Lucinda Hargrove, Robert Stewart Wed In Impressive Ceremonies

Miss Lucinda Bernetta Hargrove and Robert Bernice Stewart exchanged nuptial vows here Friday evening, August 6, at her home, 514 S. Elm Street, with the Rev. Miles Mark Fisher, her pastor, officiating.

Prior to the ceremony a program of recorded wedding music was presented by Mrs. Geneva L. Hawkins.

The home was decorated with tall standards holding arrangements of white gladioli and chrysanthemums and altar vases also held white flowers. A background of kentia palms and western fern was interspersed with candelabrum holding cathedral tapers.

Given in marriage by her brother, Maceo R. Hargrove, the bride wore a ballerina length dress of blue nylon lace with rounded neckline and short sleeves. She wore matching gloves and hat, pearl earrings and necklace. She carried a white Bible topped with white satin and centered with a white petalled hybrid orchid, tied with white satin, net ribbons and rose buds.

Mrs. Mary H. Pamplin was matron of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of petal pink Chantilly lace over tulle and satin with a fitted bodice, matching gloves and rhinestone earrings. Her bandeau was of

KID'S SOCIETY

JUNE ROSSER — Editor — Phone 4-5805
ASSOCIATE EDITOR: BETTY JO GOODLOE

Booker Spaulding, with his dad, went to New York for a few days' vacation. While in New York Booker saw the Brooklyn Dodgers play twice. He also went to Coney Island and saw several shows.

Patricia Bullock is spending some time in Detroit, Michigan, visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Bullock.

Jane and Arthur Johnson are visiting their relatives in Gastonia. Their mother accompanied them.

Willie Jay and Jannett Walker motored to New York with their mother and dad Friday. They plan to spend several days sightseeing.

Gregory Kyle visited his grandparents in St. Louis and gives some of the highlights of his trip:

"I went to St. Louis, Mo., for my vacation. While I was there I went to a ball game. It was a very good game. The Cardinals played against the Dodgers. Wally Moon's grand slam homer was the highlight of the game. He hit it when the Dodgers were ahead 4-0 in the seventh inning. After that, the game saw-sawed back and forth. The Dodgers scored 2 runs in the ninth to win. Moon's blast was the only Cardinal homer. For the Dodgers, Sand Amoros, Duke Snider and Junior Gilliam hit home runs.

"While in St. Louis, I went to Cherokee Cave, where I saw stalagmites, and stalactites. There was quicksand in the cave. Part of it was 80 feet under ground. I also went to the Fox Theatre which is the largest theatre west of the Mississippi. There were two comedies showing: Francis Joins the Wacs, and a crazy picture, Fireman Save My Child.

"The day before we left, I went to the open-air Municipal Opera. 'Where's Charley' was being presented. That is the musical opera version of 'Charley's Aunt.'

The next morning we left for home, stopping overnight on the campus of Kentucky State College. I liked the vacation very much."

Ina and Bernard Fletcher of D2 Fayetteville Road are visiting relatives in Ohio, Indiana, and Michigan. Ina also enjoyed two happy weeks at Daisy Scarborough Camp. Ina and Bernard both have made many new friends while visiting and they are having a wonderful time.
