C. E. Boulware and Mrs. Lulu Booker, field executive of the Julia Warren Girl Scout organization.

More than 50 Girl Scouts and other girls from the city attended the camp session which was held for two weeks. The closing was held at the camp with the older girls spending the night and participating in camp fire activities. This was the first year that the girls had the privilege of attending their own camp and enthusiasm is high for a better session next year.

No man can come to me except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.—(St. John 6, 44.)

To know and understand Jesus, as friend, redeemer, saviour, we first must know and understand God the Father. Therefore our prayers should be that we shall be blessed with more and greater understanding and knowledge of God and His Son, thus to gain ever greater strength and faith.
