Dr. and Mrs. Alex M. Rivera Sr., of Yonkers, New York have returned home after spending a few days in Durham visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Rivera Jr., of Fayetteville Street, and their sister, Miss Chat Rivera of Umstead Street. On Sunday, May 16, there was held a "Rivera Reunion," when the following families assembled here to visit with Dr. and Mrs. Rivera: Mr. and Mrs. George Rivera of Rockingham; Mr. and Mrs. Percy Rivera and daughter Elizabeth and grand daughter Loretta of Winston-Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Yokeley and sons, Ronald and Clarence Waddy of High Point.

Mrs. Willie Reid of Wadesboro has returned home after spending a few days here visiting with her brother, Richard Dunlap, Sr., who is a patient at Lincoln Hospital.

Richard Dunlap, Jr., of New York City and his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Glover of Brooklyn, N. Y. arrived in Durham last week to be at the bedside of their father and brother, Richard Dunlap, Sr.

Dr. and Mrs. Emir Duany of New York City motored to Durham last Thursday and will spend a week or ten days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Williams, 1612 Fayetteville Street. Mrs. Duany is the former Miss Margaret Williams.

Mrs. Josie Rich is a patient at Lincoln Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Smith Jr., of Umstead Street motored to Charlotte on Thursday, May 19, to attend the dinner and reception given in honor of Mr. A. E. Spears, Sr., retiring manager of the Charlotte District of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company.

The Psi Tau Mu Chapter of the Alpha Chi Pi Omega Sorority met at the home of Soror Mable Burnette, 1006 Lynchburg Street. The meeting was called to order by the Basileus. After a brief business session, a report was given of the convention convening at San Antonio, Texas, and Mexico City. During the social hour we were served a delicious repast by the hostesses. Those present were: Soror Earle S. Grandy, Iola Goss, Magnolia S. Leake, Thelma W. Hill, Callie B. Daye, Bonnie L. Reid, Piccola F. Jones, Alice Payne, and Mable Burnette.

The meeting adjourned to meet with Soror Callie Daye, Monday, June 13. Mrs. Eadie Grandy is Basileus.

Ceramic Artist Presented
Friday evening at 8 p.m. the Annie Alston Circle of the Covenant Presbyterian Church on Lincoln Street, presented Charles J. Brown, Ceramic Artist, born in Charlotte 21 years ago.

His beautiful work astonished the audience—they were really things of beauty.

Mrs. Almada C. Spears, president of the Circle, was Mistress of Ceremonies, and presented the artist. Mr. Brown had samples of all kinds of beautiful designs of his work, such as ash trays, lamps—all shades and sizes, flower pots and serving trays. These may be ordered by contacting Mrs. A. E. Spears Jr., A-2 Park Lane, Durham. Punch, sandwiches and accompaniments were served. The refreshment table was covered with a white table cloth and held a center piece of colorful Gladioli. Mrs. J. W. Smith Jr., and Miss Myrtle Taylor, presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Barbara Avant, and Mrs. Lucille Coon, were Co-Chairmen of the Refreshment Committee. Mrs. Ann W. Mayer, made the beautiful floral arrangements used throughout the auditorium, and joined with Mrs. Marjorie Smith and Mrs. Zola Womble as members of the Steering Committee. "Annie Alston" members were active throughout the auditorium, graciously greeting and serving their guests. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all present.

The Senior Missionary Circle of the Union Baptist Church on Roxboro Street will present a special musical and inspirational program on Sunday, May 29 at 3 o'clock. Good music and a good speaker are special features of the program.

Come and enjoy the program, see the new church—enjoy the fellowship with friends.

Mrs. Pauline Hart is sponsoring the program.

Mrs. Cotton Entertains
Mrs. Effie Cotton was hostess to the Azalea Garden Club in her lovely home, 708 Carroll Street. Beautiful spring flowers

Mrs. Cotton had as guests two of her sisters of Chapel Hill, Mrs. Geneva Nichols and Mrs. Edna Chavis, and her niece, Mrs. Effie Jones and Mrs. Wilma Covington. Members present were: Mesdames Lou Barnes, Roxie Davis, Virgie Davis, Sallie Harris, Alease Herrod, Julia Lucas, Charlotte Miller, Margaret Marsh, Gladys McNeil, Hazel McBroom, Baneta Peole, Annie Perry, Lena Richardson, Thomasina Register, Janie Wheeler, Maryland McCollum, Elna Tutt, Mabel Mabry, Rebecca Clark, Cornelia Johnson, Misses Geneva Richardson, Cleo Russell, and Mary B. Baines. Mrs. Roxie Rowland, an honorary member was present and made helpful and encouraging remarks.

A pleasant social hour was then enjoyed, during which time, Mrs. Cotton served a most delicious barbecued chicken dinner with all the trimmings, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Adjournment was then in order and the next meeting will be with Mrs. Roxie Davis, 2005 Otis Street.

Mrs. Julia Harris Speaks
Sunday morning, May 15, at the Algonquin Tennis Club, the Psi Tau Mu Chapter of the Alpha Chi Pi Omega Sorority and the Delta Chi Eta Chapter of Raleigh had its Annual Dawn Breakfast. We had as our guest speaker, Mrs. Julia Harris, an Instructor of English at NCC. We shall long remember the beautiful and impressive talk she gave us on "Dawn" and the "receipt." At 10:30 we motored to Chapel Hill to worship at the First Baptist Church, Rev. J. R. Manley, Pastor. After the sermon we were served a delicious dinner at the home of Mrs. Johnson, 607 Church Street.

The Hostesses were Sorors Marjorie Page and Gertrude Flick. Three Pledges were initiated and joined in the gala affair. They were Mrs. Mozelle Mitchell, Mrs. Susie Weaver and Mrs. Classie Brown. Beautiful gifts went to the following persons—Mrs. Julia Harris, guest speaker, Soror Callie B. Daye and soror Perry, Basileus of the Delta Chi Eta Chapter of Raleigh.

Mrs. Katie T. Taylor has returned to Washington, D. C. after spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Tapp of 1033 Cornell Street.

Mr. and Mrs. William King, Miss Carolyn Love and Leonard Ross of Washington, D. C. spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Tapp of 1033 Cornell St.

Entertains Charmalettes and Husbands
Mrs. Geraldine Butler entertains the Charmalettes and Husbands at the clubs regular meeting. A very short business meeting was held. After the meeting, the group enjoyed games and prizes were given to winners. A very delicious meal was served by the hostess. The Charmalettes and their Husbands are: Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Credle, Mr. and Mrs. Golan Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. Waverly Easley, Dr. and Mrs. Lincoln Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Woodard, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Spears, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Tapp, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Woodard, Mr. and Mrs. Pinchback.

La Fleur Garden Club
On Monday evening, May 9, Mrs. Nellie Toole and Mrs. Naomi Thorpe were hostesses to the La Fleur Garden Club at the home of Mrs. Toole on Peckoe Street. The garden gate was opened by singing the Club Song, "Thank God for a Garden." Each member gave a Bible verse and the Lord's Prayer was said in unison. The minutes of the last meeting were read, received and approved. Mrs. Gladys Rhodes, president, presided over the business session of the meeting.

Mrs. Eleanor Lloyd gave a helpful article on the growth and care of the Abella, a blooming shrub. Members present were Mesdames, Lucinda Harris, Naomi Thorpe, Gladys Rhodes, Marie Pittman, Mable Davis, Evelyn Dudley, Estelle Freeland, Gladys Swift, Lydia Wray, Juanita Page, Eleanor Lloyd, and Marion Henry. Mrs. Henry thanked the hosesses for an enjoyable evening and the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Beatrice White on Linwood Avenue, June 8th.

On Sunday, May 8, the A and B. Circle met at the home of Mrs. Lillian McKay on Dunstan Street with Mrs. Elveta Monroe serving as hostess. The devotionals were conducted by Mrs. Lucille Starks followed by Bible quotations by all beginning with the letter "M." President McKay presided over the business session. While enjoying the social hour refreshments were served the following members: Mesdames, Martha Armstrong, Alease McKinnie, Mary Taylor, Lubertha Bule, Queen Ester Toon, Carrie Saunders, Theresa Hall, Virginia Pitchford and Mrs. Mable Powell. The group adjourned to meet next with Mrs. Pitchford on Fayetteville Road.

KID'S SOCIETY

JUNE ROSSER — Editor — Phone 4-5805
ASSOCIATE EDITOR: BETTY JO GOODLOE

Kids Society welcomes to Durham Howard Arnold Fitts, who was born May 5, weighing six and a half pounds. Congratulations to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fitts of Formosa Avenue.

Mrs. Grace Arrington of Baltimore, Maryland spent a few days here in the city visiting relatives and friends. Mrs. Arrington is a constant visitor to Durham on Mother's Day where she paid tribute to her deceased mother, Mrs. Hassie Norwood; formerly of Colfax St. She is also cousin of Mrs. Mabel Powell of Fayetteville Street.

Jacqueline (Jackie) Boykin of New York is visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Hill of 1801 Fayetteville Street. Jackie's mother is the former Patricia Allen who has been visiting relatives in Durham since she herself was a little girl.

Father John Risacher entertained the children of the Holy Cross Mission and their friends with a party on the church grounds on Wednesday, May 17. The party is given annually by Father Risacher. The guests were entertained with games and other activities. In one game an article was hidden and the children given twenty minutes to find it. At the end of that time no child had found it, and a prize was given to the child standing nearest it. This prize, $1.00, was won by Barbara McCall. A box of candy was raffled off. This was won by one of the Wilson sisters who held the lucky number. Children present were: Clifton Williams and his four sisters; Brenda Thompson; Maxine Barksdale; Lolita, Ronnie and Juan Johnson; Toby, Michael and Phillip Jones; Allison Duncan, Billy and Ann Bibby, Beryl Moore and sister; Melvin Hardy and his brother, the Fowler brothers, Ann and Gloria Dickens, Barbara McCall and her sister, and Dorothy Wilson and her sisters.

The late Mrs. Juanita Alston Linder for whom funeral services were conducted at the St. Titus P. E. Church on May 15. Mrs. Linder, a native of Durham, had been employed in the Tabulating Department of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company since 1951. She had worked the day before her passing on the morning of May 13.

Which one has that MONTHLY LOOK?

EYES SHOW CRAMPS, "NERVES", MISERY
You, too, may not be able to hide that tired, nervous, jittery look each month no matter how much "make-up" you use. Keep your secret safe during "those" days—don't be the one girl in three who shows the strain from tight, tired nerves and cramps—has "that monthly look!"

Take Cardui, a special medicine trusted by thousands of women, girls to help insure against cramps, "nerves" and monthly misery. A little Cardui each day helps build strength so resistance may be greater each month, nervousness and suffering less and less. Look more natural—feel and sleep better. Ask your dealer for Cardui (Say "cardi-see-ee"). Many scientists estimate that at some time during life 1 out of every 8 women suffers from monthly discomfort.
