TWRCITY BUSSTRIKE SETTLED

READ THE CAROLINA TIMES, THE LEADING WEEKLY OF THE CAROLINAS. FOR UP-TO-DATE LOCAL, STATE, AND NATIONAL NEWS COVERAGE, PLUS SOUND EDITORIAL COMMENT ON CUR-

For Thirty-One Years The Outstanding Weekly Of The Carolinas

as Second Class Matter at the Pest Office at Durham, North Caroline, under Act of March 3, 1879.

VOLUME 31 — NUMBER 30

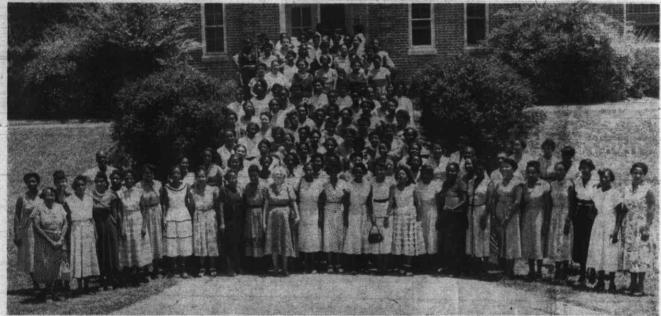

Periodical Dept

DURHAM, N. C. SATURDAY, JULY 24, 1954

THE CAROLINA TIMES HAS BEEN AC-CLAIMED FAR AND NEAR BY ITS READ-ERS FOR PUBLISHING WEEK AFTER WEEK THE MOST THOUGHT-PROVOK. ING EDITORIALS OF ANY WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN AMERICA.

PRICE 10 CENTS

R.R. Segregation Cases Set For July 27 12 Railroads Defendants In

AT NCC READING CLINICS—More than 120 summer students from AT NCC READING CLINICS—More than 120 summer students from four states attended the ninth annual Summer Reading Clinic at North Carolina College which was under the direction of Mrs. Lucy S. Herring. The clinic closed last week with an exhibit held in the Open House in the administration building.

The workshop participants came from 35 North Carolina counties, 15 cities, and the states of Georgia, South Carolina, and Virginia. The clinic was held for a period of six weeks. The entire group is shown here on the dining hall steps at the college prior to their exhibit.

Among the workshop members are Mrs. Clara F. Alexander, Miss Johnett Alexander, Miss Gertude Atkinson, Mrs. Sula B. Alston, J. C. Atwater, Miss Frankie J. Avery, Miss Ruth E. Bailey, Mrs. Virginia R. Barfield, Mrs. Flora Cheek Bethea, Mrs. Grace P. Bethea, Miss Katie M. Bond, Miss Louisa D. Boone, Mrs. Bernice A. Brown, Mrs. Marjorie H. Brown, and Mrs. Ruth B. Brown.

LOUISBURG

Franklin County Prison Camp

ving sentences ranging from

oners managed to saw the bars

Those escaping by scaling fence on the east side of the Finals Speaker Dr. C. E. Boulware, former PTA president, will deliver the nain address when the summer Commencement exercises of Hillside High School are held Friday evening, July 23, at 8 o'clock. Dr. Boulware is a professor of mathematics at North Carolina College and a noted civic worker. Eighteen summer school gra duates will receive diplomas presented by L. Stacy Weaver, superintendent of City Schools at the services which will be held outdoors in the bowl of the school athletic field.

Boulware HHS

Summer School

Invocation will be given by Memorial

ICC Hearings Scheduled

DR. C. E. BOULWARE

pants. Ushers for the evening will be Reynolds Bates, Carolyn Faucette, Shelton Herbin, James Brown, Eugene Green, and Ida

the Rev. Samuel McCoy of the Palmer Memorial Holiness class are John Pilgrim, presiling Gordon, and Barbara Lyon dent; Alma Fogg, secretary; and and the Gulf, Mobile and Ohio, will also be program partici- Dorothy Watson, treasurer. (Please turn to Page Eight) dent: Don Williams, vice-presi-

Warring Factions Of Safe

Bus Company Finally End

Grand Jury Indicts Two Men For

To Start Next Week WASHINGTON, D. C. Hearings on a comprehensive case concerned with compulsory segregation in interstate trans-portation will be held by the Interstate Commerce Commission here on July 27.

The case, brought by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, deals with segregation of interstate passengers by railroads, railroad stations, and restau-rants in railroad stations.

The NAACP filed the com-plaint with the ICC last Dec.

14, asking that "after due hearing and investigation, an order be issued commanding the railroad companies named in railroad companies named in the case "to cease their discriminatory practices against Negro passengers in violation of their constitutional rights."

The railroads against which the complaint is filed are the St. Louis-San Francisco, Louisville and Nashville, Southern. Santa Te, Texas and Pacific, Atlanda Coast Line, Missouri Pac. Seaboard Air Lines

AMEZ General Convention Set For July 31; Walls Keynote Speaker

LOUISVILLE, Ky. Church" will be discussed at the A.M.E. Zion Church's general convention on Christian education, which will draw some 3000 delegates to Louis-ville, Ky., on July 31 for six days of seminars, panels, workshops and exhibits that will keep the entire membership of youth and adult of the denomination alerted to the study and evaluation of the educational services of the A.M.E. Zion con-

"Go...Teach," the conference motto, will keynote all activi-ties, including the general assembly of Christian education directors and college and se-condary school presidents, which meets concurrently.

This quadrennial convention meeting immediately follows the Connectional Council and meeting immediately follows the Connectional Council and Executive Committee sessions of the Women's Home and For-eign Missionary Society.

All eleven A.M.E. Zion Biahops and general officers of the denomination who attend this meeting will stay over for the general convention, with the ex-ception of Bishop Daniel C. Pope, resident bishop of Africa.

Dr. James W. Eichelberger of Chicago, secretary of Christian Education for the denomination and recognized as its most outstanding layman, will address the delegates and Bishop William J. Walls of Chicago, a for-mer pastor and builder of Broadway Temple, and chairman of the A.M.E. Zion board of Christian Education for home and church, will deliver the keynote address.

Bishop Cameron C. Alleyne of Philadelphia, Pa., will preach the general convention sermon; C. Taylor of Montgomery, Ala., will present a special address; and Mrs. Mar-

BISHOP W. J. WALLS

Citizens Named For Ed. Position

Five Negroes of Durham have white persons to fill a vacany City Board of Education which was made recently by the resignation of James M. Slay.

Those recommended for the post are Asa T. Spaulding, Dr. C. E. Boulware, G. W. Cox. J H. Wheeler, Dr. J. T. Taylor, Mrs. C. R. Hauser, and C. B.

Local Negro organization recommending the candidates are the Hillside School PTA, the Durham PTA Council, the Beta Chi Chapter of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, the Beta Theta ontgomery, Ala., will present special address; and Mrs. Mar-rie S. Lyda of Chicago, repre-Durham Committee on Negro Wyche said that the group has Affairs.

Queen City Group Seeks Injunction Against City Airport Restaurant; Charge Unconstitutional Bias

immediately by the City Council of Charlotte to curb the segregated practices existing at a group of Negro citizens of the city will carry their case to the federal courts.

This action was prompted recently when several Negroes were herded off into a small room adjoining the kitchen of the eating establishment to obtain the stable shape of the setting stables and the stables of the setting stables are stables of the setting stables of the setti plane. The injunction will declare that operators of the terminal restaurant are violating. minal restaurant are violating the terms of their lease in re-fusing service to all Negroes on the grounds of the 14th and 15th ed through a cell block window amendments since federal funds and escaped. Officials of the camp stated that how the prislishment.

At a hearing before the City Council, City Attorney John Shaw cited a similar case which arose in Washington, D. C., wherein it was said that all per-sons who are passengers of the airline company must be served indiscriminately. In Shaw's opinion, the operators of the ed to reveal the capture of any restaurant are not violating of the escapees. their lease or the law in refus ing to serve Negroes who are not airline passengers. It is left to the discretion of the proprietors in this instance to decide if persons who are not passen-gers will be served.

Dr. R. A. Hawkins and T H Ourham Committee on Negro Wyche said that the group has no recourse but to take the case Spurgeon Boyce, chairman of to the federal court since the Philadelphia

DR. DAVID D. JONES

tive years to life in prison, saw-

SALISBURY Dr. David D. Jones, president in half was unknown, but confort must have taken quite some time. The break was discovered at approximately 9 p.m. Tuesday. Last reports fail-held at Livingstone College or Friday, July 30 at 12:0'clock noon. Nine seniors will receive the Bachelor's Degree. Dr. W J. Trent, president of Living. stone College, made the an nouncement this week.

Dr. Jones, who is a member building were Eugene Thomas, building were Eugene Thomas, 21 of Virgilina; Charlie C.

Smith, 21 of Enfield; DeWitt
Carpenter, 18, of Norwood; serving a life sentence for burglary; Charles Harris, 24, of Radielgh; and Oscar C. Downey, 28 of Oxford.

Dr. Jones, who is a member of the Greensboro City School Board, was recently awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws by Syracuse University at their 100th commencement. During his 28 years as President of Bennett College, tremendous defendant left the city for N York via Greensboro. He had been made in the Others are Robert Mason of strides have been made in the Durham last month, was indicted for murder this week. The shooting occured while Jackson was enroute to the First Presbyterian Church with Mrs.

Penny riding in his car. A wild week, was the presentation of chase after Jackson by Penny checks totaling $26,850 to the covered several blocks of Durham's Hayti section prior to the incident.

Also indicted this week on a murder charge dating back some 16 years, was Rudy Faucette who calmly gave himself up last week after being in hiding since the pistol slaying of Miss Hattie Patterson.

Police were astounded early last week when Faucette walked into the station and said "I'm Rudy Faucette, I killed a woman here 16 years ago." The ancient files on the case had to be retrieved from the unsolved morgue before the officer o

Faucette's excuse for coming back to Durham was that he had just gotten homesick. Following the shooting in 1938, the defendant left the city for New York via Greensboro. He held Youth Council of the A.M.E. Zion Church, will speak on her experiences as a delegate to the Third World Conference of (Please turn to Page Eight)

Spurgeon Boyce, chairman of to the federal court since the Philadelphia, Willie McNell, 23, of Apex; and James Strickland of Louisburg. All of the prison of Louisburg. All of the prison of Louisburg and Connecticut cities before ed as one of the leading institution of Louisburg and Connecticut cities before ed as one of the leading institution of Louisburg. All of the prison of Louisburg and Connecticut cities before ed as one of the leading institution of Louisburg. All of the prison of Louisburg and Connecticut cities before ed as one of the leading institution of Louisburg and Connecticut cities before ed as one of the leading institution of Louisburg. All of the prison of Louisburg and Connecticut cities before ed as one of the leading institution of Louisburg. All of the prison of Louisburg and Connecticut cities before ed as one of the leading institution of Louisburg and Connecticut cities before ed as one of the leading institution of Louisburg and Connecticut cities before ed as one of the leading institution and Connecticut cities before ed as one of the leading institution and Connecticut cities before ed as one of the leading institution and Connecticut cities before ed as one of the leading institution and Connecticut cities before ed as one of the leading institution and Connecticution and Connecticut cities before ed as one of the leading institution and Connecticution and Connecticutio

Murder; Old Case Revived L'awrence Jackson, defendan in the fatal shooting of John W. Links Donate NAACP $26,850

BLUEFIELD, W. Va. Climaxing the sixth annual assembly of the Links, Inc. last National Association for the Advancement of Colored People

representing life memberships for the various local chapters of the civic-minded national women's organization. Presentation of the sum was made by Mrs. Daisy Lampkins whose proposal two years ago to aid the NAACP through purchase of life memberships was unanimously adopted by the Links at their fourth annual assembly in San Francisco. On behalf of the Association Roy Wilkins, administrator, and Thurgood Marshall, special counsel, accepted the generous contribution to the NAACP Fight for Freedom Fund. The occasion was one of the Four-Months Squabble WINSTON-SALEM Mayor Marshall Kurfees of Winston Salem figured greatly in the settling of the Safe Bus Company strike which rendered some 100 drivers idle for more than four months and caused Negroes of the city a marked disadvantage in traveling to and from their places of work and shopping.

Richard Perry, president of the local transport union, John M. Adams, president of the Safe Bus Company, and other offi-cials met with Mayor Kurfees last week and signed a contract ending the disturbance which in the minimum wage scale.

The Negro owned and opera-ted bus company which is reputed to be the leading business of its kind in the nation, serves both white and Negro citizens of Winston-Salem. The strike Winston-Salem. The strike which began March 5, caused numerous residents of the city who relied on its services to walk long distances, spend excessive amounts of money and time in getting to their respective places of commerce.

In commenting on Mr. Kur-fees' efforts in being the lisson between the company and its workers, Mr. Adams said, "I highly appreciate the hospitality and cooperation shown by Mr. Marshall Kurfees in these happiest of her life, Mrs. Lampkins said at the public meeting attended by some 700 men and women including 200 beautifully gowned delegates from 44 of the Link's 58 chapters.

PROUD OF LINKS
"I am proud," Mrs. Lampkins told the assembly, "that the Links, Inc. had the vision to appreciate the significance of the NAACP and the courage to undertake the project to supplied the supplied of the Mayor in a statement which we could not solve ourselves. We are happy to restore service to our riding public. And we hope they will not be deprived of this service again."

Mr. Marshall Kurfees in these megotiations, along with our own attorney, M. P. Sandridge, who helped solve this problem-which we could not solve our-selves to our riding public. And we hope they will not be deprived of this service again."

Mr. Perry of the iocal CIO Transport Workers U n i o n voiced his sentiments to the Mayor in a statement which