KID'S SOCIETY

JUNE ROSSER — Editor — Phone 4-5805
ASSOCIATE EDITOR: BETTY JO GOODLOE

June Rosser and her aunt, Miss Fannie B. Rosser, are in Minneapolis, Minnesota, with June's aunt, Mrs. Pansy Barnett, who is ill. June and Miss wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Royal, of Mount Olive, spent the week-end with their sister, Mrs. Blanche Williams on Apex Rd.

The Rev. and Mrs. S. P. Cook and daughter, Rebecca, of Kittrell, attended the funeral services of Mrs. Ethel Bagley, on last Sunday at Kyles Temple Church. Rev. Cook delivered the eulogy. Afterwards they were dinner guests of Mrs. Lonnie McKinnie on Dunstan St.

Mrs. Corine Davis of Large St., won first prize at the Durham County Fair for Needle Work.

Rev. George Tharrington, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Williams and E. D. Barnes, were dinner guests on last Sunday of Mrs. Daisy Turner of Fayetteville Rd.

Rosser will stay indefinitely. They left Friday morning by bus, on which they traveled to Lynchburg where they spent the night. They took the train from there to Minneapolis.

Linda Rose and James Madison Hubbard III, spent six weeks in East Hartford, Conn., with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Carter. They had an enjoyable time and met lots of little girls and boys.

Happy birthday to Marsha Goodwin who celebrated her twelfth birthday on October 3.

Debbie O'Neal, daughter of Attorney and Mrs. Samuel O'Neal of Mutual Drive, recently visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Boulware, in Charlotte.

Warren Wheeler whose birthday was October 1, celebrated it with glee when he got his bicycle.

Benjamin and Kenneth Montgomery, returned home in time for school, after spending two months in Savannah, Ga., where they visited their paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Philpot. They visited the beach in Jacksonville, Fla., and spent a week in Sanderville, Georgia. An interesting experience as well as a new one for them was the crabbing trip they took. They caught several, and their grandmother made them a delicious crab gumbo.

Elaine and Perry Lambeth have moved from their home on Hamlin Street to a brand new home at 310 Pekoe Street. They moved in Monday.

William Earl Williams spent a quiet birthday at home with his family. His birthday was September 30; he was thirteen years old.

PUPILS OF THE DAY.

Chamberlin Studio, directed by Mrs. M. S. Shearin, has started giving honor to the pupils with the highest marks of the day. For the following days they were: Beth Carnegie and Clementine Smith, Saturday; Velda White, Monday; Evelyn Marshall, Tuesday; Sheryl Strayhorn, Wednesday; Anita Parker and Winifred Richardson, Thursday. Aubrey Hubbard celebrated his fifth birthday on Saturday, October 2, at "The Children's House." Over fifty children attended the party and made the occasion one long to be remembered. After enjoying playground and musical games, the children joined in singing "Happy Birthday" to Aubrey. Ice cream, cake and lollipops were served. Upon leaving, each child was given his favorite brand of candy cigarettes. Aubrey received many useful and lovely gifts.

A dinner party was held in honor of Plassie Boyd from Newark, New Jersey. Guests at the party were Charles Mitchell, Mary Mitchell, Steve Gilmore, Ellis Allen, Jr., Aaron Allen, Geraldine Horton, Deborah Cloyce Lassiter, and Michael Holland. The party was given by Mrs. Veora Bynum of Dupree Street. Plassie left Saturday with her uncle by train for Newark.

Editor's Note: In the absence of June Rosser, editor of Kids Society, persons with news items for the column may call Betty Jo Goodloe, associate editor, on Saturday or Sunday or after school on week days. Her number is 6-771.
