Methodist Episcopal Church will join in a sacred Pilgrimage to Jackson, Miss., for the largest and most significant convocation in the field of religious education in the history of African Methodism. The Congress will meet at Campbell College August 3-6.

Bishop H. Thomas Primm, President H. P. Wilburn of Campbell College, Dr. T. W. Gaines, host pastor, with the leaders of the Eighth Episcopal District promise a cordial welcome, fragrant and congenial atmosphere, and facilities not equaled in any former Congress.

Governor Hugh White of Mississippi and the Mayor of Jackson will bring greetings to the Congress. The list of personalities highlighting the conference will include Dr. Wm. R. Cannon, Dean Candler School of Theology, Emory University, Atlanta, Ga.; Presiding Charles Hill of Wilberforce University; Dr. Archibald J. Carey of Chicago, Alternate Delegate to the United Nations; Dr. V. V. Alexander of the Mar Thoma Orthodox Church of Malabar, India; Dr. Gene Stone, General Secretary of International Society of Christian Endeavor; Dr. A. Wilson Cheek, Executive Secretary, United Christian Youth Movement, National Council of Churches.

The theme "Witnessing For Christ Through Our Vocations" will be reflected through interpretations on the part of youth, and emerging civic and social trends will be pointed out together with their relevance to an atomic age.

Musical Group Sets Concert For Johnson C. Smith

CHARLOTTE - Johnson C. Smith University's summer school will present Garfield Henry's Silvertones in concert July 9 at 12 noon. The Silvertones are a group of well trained and individual artists in a single unit.

According to Dr. Winston R. Coleman, director of summer school, these internationally famous concert artists will present a varied program of music dating from the 18th century to present day modern music, spirituals and work songs. The concert will be held in Advertisement for 'Our Slogan is Courtesy, Quality and Service' Vanity Fair Beauty Salon, Miss S. C. Dorson, Prop., Phone 6-0455, 704 Fayetteville Street.

Advertisement for First Calvary Baptist Church, Sunday, July 11, listing services at 9:30 A.M., 11:00 A.M., 6:00 P.M., and 7:30 P.M.

Advertisement for 'LITTLE OLD MOTHER WELCOMES YOU' Saint Joseph A. M. E. Church, Reverend D. A. Johnston, Pastor, Sunday, July 11, listing services at 9:30 A.M., 11:00 A.M., 6:00 P.M., and 7:00 P.M.

Advertisement for MT. VERNON BAPTIST CHURCH, Rev. E. T. Browne, Pastor, Sunday, July 11, listing services at 9:30 A.M., 11:00 A.M., 6:00 P.M., and 7:30 P.M.