New H-Makers, Farmers Give Annual Banquet

GARLAND

The New Homemakers and New Farmers of America held their annual Mother Daughter-Father and Son banquet recently at the high school auditorium. Over 200 parents and students were present for the occasion. The students presented a program for the parents which included the creeds of the two organizations and skits about mother and father. The Home-ec girls along with their sponsor, Mrs. E. B. Gray, served a repast.

E. W. Gray, Agriculture Teacher made the presentation of awards to the N.F.A. members who had achieved during the past year. Mrs. Ben Boykin gave remarks on behalf of the parents along with Edward Johnson, President of the P.T.A. The N.F.A. quartet rendered selections during the evening and W. H. Hill, principal, gave the closing remarks and announcements.

Other activities that will be claiming the attention of the N.F.A. members soon will be the state N.F.A. convention which convenes at A. and T. College, Greensboro, June 5-8, and a week of camping June 20, at Hammocks beach near Swansboro. Those making the camping trip are: Dixon Brown, Joe Spearman, Gilbert Henry, Thurman Cooper, and Alfred Hobbs along with their teacher of agriculture.

H. Jackson, president of the National Baptist Convention, who will give the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday, May 29, at 3:30 p.m. in the Men's Gymnasium; Dr. William Watley Pierson, dean of the Graduate School, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, and acting dean of North Carolina College's Graduate School; Dr. Richard K. Barkdale, assistant to the dean of the NCC Graduate School; Dr. George T. Kyle, dean of the NCC Undergraduate School. At bottom left is Dr. Joseph H. Taylor, chief marshal; and at bottom right is Walter Matthew Brown, who will receive the first doctor of philosophy degree ever awarded by a southern institution engaged in graduate education for Negroes. A graduate with the B.A. degree from NCC in 1948, Brown earned the M.A. degree at New York University in 1950. He entered NCC's doctoral program in education in September 1952, when it was inaugurated with the cooperation of the Graduate School in the Department of Education at the University of North Carolina.

Queen City Trailways Offering Package Tour To And From Miami

Queen City Trailways is now offering a package tour to Miami in connection with the Lord Calvert hotel of that city. Cost of the tour includes 6 nights at the Lord Calvert, Trailways transportation to and from Miami, and transfers between terminal and the hotel.

Trailways officials point out that reservations are required at the Lord Calvert and therefore a tour must be arranged and reservations at the hotel confirmed in advance. Included in the package price, along with the hotel and bus fare, is a sightseeing trip of Greater Miami and the usual guest courtesies—use of the hotel's Olympic pool, free swimming lessons, beach parties, dancing, contests and games.
