Leave for New York
 Mrs. Sara A. Johnson of E. Elm Street left Sunday night for New York City to visit with her niece, Dr. Amey Mills Winters, who is hospitalized there.

Mrs. and Mrs. Jerome Branche and mother Mrs. Emily Branche of Warrenton spent the weekend in the city as guests of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Smith of Nelson Street.

The Branches also attended the Basketball Tournament which was held here.

Mrs. Ethel Hill's weekend guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Chippey of Lynchburg, Virginia and State College, Orangeburg, South Carolina. Mrs. Davis Douglas and Toney Fleming of Fayetteville, North Carolina and New York City, were weekend guests of Mrs. Ethel Hill and her son William. Mr. Fleming appeared in the Broadway production of Carmen Jones and at Radio City with Milton Berle in "Spring in a Milzon."

The Housewives League met at the home of Mrs. Clara Stroud on Club Boulevard. The meeting was opened by the President, Miss Sarah C. Dotson. After the Business session, we were served a delicious repast. The Valentine color scheme was carried out; it was beautiful. Those present were: Mesdames Iola Goss, Clara Stroud, Elizabeth Cole, Mamie Smith, Johnnie Mae Barnes, Jessie Davidson, Classie Brown, Callie Day, Ollie White, Magnolia D. Leak, Sarah C. Dotson. We had two new members to join in the persons of Mrs. Classie Brown and Mrs. Jeneater Jackson, whose husband is the Assistant Manager of WSCR Broadcasting Station. The meeting closed with the Mizpah, and an expression of gratitude to the Hostess by Mrs. Mamie Smith. Miss Sarah C. Dotson, President; Mrs. Barnes, Secretary.

The Ladies Aid Society of St. Joseph's A.M.E. Church met in February, in the lounge of the Educational Building. The president, Mrs. Estelle Nixon, presided. At this meeting plans were made for the Sunday night program to be presented March 27, 1955.

Mrs. G. A. Winslow, chairman and her committee selected for the theme: "Unity in Service," which the members approved. Following other items of business the hostesses, Mrs. G. A. Winslow, Miss Bettye Atwater and Mrs. Beatrice White, served a delicious repast. The next meeting will be held Mar.

Flowers Shown In Dahlia Club Meet

Miss Lillie Rogers of 920 Fourth Street was hostess to the Dahlia Garden Club Tuesday night, February 22nd. A routine business session was held with Miss Rogers, the president, in charge. Each member of the Club brought an original pot of flowers which was displayed on the dining room table. Mrs. Ruth McCowan instructed the members on how to grow Sweet Alysium in a spool. This was followed by a demonstration from Miss Rogers of making geraniums from nylon paper. Each person made several petals for the plant. The completed arrangement was presented to Mrs. Hannah Hinson as a gift for her new home on the Cook Road. It was suggested the group will make corsages at the next meeting. During the social hour delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to the following members: Miss Victoria Moore, Mrs. Geneva Love, Mary Moore, Ruth McCowan, Lythia Brewer, Annie Mangum, Clara Stroud, Lillie Vickers, Hannah Hinson, Callie Day, Louise Thompson. At the close of the meeting, each member selected a sick person to give their potted arrangement.

Founding Of Sorority Celebrated

Alpha Zeta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority celebrated the founding of the Sorority with a closed banquet, which was held at the Algonquin Tennis Club on Saturday, Feb. 19th. Places were laid, four at a table, with place cards in the form of ceramic ash trays, in the sorority colors of salmon pink and apple green.

The menu was well prepared and well served. The following sorors enjoyed the fellowship: Barbara Cooke, Betty Scurock, Ruth Gilliam, Bernice Plummer, Jessie Kerney, Olga Barksdale, Rose Butler Brown, Elizabeth Young, Addie Bailey, Ruth Easley, Marion Parham, Joyce Harrison, Evelyn Johnson, Wilhelmina Carrington, Artella Bryant, Geraldine Alston, Mable Beale, Edna Lambeth, Carol Bowle, Bernardine Bailey, Lola Riddick, Althea Holmes, Hilda Johnson, Josie Pittman, Beatrice Burnett, Grace Massey, Pauline Newton, Selena Wheeler, Elizabeth Pratt, Felicia Holmes, Florice Holmes, Hattie Scarborough, Lucille Hancock and Frances Egleson.

The rededication service was led by Soror Beatrice Burnett. The Sorors congratulated the Committee for a job well done.

The White Rock Baptist Church Usher Board held their regular monthly meeting with Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Noel, 414 Cecil Street. The highlight of the meeting is to prepare to raise funds for the Oxford Orphanage and Educational Fund. The members present were as follows: Raymond Williams, E. Dunn, Willie Hannah, Louis Jones, Samuel Jordan, Arthur Brown, C. B. Noel, Sr., Fred Frazier, Lewis Ewing, Odell Fields and C. B. Noel, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Noel serving a very nice menu.

President, Lonnie Frazier Secretary, Odell Fields

During the month of January and February the Neighborhood Club of Price Street vicinity met at the following homes, Mrs. Grizzelle Bailey on Linwood Street, Mrs. Elmira Flintall on Price Street, Mrs. Rosa Fortune on Linwood Street.

The President, Mrs. Annie Dunegan, and Vice President, Mrs. Elmira Flintall, presided over the meeting.

All of the hostesses proved to be very charming and hospitable. Mrs. Fortune presented the club a valentine cake, and ice cream, and valentine cards which were very heart warming.

Those present were Mesdames, Rosa Fortune, Hazel McBroom, Mavis Brewington, Truemilla Smith, Lucy Holloway, Fidelia Brooks, Annie Corpening, Annie Johnson, Janie Moore, Rosebud Branch, Georgia Fellers, Mary Tilley, Hastie Price, Carrie Burch, Mary Bolland, Elmira Flintall and Miss Annie Dunegan.

KID'S SOCIETY

JUNE ROSSER - Editor - Phone 4-5805
 ASSOCIATE EDITOR: BETTY JO GOODLOE

Gloria and Howard Hill of Garland, formerly from Durham, spent the week end in the city.

The Girl Scouts of Troop 55 presented a program: Scenes from the Life of Juliet Low, Friday, February 25, at 3:00 P. M. at the North Carolina Mutual Forum. The narrator was Joyce Ann Smith. Other Girl Scouts participating were: Bennie Booker, Betty Jo Goodloe, Majorie Lennon, Elaine Lambeth, Alma Greene, Doris Schooler, Sheryl Schooler, Elizabeth Jones, Catherine Pratt, Evelyn Kennedy, Joycelyn McKissick, Marsha Goodwin, Doris Jones, and Carol Whitley.

A movie on the Revolution was shown at Whitted School chapel exercises Tuesday, Feb. 22, in honor of George Washington's Birthday.

Beryl and Joe Sansom of Winston-Salem were among the children seen at the CIAA Basketball Tournament.

The Fun Club of the Stanford L. Warren Library has two new members: Elaine Lambeth and Barbara Fairly.

The Happy Club met at the home of Doris and Sheryl Schooler on Saturday, Feb. 26. It was decided that the club would continue to work towards a carnival in the spring. Refreshments consisted of sandwiches, potato chips, orange twists and drinks. Members present were Helen Davis, Marsha Goodwin, Willa Jaye and Jeanette Walker, Evelyn Kennedy, and Alexine Miller. Willa Jaye Walker was elected Sergeant-at-Arms. Alexine ("Chubby") Miller was elected Green Stamp Saver. The next meeting is to be at the home of Willa Jay and Jeanette Walker.

Lambda Chapter of the Tau Gamma Sorority presented a talent program at Hillside High School on Monday evening, February 21. Children who won prizes are as follows: First Prize, $50.00, Michael Tucker, who played three instruments simultaneously; the piano, clarinet and musical saw. Second Prize, $25.00, Sam Scott, Jr., who played "Rhapsody in Blue" on the piano. Third prize, $15.00, Marsha Goodwin, who danced. Carol Holmes also did a dance number. Children from the Scarborough Nursery and from the Children's House participated and received Honorable Mention.

Adele and Gloria McLaughlin, with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McLaughlin, spent the week end in Morehead City, North Carolina, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hill. They saw much of the damage done by Hazel on the coast. They also visited the State Park at Fort Macon. This Fort was built in the years 1826-1834, a period of eight years, by three hundred men. The gun emplacements overlook a deep moat, and under the fort are water-filled dungeons. During the War Between the States, Union forces destroyed this eight-year work of 300 men in a matter of days. The Fort was later restored and a state park created there.

Church Drive Continues

Friday night, March 4th, at 8:00 p.m., the Asbury Temple Methodist Church, located at Braswell and Wabash Streets, is rendering a very special service to the community and to all Durhamites in the continuation of its Evangelistic and Church Attendance Crusade.

The Guest Speaker will be Dr. A. R. Howard of Nashville, Tennessee. Dr. Howard is a member of the Board of Temperance of Methodist Churches.

Also the Rev. Harold Roland, a member of the local Board of Alcoholics Anonymous will deliver a special message on Alcoholism. Plan now to hear these speakers. Music will be furnished by the Church Choir.
