Liberian Head Backs Free Press Negro Republic

MONROVIA, LIBERIA
President Tubman's great personal concern with the development of a strong, free press in Liberia is demonstrated in a recent incident when vandals broke into the premises of THE FRIEND, a newspaper critical of his Administration, and caused considerable destruction to type and press equipment.

Condemning the act and ordering the Department of Justice to take the necessary steps to apprehend the culprits, President Tubman authorized a $4,000 award to anyone instrumental in the apprehension of the felons.

In a personal note to the distressed editor, the President wrote: "If your printing press has been damaged to the extent that it cannot be used at the present time, I can place at your service, free of cost, one of the Government Printing Office presses to be used by you freely for civic, political or any other service within the law that you may desire, until you can have your press repaired or a new one purchased."

New York To Honor School Suit Lawyers

NEW YORK
This city's first formal observance of the legal end of public school segregation will honor the attorneys and social scientists who prepared the case against segregated schools for the Supreme Court.

At the observance on Oct. 3, tribute will be paid to the NAACP legal staff and the volunteer attorneys and social scientists associated with the staff in preparation of the school case. All proceeds from the event, sponsored by the New York chapter of the Girl Friends, Inc., will go to the NAACP and its Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc.

Thurgood Marshall, special counsel who successfully argued the case for integrated public schools before the Supreme Court, will be introduced to the assemblage by Mayor Robert F. Wagner, honorary chairman of the sponsoring committee for the observance.

Among members of the sponsoring committee expected to be present at the observance are Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, top-ranking American in the United Nations; Duke Ellington, bandleader and composer; W. Averell Harriman, former ambassador to Great Britain and the Soviet Union; James Egert Allen, director of the New York division of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History; Mrs. Lillian Ashe, president of the United Parents Association; Congressman Jacob K. Javits; Louis E. Martin and Mrs. Jessie M. Vann, publishers of the Chicago Defender and Pittsburgh Courier, respectively; and Jacob S. Potofsky, president of the Amalgamated Clothing

GOING TO CHURCH WITH NED DAVIS

An old-fashioned revival held at the Clinton Metropolitan Church was a big success. The services were conducted by the Reverend Mr. Blakey, the pastor, and without denominational emphasis. He was assisted on Thursday night by the Rev. G. W. Hunter who did the preaching. Several singing groups rendered music during the week. The meeting closed on September 26, at which time our Women's Day Drive was held. Four new members joined the church during the week. We made a professional call on P. C. Phillips, director of the Meckleburg County Domestic Relations and Juvenile Court, during the week. Phillips is the first member of our group to hold this position. He has done a splendid job during the time he has served as director.

EDGECOMBE CITIZENS PROTEST FREEING OF BRUTAL SLAYER

TARBORO
A group of Edgcombe citizens met in a special protest meeting at the Union Baptist Church here last week to register their displeasure at the action of the grand jury at the September term of court, in failing to return a true bill of indictment in the case of the death of one Richard Collins, age 27, who was alleged to have been shot by Johnny Clyde Moore, 27 year old white man. Moore, claimed he caught Collins trespassing upon the property of a neighbor and that of his (Moore's) own on May 18.

Collins was said to have been shot in the chest at a distance of about 20 feet, after he allegedly failed to obey Moore's order to "hold it". Coroner J. G. Ruby, said Moore stated "I told him to hold it and when he started to move again, I shot him."

Three Durham attorneys were here for the meeting called by Dr. M. A. Ray, local NAACP proxy. They were attorneys Conrad O. Pearson, Legal Redress Chairman, N. C. Conference; E. H. Gadsen, and Wm. A. Marsh. Pearson outlined a procedure for the group to follow in arousing local interest in the case and in registration and voting techniques. Several citizens spoke on the Collins case; some expressing optimism over the ultimate outcome.

With a Negro population of 55 percent in the county, Pearson reminded the audience that the solution to their problems lies in the building up of a large voting population within the race. He urged citizens to make the necessary sacrifices needed to enlist these voters. Among the more active local NAACP officials are: Dr. Ray, Mrs. B. G. Burnett, Miss Addie Lawrence, Mr. Jernagin, Miss Janie Petway, Mrs. Luella W. James and Miss Hammonds.

history of the University, he brought out that the first four year medical school in this country was established at Shaw.
Dr. Toney advised the students to begin at Shaw to "Learn To Act as Citizens of the Greatest Democracy—With No Limitations To Your actions." He said that certain conditions to be fulfilled by the student himself are: 1. Remove prejudices from his heart; 2. Learn the government where he lives; 3. Be determined to help select the best possible people to govern this country; 4. Prepare for any position in the United States.
