

Eagles Beat Falcons; Aggies Defeat Allen Univ.

North Carolina College scored in the first, third, and fourth quarters here Saturday to defeat St. Augustine's College 25-0 in a CIAA opener for both teams.

For NCC, the defending conference champions, the victory was a fifth straight for Herman Riddick's forces over R. D. Moore's game but outclassed Falcon eleven.

Amos Thornton, NCC's all-American halfback, dashed 49 yards on the opening kick-off to set the stage for the Eagles' first tally. However, it looked like early disaster when a pass heaved by Al Montgomery, NCC quarterback and intended for Charley Floyd, end, was intercepted on the St. Augustine's 20 by James Giles, Falcon back.

A costly clipping penalty put the ball on the Falcons' 5. Wilson McDowell, trying to kick out of the difficulty, was rushed by a fast charging Eagle forward wall that pressed hard all afternoon and the kick carried only to the visitors' 14.

The slippery little Thornton ripped off five yards and Fred Ponder, NCC's 195 pound senior fullback from Bartlesville, Okla., bulled through for eight yards and later plunged over from the one for the touchdown. Jerome Evans, NCC righthalfback and co-captain, was rushed by a horde of Falcons and the attempt for the extra point miscarried.

The Eagles dominated much of the play during the first period but frequent penalties apparently growing in considerable part out of the first game roughness, nullified the frequent gains their superior ground game gave them. Falcons didn't make a 1st down in the 1st quarter.

In the second quarter, the Falcons kept possession of the ball much of the time, and they managed to pick up four first downs, three by rushing and one via passing. The visitors' leading ground gainer was Ronald Washington, 21 year old senior back from Atlantic City.

The Eagles revived late in the second quarter. Bob Price, NCC alternate quarterback, handed off to Thornton, who was quickly surrounded by the entire Falcon forward wall. Thornton managed a neat lateral to Evans, who behind some splendid downfield blocking, drove 44 yards as the gun sounded for the end to the half, as the ball was in play on the St. Augustine's 18. The first half ended with NCC leading 6-0.

In the third quarter, NCC's Montgomery punted to the Falcons' 12. Sam McGuire, Raleigh senior quarterback, was hit hard and fumbled. Claude Mayfield, senior Eagle tackle, recovered on the visitors' 2. Leon Holly, alternating at fullback with Ponder and James Baker, the b. Raleigh lad, went off tackle for the touch down. Doral Webster, Raleigh frosh guard, converted, and the Eagles led, 13-0.

from Hickory, who was Thornton's replacement, knifed through for seven yards, Ponder fought his way to eight more yards. Oscar Turner, Evans' understudy, picked up

Ralph Curry, freshman back five yards on one try and later crashed over the goal-line from the one yard stripe for the touch down. Webster's extra point effort was wide.

For the Eagles' second fourth quarter score, Montgomery intercepted Elridge's pass on the Falcons' 47 and sprinted to the 22. The fleet Curry garnered 13 yards, Turner three more, Pice picked up five, and for the final Eagle score, Price sneaked over from the one yard line. Webster again failed to convert.

GREENSBORO

The A & T Aggies unleashed a high powered scoring attack last Saturday night in defeating Allen University of Columbia S. C., 33-0, here at Memorial Stadium.

An estimated crowd of near 7,000 saw Lonnie Hall, Aggie quarterback all but pass the visitors out of the stadium. Many were school youngsters, guests of the college in the Kid's Night celebration.

Hall pitched four touchdown passes and completely mystified the opposition with his magical gyrations as the field general. The Aggies hit pay dirt, in the first play of the second quarter as Lonnie Hall, the little magician quarterback hit Jack Cuthrell, A and T end, with a jump pass from the 10 yard line. He bounced off two tacklers and fell into the end zone. The drive started from the Aggie 40 yard line and featured runs of 20 yards by Walter Parker and 16 by Frank Johnson. Johnson's attempt from placement was low.

The Aggie held on to the narrow 6-0 lead for the remainder of the half, but was required to stop the determined South Carolinians in a goal line stand in the last minute of the stanza. Allen had recovered a fumble on the A and T 40 yard line. James Curry, their speedy halfback ripped off a 25 yard jaunt. This coupled with two short passes to Ernest Jones and Willie Simon gave the visitors a first down on the Aggie 10 to be interrupted by a costly fumble.

The Aggies scored their second TD, with just four plays in the first two minutes after the start of the half as Hall hit Frank Johnson with a 34 yard pass who drove over the remaining six yards. Lawrence Payne split the uprights for the extra point for a 18-0 lead.

Before the jubilant Aggie fans had settled in their seats A and T had scored a third time. Covering an Allen fumble on the latter's 32 yard stripe, Hall shot a 27 yard aerial to Lawrence Payne, Aggie Halfback who ran the remaining 3 yards. Spencer Gwynn converted from placement to give the Aggies a 20-0 lead.

Just before the end of the third period, the Aggies had hit pay dirt for their fourth touchdown. Hall, the Aggie field general heaved a 36 yard pass to John Cuthrell, A and T end, who raced the remaining 8 yards for the score. Johnson's kick for the extra point was wide leaving the count at 26-0.

Howard Battle, Aggie substitute quarterback, threw a 20 yard pass to Johnson who raced the remaining 22 yards for the fifth tally. The drive began on the Allen 41 yard line. Battle kicked the extra point to put his team out front, 33-0, the final score.

Easily the star for the Aggies was Hall who had a field day with his fine passing which hit for four of his team's touchdowns, and who kept the defense off balance all evening as he mixed his plays cleverly. Sharing offensive honors were his teammates, John Cuthrell and Frank Johnson on the end of his passes, and Walter Parker who electrified the crowd with long runs. Best on defense for the Aggies were Arthur Jones and Henry Joseph, tacklers.

Best for the South Carolinians were Ernest Jones and Wilson Bickley, who were threats all during the game. They ran all over the Aggies between the 20 yard lines.

Tennessee State Triumphs Over Virginia Trojans

PETERSBURG, Va. The stubborn Virginia State College "Trojans" were finally beaten by the equally stubborn Tennessee State "Tigers" 18-0 before a crowd of 3500 in Rogers Stadium, Etick, Virginia today.

The "Trojans forward wall led by tackle Norman Day of East Orange, New Jersey, guard Norman Hill of Newark, N. J., tackle Chuck Williams of Brad-dock, Pennsylvania and guard Albert Smith of Rahway, New Jersey, held the "Tigers at bay the first half.

Meanwhile, the Lawson coached "Trojans launched on offense of their own in the first half. Midway in the opening period they took over on their 14 and marched 81 yards to the "Tigers" 5. Quarterback and Co-Captain Freeman of Washington, D. C. spearheaded the "Trojans' attack with passes to end William Barrett and halfback John Christian, both of Beckly, West Va. The attack fizzled as a result of a fumble and an off-side penalty.

The "Trojans missed another golden scoring opportunity when halfback Nate Smith of Rahway, New Jersey took a hand-off from quarterback Freeman on his 22 and galloped 64 yards to the Tennessee 14. But halfback Fay Mitchell of Memphis, Tenn. intercepted a Freeman pass on the "tigers" 5 and carried it out to the 19, thus ending the "Trojans final scoring threat.

After the first half, the "Tigers" crafty quarterback Fred Valentine of Memphis, Tenn., recovered a fumble on the "Trojans 37. Led by halfback Sid Cummings of Gary, Indiana and Lee Derrick of Chattanooga, Tenn., the "Tigers stuck to the ground and scored their first touchdown on a two-play plunge by Derrick. The conversion attempt by Dorsey Sims of Tulsa, Okla., was missed.

In the opening moments of the fourth quarter, fullback

James Green of Greensboro, N. C., intercepted a "Trojan pass on the Trojan 26 yard line. Running plays carried it down to the 10. The passing combination of Valentine to Jamison resulted in their second touchdown. Dorsey Sims, conversion attempt this time was blocked.

The "Tigers" concluded their scoring in the closing moments of the fourth quarter. Forced to punt from their 37 on fourth down, Trojan halfback, Herb Burrell of Washington, D. C. received a bad pass from center Everett Christmas of Montclair, N. J. Burrell was forced to down the ball inside his five. After being thwarted on the first two plays Tiger halfback Fay Mitchell cracked off his left side to score.
