HOMECOMING FOR THE LATE N. C. WEBSTER

Whereas this newspaper in no wise condones the activities which resulted in the threat and sentencing of the ting an education. Honors as accessories or perpetrators, and the form of honorary members in the interest of history, record that prior to the chain of events which led to his ilness and death, he made a positive contribution to the extracurricular life of the institution which he did much to make nationally known.

Coming to the college as a young man, he served as bandmaster, but he will be best remembered for his contributions as chairman of the athletic committee. His vision he loved so well, "Nat" Webster in grant of point and know-how built the athletes committee. His vision he loved so well, "Nat" Webster will green be athletic committee. His vision will be a fortune. Like the athletes cause it was filled with peoperators of the loved so well, "Nat" Webster will green be athletic committee. His vision will be a fortune. Like the athletes cause it was filled with peoperators of the loved so well, "Nat" Webster will recessity, reported his change it of which was a served as a promotional wizard, few are lived to proportions which permitted irregularity and create a time of the server of the dead and know-how built the fortune. Like the athletes cause it was filled with peoperators of the peoperators of the server of the dead and know-how built the fortune. Like the athletes cause it was filled with peoperators of the peoperators

DURHAM WELCOMES THE STATE NAACP

All Durhamites who benewspaper is proud to recall lieve in equality under the that some of the crusading law will join this newspaper spirit which today-marks the NAACP branches here for Durham. We refer specificaltheir annual meeting October ly to the case of Tom Hocutt. And he also served which has done so much to at what is now North Carolinities for the organization's detractors. Significantly, however, the groups, Mr. Brownell said statement that "Continuing of the Legal Rederes Comprisessional bigots are just as determined and as destructive as communities and fastinguished which has done so much to at what is now North Carolinities for the protect and to advance the lina College at Durham some civil rights of some minorities years ago. Before the day of among us has also protected graduate and professional the civil rights of some minorities years ago. Before the day of among us has also protected graduate and professional that one of the completing the first Negro in U. S. histotherners is not of the continuing the distinguished using the distinguished using the first Negro in U. S. histotherners supported graduate and professional schools. That case and women. In its dedicated was not immediately resolved fight to obtain first class cities among its the stage for what is now and women. In its dedicated white entire in the colored Americans, the NAACP, which seeming known as an "Age was the entire in the colored Americans, the NAACP, which seeming known as an "Age was not immediately resolved fight to obtain first class cities the stage for what is now and women. In its dedicated white citizens among its the stage for what is now and the citizens among its the stage for what is now and women. In its dedicated white citizens among its the stage for what is now and women. In the dedicated white citizens among its the stage for what is now and women. In its dedicated white citizens among its the stage for what is now and women. In its dedicated white citizens among its the stage for what is now and women.

"A NEW LOOK" IN HUMAN RELATIONS FOR

THE AMERICAN LEGION AND OTHERS

FOR THE LATE N. C. WEBSTER

Rev. Albert Outler, professor of theology at southern methods: University, used as his text the King James of the plan. We hope the strator was an underling, an insecure, temporary occupant things that he did for hundred of A. and T. students who experienced trouble getwom he could have named as accessories or perpetrators of the alleged crimes which in 1952 in the form of honorary membership in the Letterman's Club.

I ronically, Mr. Webster returned to the alleged crimes which and earlier in 1950 when former students elected him of the year to which more of the period of the plan. We hope the istrator was an underling, an insecure, temporary occupant of the plan we hope the istrator was an underling, an insecure, temporary occupant on called unto indication. Honors who have named as accessories or perpetrators of the alleged crimes which is a surround his name today.

I ronically, Mr. Webster returned to the color of the word, even in this; Thou shall love thy neighbor as the plan. We hope the istrator was an underling, an insecure, temporary occupant of the plan. We hope the istrator was an underling, an insecure, temporary occupant of the plan we have deen called unto indication. Incomplete the surround his part of the plan we have deen called unto indication. Incomplete the called unto indication in the vicinity of North Carolina College's Negro community would not be the color of the word, even in this; Thou shall love the plan we have the plan we have deen called unto indication. Incomplete the surround his name today.

I ronically, Mr. Webster returned to the color of the plan we have deen called unto indication. Incomplete the plan we have U. S. Attorney Herbert brownell, Jr., speaking last case in human relations.

Sunday night at the annual dunner of the interested in human relations.

Duke University officials and who may be interested in the freedom of white men and women. In its dedicated fight to obtain first class citizenship for colored Americans, the NAACP, which significantly had dedicated white citizens among its founders, protects the freedom and rights of all Americans.

The only method which the NAACP has used to obtain full and equal rights for its members has been the lawful use of the courts of our land. This is in keeping with the lighest democratic traditions of our country, it has not condoned violence, it has imposed no economic sanctions, and it has consistently tried avoid demagoguery. Its case, and Durham has been the to avoid demagoguery. Its case, and Durham provided lawyers have used as their condy weapons the Constitution of the United States of America. Informed legal authorities for a pushlication which has used its columns for-nearly endeated which that a century in this crusade is a publication which has used its columns for-nearly endeated which the far a century in this crusade is a landmark in human relations in the U. S. A. As a publication which has used its columns for-nearly endeated where the fore FULL 14TH AMEND.

A As a publication which has used its columns for-nearly endeated where the for FULL 14TH AMEND.

The state of the freedom of the fully recompleted institutions. The form of the fully recompleted institutions. The forest provided valuation of the fully recompleted valuation of the fully recompleted valuation and the fully recompleted valuation of the fully recompleted valuation of the fully recompleted valuation and the fully recompleted valuation and the fully recompleted valuation of the fully recompleted valuation and the fully recompleted va

American democrati practices; and the perpetra ator of the embrrassment up on the students should be re moved from office and divest-ed of his authority to deal with the public on the basis of who may be interested in maintaining the lily-white complexion of their enrollcomplexion of their enrollment should be concerned with flagrantly publicized instances of racial discrimination. Existing as it does in the Civil Rights-conscious atmosphere of the Durham community, Duke University might well start planning for the time when the spotlight to the states and individuals to join in making freedom a "inving reality" and create a "golden age of civil rights."

Castigating "hatemongers" of law suits shifts to private who apply the "winplash of intoierance" to minority groups, Mr. Brownell said "This infamous fraternity of professional bigots are just as determined and as destructive as community, Duke University might well start planning for the time when the spotlight of law suits shifts to private institutions enjoying considerable tax-exempt status. It ought to be sobering to recall Mr. Brownell's recent professional bigots are just as statement that "Continuing federal interest remains in the implementation of the (U. S. Supreme) Court's finding in this category, please note) ings." In his speech before it, is an intellectual, a species that ought not to be a rarity on the campus of an institution with as much financial to backing as our city's Duke university. The Duke student newspaper and a local daily say some Duke white students wanted to linvite some North Carolina College Negro students to attend a play at Duke and to pay for admission. This is in no way contrary to the policy, for example, of the policy for example, of the portunities to some interested operations of the portunities to some interested on the annual concert series in the annual concert series in stitution and reinforced by a policy.

RACE HATRED MUST BE ELIMINATED

Spiritual Insight

"CROWD PLEASER"

BY REVEREND HAROLD ROLAND Pastor, Mount Gilead Baptist Church

"Pilate wishing to satisfy the tried to save, glorify or dignify there is a choice of being a crowd ... released Barrabas. Jes-Duke University proved his "If tolerance can not be found point against the 20th Cen- in the schools and churches, tury type American bigot of in the shop and market place, the pseudo "egg head" varit will not exist."

The "egg head," we take will not exist."

Intelligent Southern white that ought not to be cructive filed..." Mark 15:15.

Pilate made a shameful choice in heeding the crowd rather than right and truth.

Too often we too are tempted that ought not to be a rarity people who are interested in Too often we too are tempted to do the same thing in the speaks. midst of life's great choices. Often we must decide between being a crowd pleaser rather than to do what is right. We bargain our peace of conscience for the acclaim of the Jesus is the essence of goodness multitude. We will sell our and nobility! Barrabas is the souls for the applause of symbol of a degraded humanithe mob. We will walk the low way with the mob rather than pleaser provided it can be done the highway with righteousness and truth. Pilate rejected goodness and embraced the if it can be done in righteous evil..."Pilate wishing to satisfy ness. He who sells his soul to the crowd released Barrabas... please the crowd is guilty of ings were common, sometimes involving burning a Negro at at the stake.

AN IMPOSED INDIGNITY

was standing, some sitting. A white conductor, heavily weighted with a superiority complex and "attended" by the inautitable Negro porter, had been accused of murder.

The proposed in the jury room, freeing two of the Negro as a childish, hap-other white men who had other white men who had been accused of murder.

The proposed in the jury room, freeing two of the Negro as a childish, hap-other white men who had been accused of murder.

The proposed in the jury room, freeing two of the Negro as a childish, hap-other white men who had been accused of murder.

The proposed in the jury room, freeing two of the Negro as a childish, hap-other white men who had been accused of murder.

The proposed in the jury room, freeing two of the Negro as a childish, hap-other white men who had been accused of murder.

The proposed in the jury room, freeing two of the Negro as a childish, hap-other white men who had been accused of murder.

The proposed in the jury room, freeing two of the Negro as a childish, hap-other white men who had been accused of murder.

The proposed in the jury room, freeing two of the Negro as a childish, hap-other white men who had been accused of murder.

The proposed in the jury room, freeing two of the Negro as a childish, hap-other white men who had been accused of murder.

The proposed in the jury room is the jury room in the jury room in the jury room is the jury room in the jury room in the jury room is the jury room in the jury script group, there were much loud talking, laughing and eating. It was an imposed situ-ation that embittered any in-telligent Negro, whether he was educated or not, and left him often burning in the heat of the hot rage of baffled frustration.

Sitting a few seats forward said said summation.

wind caught that nasty spittle in its cruel fingers and threw it through the open window where I was sitting and into my face." The lady painted a one of you has the courage to do it." he said. He was right.

A man of a different stripe

And, then, she added that her anger flamed into a white heat. She stated further, "I was so angry that had I died then I would have gone to hell." Subsequently, after some reflection. I could not string along. tion, I could not string along scourge of shifts the second of the source o died at the time without being angry. I made that statement then with all seriousness; and, during the quarter of a Faulkner, the writer, who ex-century since, I have had no pressed his deep shame at the reason to repudlate it.

Deliver me from that man who has the type of love that robs him of the power to become angry; who has so much coaches reserved for Negroes religion nothing anybody does in those dismal days when race or says can make him angry.

hatred was so bitter that lynch- (Continued on Page Seven)

Levery restrictive covenant in Barrabas. But wrong can never crowd pleaser and being right-assume the status of dignity and respectability. Dress up wrong all you want to and wrong is still wrong. He who ful creature. The unrighteous He who pleases the crowd at stands for right can make his crowd pleaser must suffer the choice before the crowd pains of an outraged conscience. The unrighteous crowd-It should not be hard to de-tide between Jesus and Barra-own eyes. He loses his self recide between Jesus and Barra-bas. Have you ever had to despect. He loses face morally cide between Jesus and Barra-bas? What is the difference? this hour for decency and jusding crowd pleasers. Let's not stand with Barrabas and Pity. It is all right to be a crowd late. Let's choose to stand with in honor and self respect. Pleasing the crowd is all right Christ for dignity and justice for all men.

Let us refuse to stand with the Pilates of our time who re-lease Barrabas and crucify Jesus he delivered to be cruci- moral degradation. He who anew the Christ. Let's stand fied..." chooses a Barrabas and rejects courageously for right and re-To his eternal shame, Pilate the Christ is guilty of the most sist all temptations to become sold Jesus down the River. He shameful moral cowardice. If cowardly crowd pleasers.

JUSTIFIABLE ANGER

live at this present time. For with this system there is some-taxi-driver who turned a corner to nearly run me down a it off by directing some vile language at me. A momentary anger welled up in me and exploded in a verbal barrage that

DEATH INDUCED anger literally killed a woman tension and had been warned by her doctor to avoid any excitement. Something occurred one day which she did not like. BIBLICAL SUPPORT

An editor, recuperating from illness, has ample time news stories emanating from to read the day's news and to give almost leisurely study meeting in Miami, Florida and time to some trends that A merican Legion's annual privileges but the fact restaint to some trends that A tone session, this gathering and time to some trends that A friend of ours tells the University spectacle of THE that said there is no basis for the inspired charges that earner world citizenship and world a merican," and the "200% government. At another sessemence between the "100% government. At another session, a presiding officer refussion, a presiding officer refussion members in North Carestian security of the dienters and the members in North Carestian security of the dienters and the members in North Carestian security of the dienters and the members in North Carestian security of the dienters and the members in North Carestian security of the dienters and the members in North Carestian security of the dienters and the members and said the security of the dienters and the members and said the security of the security of the dienters and the members and said the security of t

Some thirty odd years ago, the renowned and eloquent Miss Nannie Burroughs spoke to a group of us students at Virginia Seminary. She related an unpleasant experience that she had on her way from the nation's capital to Lynchburg, Virginia where the school is located. She was riding in on boy of 14 had been the murder victim because, the prosecution charged, he had whistled at the sight of a pretty young woman who entered a store. He was a Negro, the woman was white. And that, in the code by which members of the Mississippi jury live, was the unpardon-able crime--the assumption by

REMEMBER: WE NORTHERNERS AREN'T BLAMELESS

"Gentlemen, we're on the defensive. Only so long as we support? can preserve the rights of

with a conscience is William crime committed in his home

The brutal murder of Ne

AN IMPOSED INDIGNITY
Miss Burroughs went on to tell how the dirty little coach was crowded with passengers, some standing, some sitting. A white conductor, heavily in the jury room, freeing two
in the jury room, freeing two of Sumner, a real estate agreement—written or unwritten-has a close kinship to lynching. Every resort to the Negro sterotype in entertainment characterization of the Negro as a childish, hapzor-wielding, immoral individual also runs in the lynching

Every time a Negro is denied absolutely equal or employment opportunities, every time he is forced into a slum ghetto for denial of opportunity to live elsewhere, he is being lynched a little bit.

And these more subtle forms of the lynching credo deposit the shame of racial discriminafrom Miss Burrough was a woman busy with her snuff. She opened a window and spat.
Said Miss Burroughs,

The

She crime-the assumption by a colored human being of equality with white human beings, one of the defense attorneys who knew what manner of One of the defense attorneys who knew what manner of the thought of murdering hu-

American way of life? How are tion with Communism for their

SATURDAY

OCTOBER 22, 1955

L. R. AUSTIN, Publisher CLATHAN A. BOSS. Editor

D. A. HAMMOND, JR. Advertising Mgr., JESSE COFIELD Circulation Manager

No guarantee of publication of unsolicited material. Letters to the editor for publication must be signed and confined to 500 words.

Subscription Rates: 10c per copy; Six months, $2.00; One Year, $3.00 (Foreign Countries, $4.00

Life Is Like That BY H. ALBERT SMITH

There is a place for anger in fatal to that woman as a pistol our daily scheme of things and shot. Anger, we might there-the social system in which we fore conclude is a bad thing. live at this present time. For with this system there is something radically wrong. And that is so evident that even the way faring man though a fool cannot escape it. Indeed, he cannot, because he is the constant victim of the pressures of injustice and man's inhumanity to man.

MAY SEEM STRANGE

BUL SUPPORT
But, as we read the bible, we find much that supports the thesis that anger may serve a good purpose and has a legitimate status in our emotional life. That anger, however, is not the raw biological feeling of the animal or the blind fury that temporarily deprives a man of sanity or a bitterness

I quickly squelched because it suddenly dawned upon me I was about to "hurt" myself.