Reports From Federation Confab Heard At Final Utopia Club Meet

The Utopia Club met Friday evening with Mrs. Elnora Smith on Nelson St. This was the closing meeting until Fall.

Mrs. Smith's beautiful lawn and flower garden were lighted with Japanese lanterns, and tables set up for service, but old man cold weather slipped in and spoiled plans.

However, everyone enjoyed visiting in the garden for a short period. The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Mabel Mabry. Inspiring devotions were led by Mrs. Freedom Price.

Mrs. Smith's niece, Miss Elnora Joyner and Nephew Charles Joyner thrilled guests and members with song and recitations. The highlight of the evening was the glowing report by delegate Wilmer Milum on activities during the State Federation of Clubs meeting recently in Fayetteville. The report was thoroughly enjoyed and all felt as though they were at the meeting. Mrs. Sallie Harris and her committee on a slate of officers for the year reported and the entire slate was unanimously elected for the next two years. President, Mrs. Mabel Mabry, Vice president, Mrs. Elnora Smith, Secretary, Mrs. Lena Richardson, Treasurer, Mrs. Wilmer Milum.

The committee was given a vote of thanks for such a splendid job. Guests present were Mesdames H. Brown, N. Alston, A. Perry, Perry, friends from Louisville.

Miss Constance Young, Mesdames Evelyn Thorpe, Lyda Wray, Roxie Rowland, Hattie Mitchell. Each were presented and gave encouraging remarks. The hostess assisted by Mrs. V. Joyner and Mrs. Martha Jones served a most delectable buffet style menu. All were reluctant to leave, as Mrs. Smith proved such a wonderful hostess. The fall meeting will begin in October and all joined hands and sang "Till We Meet Again."

Other members present were: Mesdames Emma Randolph, Hattie Meadows, Bessie Pratt, Marian Alston, Rader Prince, Plassie Harris, Dora Green, Matilda Townsend, Minnie Forte, Essie Curry, Sallie Harris, Nellie Williams, Hallie Dillehunt, Laura Burnett, Ethel Perry, Gladys McNeil, P. Grace Williams and Lena Richardson.

DORCAS CLUB AT LIBRARY

At the invitation of the Daughters of Dorcas Club, a number of women responded and were cordially welcomed at the Warren Stanford Library on Thursday evening May 31 to hear reports from the recent meeting of the State Federation of Negro Women's Clubs, held at Fayetteville Teachers College. Mrs. E. R. Merrick presided graciously. An enjoyable devotion period was held.

Miss Constance S. Young, Daughter delegate, gave a rather full account of the 3 days session as held.

Mrs. Wilma Milum of the Utopias Club spoke enthusiastically of her impressions of the Federation meeting as did Mrs. M. Horton of the Union Baptist Missionary Society. Mrs. Wm. Fuller from the Mt. Zion Baptist Church was also present.

Mrs. LuSybil Taylor represented the Model Mother's Club. She is an active member of the State Federation.

The Junior department of the Federation was enlarged by the acceptance of two fine joys and responsibilities of club life. Dr. Charlotte H. Brown, a founder of Fed. in N. C. and honorary president, was able to attend all meetings and all were happy. She told of her work among many of our salted workers departed.

Mrs. Brown will have a birthday on June 10th at which time her Sorority will unveil a bust of her. In this celebration, N. C. clubs are asked to share and establish a Charlotte H. Brown's Day. State president, Mrs. Rose D. Aggrey of Salisbury made the suggestion and urged support of it. Mrs. Merrick and others spoke in interest of a City Fed. of clubs and Mrs. M. Horton was voted on to serve as president and a Utopia Junior as vice president.
