Weekend With Family

William Dexter Southerland, who is working in Brooklyn, N. Y. spent the weekend with his family at their home, 606 Umstead Street.

Visited Parents

Staff Sgt. Elbert Tatum of Lockbourne Air Force Base, Columbus, Ohio, who has been on a 10 day leave, spent a few days in the city visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Tatum, 907 Walton Avenue. Sgt. Tatum's family, wife and children accompanied him here from Raleigh.

Weekend Guest

Mrs. F. B. W. Dungee of Hen-

erson, N. C. and New York City was the weekend guest of Mrs. Mary H. Shepard.

Stewardess Board

Mrs. Mary H. Shepard was hostess to Stewardess Boards one and two of St. Joseph AME Church, on Wednesday evening at her home on Fayetteville Street. Mrs. Shepard, president of Board No. 1, presided over the meeting, during which time plans were made for the boards for the ensuing year.

A Social Hour was enjoyed. The hostess served refreshments to the following members: Miss Hattie Jenkins, president of Board No. One, Mesdames Cora McAdam, Eva Thompson, Mabel Strudwick, Mamie Dawson, Stella Austin, Lottie Coleman, Lola Cotton, Theodosia Robinson, Parepa Watkins and Chat Rivera.

Year Round Garden Club

The Year Round Garden Club was entertained in high style last Friday evening at 8 o'clock p.m. by Mrs. Ethel Perry at her home on Linwood Avenue. Christmas was in the air and everywhere. Christmas carols were led by Mrs. Lil Farrington. The garden gate was opened by Mrs. Plassie Harris with a very beautiful and timely poem—'Its Christmas In Your Heart.' Some lovely thoughts were brought out in the poem. During the business session, presided over by the president, Mrs. Pearl Cordice, the minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. Flossie-Toran and several thank you cards were read. Mrs. Hattie Meadows was happily welcomed back to the club after a long period of illness.

Each member displayed original Christmas arrangements, which were many and beautiful. Next was the pretty Christmas tree with all types of gifts, as members exchanged them and several personal gifts were given.

The two visiting guests received gifts from the hostess. They were Mrs. Lil Buchanan and Mrs. Roland Alston, sister of the hostess. Sandwiches, homemade cake, Christmas punch and accompaniments were served by the hostess.

Other members present, were Mesdames: Alma Bennett, Mag. Kennedy, Carrie Burch, Katie Love, Goldie Sellas, Mary Green, Mary Henderson, Rosa Sult, Eugenia Simmons, Sarah Felder, Ann Webb, Wilma Milum, Marie Speigner, Maggie Walton, Annie Mayo, Plassie Harris, Gertrude Long, Alice Farrison and Miss Edna Mason.

Fetes Bridge Club

Last Friday evening, Dec. 8th, the Gourmet Bridge Club was entertained by Mrs. Julia Garrett at her home on Fayetteville Street. Beautiful flower arrangements made a very nice setting for three tables of bridge.

The hostess served a delectable East Indian menu, after which play began. After several enjoyable progressions, the prizes were awarded. The visiting guest, Mrs. Eula Harris received the guest prize. Mrs. Dessa Turner won first club prize, and the second club prize was won by Mrs. Bettie Goodloe. The consolation prize was presented to Dr. Helen Edmonds.

Other members playing were Mesdames Nell Hunter, Bess Whitted, Ret Williams, VI Thompson, Nola Cox, Martha Donnell, Mollie Lee and Al Thompson.

Christmas Party

Stewardess Board No. 3, of St. Marks AMEZ Church held its Christmas Party Saturday night, December 10th, at the church. The setting for this was very pleasing. Members and their guests numbering about 35 or 40, were happy exchanging gifts and greetings.

A turkey dinner with all the trimmings was enjoyed by all present.

Returns from Hospital

Mrs. Rose Fortune, who has been a patient at Lincoln Hospital has returned to her home on Linwood Avenue.

Hostess to Club

The Volkamenia Literary Club held its regular bi-weekly meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Julia Harris, 605 Lawson Street. Present were twelve members: Mrs. I. H. Russell, president; Miss Lucy Royster, secretary; Mrs. Crusee Gear, treasurer; Mrs. Hattie Jenkins, coffee; W. J. Kennedy, Jr., Henderson Lee, E. R. Merrick, and Joseph H. Taylor. Visitors were Mrs. Ann Taylor and Miss Mildred Wilson of the North Carolina College staff.

Among the correspondence read was a thank-you letter from Miss Pauli Murray, Counselor at Law, New York and daughter of the recently deceased Mrs. Pauline F. Dame, a charter member of Volkamenia. Miss Murray is now at MacDowell Colony, Petersburg, New Hampshire, where she is writing a book about the Fitzgerald family of which Mrs. Dame was a member. She is one of the first three Negroes to be invited to the colony, founded by Mrs. Edward MacDowell as a haven for young writers, composers, and painters.

The highlights of the meeting was a presentation by Mrs. Russell of portions of Miss Nannie H. Burroughs' book Twelve Things the Negro Must Do for Himself. All members present contributed to the lively discussion which followed, and which extended beyond the usual hour for closing. Most enjoyable were the "TV" dinners served by the hostess, Mrs. Harris.

Volkamenia is one of the oldest cultural and social organizations of the city.

Mrs. L. M. Royal, Hostess

The 6-W Social Club was entertained by Mrs. Lula Mae Royal on Monday night at her home on Elm Street. After a brief business meeting, the hostess served party refreshments and directed games. Prize winners were Mrs. Ruth Campbell and Mrs. Elizabeth Edwards.

Birth Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Freeman Williams announce the birth of their son, Clarence Freeman, Jr., on December 1, 1955 at Duke Hospital. Mrs. Williams is the former Miss Doris Mitchell of this city.

Cheryl and Darlene Ward, First Prize Winners in a recent Carnation Healthy Baby Contest held in New York City.

Feed your baby Carnation, America's "healthy baby" milk!

NO WONDER Carnation is the "healthy baby" milk of babies in New York, and of babies everywhere! Because Carnation is the world's safest form of milk for baby's bottle. The most nourishing and digestible, too. It's the milk every doctor and baby specialist knows. 8 out of 10 mothers who feed a Carnation formula say, "My doctor recommended it." So ask your own good doctor about Carnation... your very next visit!

Best for your baby and your family, too!

...in your Cream Pitcher
use Carnation, the milk that whips! It has the consistency of good thick cream—you'll love it in coffee!

...in your Cooking
let Carnation's special blending qualities give you richer, smoother, more flavorful results...in every recipe that calls for milk.

FOR GENERATIONS, AMERICA'S FAVORITE MILK
